

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor. CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 14, 1878.

A MITT ERROR—While Senator Wallace was delivering his silver speech, his neighbors, Bayard from Delaware and Randolph of New Jersey, as well as Hill of Georgia, were constantly interrupting him.

Maxims for the Day. No man surely the office of President should be willing to hold it if he cannot be explained to the business world, just as our advertising readers, the official count in particular.

THE EASTERN WAR. Washington, February 14.—A dispatch received at the British legation represents the position of affairs in Europe as extremely grave, and leaves little hope of a peaceful adjustment.

THE BEST PLAN.—The Harrisburg Patriot remarks: "The advantage of Senator Wallace's plan for the investment of small earnings in three to five bonds over the postal scheme is that the former does not require a great machine of government to put and keep it in operation."

LIBERARIAN.—Gov. Hartman has appointed Rev. Charles L. Ehrenfeld State Librarian for three years.

WHY HERITAGE.—The Banking and Currency Committee in Congress, are about reporting a bill to retire the National Bank notes and substitute greenbacks or Treasury notes, which cost the people nothing and are better than money.

STATE DIGNITY.—The Lower House of our Legislature is too tender hearted to expel the rogue, Ballard, who, by his eloquence, has violated all legislative etiquette.

AN EXCHANGE REMEMBRANCE.—The Bellefonte Pitchfork, which has heretofore never had a good word for Beecher, but only violent abuse, has gone into sympathy over his lecture delivered there lately.

A NEW DRESS.—The Harrisburg Patriot put on an entire new coat last Monday morning. It is a decided improvement, and the thing looks like property at this distance.

NO "COMPLAINT" IN OURS.—Doctor Wickham, State Superintendent of Common Schools, is in the field for the next Republican nomination for Governor, and the Lancaster News is his original champion.

A CALL FOR ORGANIZATION.—The Directors of the National Liberal League have issued a call to their friends inviting them to meet in their respective cities boroughs villages, and towns on Washington's Birthday, February 22, 1878, for the purpose of organizing themselves into Local Auxiliary Leagues.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS.—The Democratic voters of the Borough of Clearfield are hereby requested to meet at the Commissioners office, on next Saturday evening, between the hours of five and eight o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of nominating, by ballot, a ticket for borough officers, to be supported at the election on Tuesday next.

THE PLAGUE WHICH DEVASTATED CENTRAL Italy, in 1832, gave occasion for new exhibitions of his great and fatherly qualities. The year after he was transferred to the see of Imola, where Gregory XVI. felt that the presence of such a man was needed.

REMOVING LIKEY.—The corruption malady in elections seems to have raged in different parts of the State during the past two years, especially in the election of Sheriff. The gentleman elected to that office in Butler county has been deposed for corrupt practices.

A CLERK IN THE SCHOOL DEPARTMENT. At Harrisburg, got away with $100,000 of the State funds last winter, in the shape of a book. This winter, as far as $20,000. Most indeed! If that underserving fellow is allowed to stay three years longer he will "go for" the two million balance, if he is not locked out, and then watched.

LET'S SETTLE.—An exchange puts it this way: Why this discord on financial questions between the East and the West? Let us have peace. We propose that all the debts due by the West to the East shall be paid in gold because the East prefers gold; and that all the debts due by the East to the West shall be paid in silver because the West prefers silver.

FALL OF A BRIDGE.—The long bridge over the Schuylkill river, at South street, Philadelphia, gave way on Saturday, and precipitated six spans into the river. The original cost of the bridge was $750,000. It is estimated that $100,000 will repair the structure.

THE BLIND SILVER BILL. Below will be found the Blind silver bill as it passed the House and as it now stands before the Senate.

CONSTITUTIONAL, February 11.—The Sultan has invited the Grand Duke Nicholas to spend a few days in Constantinople.

LOOK, February 11.—A dispatch from Constantinople states that, in consequence of the objections of the Turkish government, the British fleet has not yet passed through the Bosphorus.

LONDON, February 10.—The Russian agency, of St. Petersburg, states that the dispatch of the British fleet to the Bosphorus restores to Russia liberty of navigation.

THE VIENNA POLITICAL CORRESPONDENT. The Vienna Political Correspondent, writing on the 9th inst., says: "The amount of money at any one time invested in gold bullion, exclusive of such real estate, shall not exceed five million dollars."

A MODEL BANKER. We recently learned, and were highly gratified to know that our mutual friend, Secy. of the Erie and Westchester, in 1853, he and a few clams raked up $600,000 in gold, which one of them transported to New York, and there traded it off for $1,000,000 in greenbacks.

LET IT BE SETTLED.—The New York World is alluding to the recent Ocean disaster, in this way: "The station ten miles apart and seven miles to patrol the beach."

HERMAN FLY.—The American Agriculturist for February has information that "this part of the wheat plant is now operating destructively in many parts of the country—Michigan, Wisconsin, Canada, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Kentucky and localities between."

THE CITY OF RICHMOND, a vessel chartered by Messrs. Collins, will take its departure for Brazil from Philadelphia on the 29th inst. A large number of those who took passage on the Metropolis will sail on this vessel.

NOTICE.—We have left an account with W. W. White, of Washington, D. C., for paying the same within 15 days, after which we will sue.

ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL SCHOOL. This school will open in the Leonard Hotel building, Clearfield, Pa., on MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1878, at ten o'clock a. m.
