

Terms of Subscription. If paid in advance, or within 3 months, $2.00 per annum. If not paid in advance, $2.50 per annum. If paid after the expiration of 3 months, $3.00 per annum. For each subsequent insertion, 10 cents per line.

Rates of Advertising. Transient advertisements, per square of 10 lines or less, 5 times or less, 25 cents. For each subsequent insertion, 10 cents. Advertisements of 10 lines or more, 25 cents. For each subsequent insertion, 10 cents. Carriage and Stage, 25 cents. Discharge notices, 25 cents. Local notices, per line, 25 cents.

JOHN PRINTING OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. Job neatly executed at this office.

HENRY BRETH, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

JOHN D. THOMPSON, Justice of the Peace and Sheriff. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

RICHARD HUGHES, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

THOMAS H. FORCEEE, DEBATEUR. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

WARREN THORN, BOOT AND SHOE MAKER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

REUBEN HICKMAN, House and Sign Painter and Paper Hanger. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

G. H. HALL, PRACTICAL PUMP MAKER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

E. A. BIGLER & CO., SQUARE TIMBER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

JAS. B. GRAHAM, Real Estate, Square Timber, Boards, SHINGLES, LATH, & PICKETS. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

WEAVER & BETTS, Real Estate, Square Timber, Saw Logs, and LUMBER OF ALL KINDS. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

J. BLAKE WALTERS, REAL ESTATE BROKER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

S. I. SNYDER, PRACTICAL WATCHMAKER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

ANDREW HARWICK, Real Estate, Square Timber, Saw Logs, and LUMBER OF ALL KINDS. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

Cards. A SUMMER DAY. Deep down below the tangled glade, The meadow-lark sings all the day, And bursts at times from out the hedge, And here and there a warbling note, A cricket chirps, some insect hums, And from the ferns rises the rustle.

HENRY BRETH, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

JOHN D. THOMPSON, Justice of the Peace and Sheriff. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

RICHARD HUGHES, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

THOMAS H. FORCEEE, DEBATEUR. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

WARREN THORN, BOOT AND SHOE MAKER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

REUBEN HICKMAN, House and Sign Painter and Paper Hanger. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

G. H. HALL, PRACTICAL PUMP MAKER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

E. A. BIGLER & CO., SQUARE TIMBER. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

JAS. B. GRAHAM, Real Estate, Square Timber, Boards, SHINGLES, LATH, & PICKETS. Office in the Court House, Clearfield, Pa. My S. 1878-79.

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN.

school, has ceased to learn, should by all means stop teaching, for children need impulse more than instruction. The teacher, therefore, should be a teacher who can give, not a teacher who can only receive. He should be a teacher who can give, not a teacher who can only receive.

WHAT SHOULD OUR BOYS READ. BY HON. E. G. NORTHBROOK. Teachers can largely determine the reading of their scholars out of school. It is important not to awaken a love of books, but to guide in their selection, and form a taste for profitable reading. Scholars should be encouraged to have some good book always at home, in which they read a little every day.

BATTLE OF UMATILLA. AN ACCOUNT OF COLONEL MILES' FIGHT WITH THE INDIANS. San Francisco, July 15.—A Walla Walla dispatch gives the following account of the battle at Umatilla reservation. "Newspapers have been placed in a large pit, with a tank in the center. Until within the last few days they had remained upon excellent terms with each other, but last week a quarrel broke out between the two papers. The bear who had been placed in the pit was much harder than that of the ordinary bear. The bear who had been placed in the pit was much harder than that of the ordinary bear.

A BEAR HUSBAND. The following interesting description of a bear-fight, we take from a contemporary: "A fight between two bears took place at the Zoological Gardens in Cologne the other day. The bears had been brought from Spitzbergen five years ago and had been placed in a large pit, with a tank in the center. Until within the last few days they had remained upon excellent terms with each other, but last week a quarrel broke out between the two papers.

