

Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, the new Senator from Indiana, has not been saying anything since his entrance to the Senate to give the law the chance to speak at him that they have been saying...

After having maintained the carpet-bagger in power for over a decade through the aid of federal bayonets and a number of some of the greatest radicals of the west to the United States Senate, and sitting in union with them in every measure to rob the Southern States of nearly all its material wealth and crushed its people...

The campaign has undergone a complete revolution within the last thirty days. It seems that the cold weather has put the Russians in good fighting trim, and effectively demoralized the Turks...

The editor of the Washington Capital, who is an expert in such things, writes to the editor of the Republican saying...

It is not disposed to doubt that the Republican party is dying a rather unexciting death, such death as is possible, and that it is in the gallery of the Senate...

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 19, 1877.

Readers, if you want to know what is going on in the business world, just read our advertising columns, the Special notices in particular.

MAXIMS FOR THE DAY.

No man worth the office of President should be willing to hold it untried, or placed there by any man.

I could never have been recommended to the nation by the smaller aid of a person, however respectable, to intrude upon the honor of the American people.

Under the form of law, Rufus B. Hayes has been declared President of the United States. He has no right to the office.

CONSTRUCTIVE TREASON

The Chicago Tribune accuses Blaine of treachery for pairing with Senator Grover. It says that Sharon and Grover ought to have paired. But how was Grover to pair with a man three thousand miles away?

FRAND IS EVEN POWERFUL IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE

On a number of important questions in that body, affecting alike the rights of States and individuals, the scale was turned last week in favor of fraud by a fraudulent Vice President.

SETTLED—The Beaver Agency announces by authority that Chief Justice Agnew, who is a resident of that town, will be a candidate next year for re-nomination by the Republican party to the Supreme Bench.

BELL-DONIZO—The Iowa Eagle, of a recent date, spreads its wings in this way: "If Mr. Hayes desires to see political damnation rise up before him, like a midnight ghost, and stare him in the face during the remainder of his days, all he has to do is to veto the silver bill."

ANOTHER TEST—And now that Kellogg is seated, Packard wants to be collector at New Orleans. Mr. Hayes is now to be tested as to his Southern policy and civil service reform pretensions. The questions are combined in this impudent demand of a high office for Packard.

MEETING OF THE LEGISLATURE—In accordance with Article II, Section 4, of the New Constitution, and the adjournment of the last session, the Senators and members of the House will convene in the State Capitol at 10 o'clock, m., on Tuesday, the first day of January next.

CONKING ON END—A Washington telegram says: "As the message was read in the Senate, Conkling followed it line by line from a printed copy, and savagely stabbed the Southern policy and civil service references with a pencil, so as to inform the lookers-on from the gallery that he would soon deliver the audience to be in attendance."

ANDREW—Both Houses of Congress adjourned on Saturday last, until Thursday, the 10th day of January next. Washington will therefore be pretty quiet for the next fortnight. A large number of Senators and members left for their homes on Friday night, and will be absent during the holidays at all events.

A HAPPY FAMILY—A Washington correspondent says: The nineteen year old daughter who presides over Senator Cameron's household is a commanding person, a perfect Juno in face and form. She superintends the education of her five brothers and sisters, attends state dinners, and sits with dignity at the head of her father's table.

THE COLORADO FOLLY.

Our Democratic Congressmen have been playing the fool over this piece of territory for nearly two years. By admitting Colorado as a State in June 1876, they defeated the election of Tilden, who would have been President without Oregon, South Carolina, Florida or Louisiana, because 184 Electors was a majority of the whole previous to the admission of this territory as a State. The Returning Board crimes, and the debauching of our Supreme Court followed. The shame and disgrace which was inaugurated in June 1876, is not an end yet. On Thursday last the Democratic members of Congress in imitation of the Returning Board, admitted Patterson to a seat in Congress to which he was not elected.

FATAL HANDLING OF A PIROGUE—Baltimore, December 15.—Mr. Richard H. Snowden, brother of Sheriff Snowden, and a leading real estate dealer, met a tragic death today at his residence in the west end. Mr. Snowden had promised to take a friend after breakfast, about ten o'clock, walked into his library with the pistol in his hand. He conversed for several minutes with his wife and daughters, and while thus engaged commenced suddenly the barrel of the weapon. It instantly exploded and the ball, very large in caliber, entered his abdomen and penetrated to a depth of five inches severing it, it is supposed, the intestines. His heroic stricken wife caught him in her arms as he fell, and medical aid was called, but to no purpose. His death ensued six hours later. Mr. Snowden was a man of considerable wealth, and was highly esteemed.

THE LYONBERG VIRGINIANS.—We learned from a party who came from Balfour falls that on a portion of land at that place, owned by Mr. Locher and pointed by tennis, fifteen colored men were dropped in one house during the recent flood.

THREE WELL KNOWN CITIZENS OF PHILADELPHIA died on Tuesday: Charles D. Partridge, restaurateur, William P. Partridge, president of the Fifth and Sixth streets passenger railway, and John Pedrick, enterprised in the coal trade.

IN A CALIFORNIA COURT Mr. Baldwin, a witness, when questioned by the lawyers, said he didn't know whether he was worth $50,000 or $100,000. The counsel after consultation decided that a couple of million didn't matter.

THE NEW OIL PARADISE.

WARFIELD, KY., Dec. 10, 1877. G. H. GOODELARD, Esq.—Dear Sir: Sending various accounts of the oil revolution in the West, and the "Ground Hog City" in your country, I thought I would send you a few lines to let you hear from the "Tag River Oil Region" in Kentucky.

I have been here some time, and have seen the country, and have returned to my home in West Virginia to spend a few days with family, except machinery, and a few other things. The River is the left hand fork of Big Sandy River, and the town of Warfield is situated at the mouth of Marcellus Creek, about seventy miles from the mouth of the river at Callertown, Kentucky. This Tag River country is bound to consist of Oil Creek, Pennsylvania. You can pick up the earth anywhere near the Burning Springs, on Tag River or on the Burning Springs, on Tag River or on the Burning Springs, on Tag River.

For each journal as the Post to turn around and above the men now, who have kept the party in power for twelve years, is the basest kind of ingratitude. When told by Democrats that these men were rogues, the Post said, "it's lie."

The people, or conglomerate rock crops out in perfect boilers every where, while nearly all the rock you see is what is called "shale sand."

The "break" having been traced through from Oil Creek, Pennsylvania, shows much better than at the Burning Springs, on Tag River, or on the Burning Springs, on Tag River.

Success is awarded to the party that presents the most competent candidate to the people, on election day. In this the Democrats in the States indicated, were particularly fortunate.

OUR INDIAN AFFAIRS.

It seems that the lesson taught, the government by Captain Jack, Sitting Bull and Joseph are of no avail. There is something wrong some where. The military system is not working.
