Principles, Not Men. The rejection by the house of delegates of the Episcopal Convention at Boston of the canon adopted by the synod of the diocese of the creation and regulation of the proposed order of Deaconesses or Sisters of the Church, is one of the most significant events that has taken place. It is undoubtedly one of the most important in the history of the lay in the Lower House. It is noted that the lay delegation at Boston has been usually good as regards the distinction, dignity, capacity and earnestness of its leaders.