LETTER FROM COLORADO.

WAGNER HANCH, HINDALE CO., COLORADO, JULY 19, 1878. To the Editor of the Republican.—Dear Sir:—Thinking perhaps a few lines from one of your Clearfield boys, now on the western slope of the Rocky Mountains, might be of some interest to some of your many readers of the REPUBLICAN, I left Clearfield county on the 9th day of May, and after a long ride, by rail and stage, I arrived here on the 23rd of May. This is quite a different climate from Pennsylvania. They have frost here almost every night. On the 20th of June we had eighteen inches of snow on the top of the Cottonwood Mountain, about three miles from here, but there was none falling in the valley; while it was snowing on the mountains it was raining in the valley. Snow lays on the high mountains, in sight of this ranch, the year round. This is a very healthy climate. I have been afflicted with asthma for a number of years. I was advised by my uncle, who has been a doctor for nearly twenty years, to come here, and he was right. I have not had a symptom of it since I have been here, and I find that the best cure for it is to be in the open air, and to be in the open air, and to be in the open air.

EDUCATIONAL. BY M. L. McQUOWN. Our correspondent in Huston township informs us that the new school building, located on Laurel Run, in that township, will be completed in time for school this winter. Mr. W. Postell has been chosen teacher. Miss Lottie Brown, from New York State, has been chosen to fill the vacancy at Mill Run, caused by the resignation of Mr. King. The Institute at the High School building at Penfield, Saturday, July 13, and was well attended by teachers. The exercises consisted of class drills and discussions. As the schools close next week, the Institute adjourned sine die. The schools will open for the winter term on the second day of September next.

REPORTS AND CERTIFICATES. The full quota (with three exceptions) of reports and certificates from the different school boards of the county were received before the commencement of the term. They were promptly examined, approved, and forwarded to the Department. Thanks to prompt officers.

HOW FAR SHALL THE STATE EDUCATE? Three points have never been settled and perhaps never will be. I. To what extent should the State provide an education free to all? II. How much education should the State compel the parent to give his children? III. How far should the State trust the voluntary principle to provide what is necessary for its own well being? A compulsory educational law is demanded. Of course schools are needed, and teachers should be prepared for them. The voluntary principle cannot be trusted to provide suitable schools in which these teachers may learn their business. Normal schools are a necessity on the part of the State, and teachers should be prepared for them. The voluntary principle cannot be trusted to provide suitable schools in which these teachers may learn their business.

THE DEAD QUEEN. There seems to be a fatal star shining over Spanish royalty. The position of the late Queen Christina is a striking example. The late Queen Christina was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy.

A BAD EGG.—The Burlington Herald says: "An intelligent farmer living in Des Moines county has invented a dynamo, modeled on the principle of the telephone, by which one old rooster can be made to crow for the benefit of the others. The machine is a simple contrivance, and the farmer has already sold it to a neighbor for the sum of five dollars. The machine is a simple contrivance, and the farmer has already sold it to a neighbor for the sum of five dollars.

THE CONING CIRCUS.—The Burlington Herald says: "The circus is coming again, and once more we will have the pleasure of witnessing the cheerful spectacle of seven cheerful members taking one little two-year-old child to see the animals. The circus is coming again, and once more we will have the pleasure of witnessing the cheerful spectacle of seven cheerful members taking one little two-year-old child to see the animals.

AN OX MOVED.—Porter Rockwell, of the Burlington Herald, writes: "An ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July. The ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July. The ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July. The ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July.

THE DEATH OF A KING.—The Burlington Herald says: "The death of a king is a great event, and it is a great event. The death of a king is a great event, and it is a great event. The death of a king is a great event, and it is a great event.

MUCH IN LITTLE.

The shadow of our pleasures is the pain that seems so surely to follow them. Poetry is the record of the best and happiest moments of the happiest and best minds. Punch gives this definition of the word "conscience": "My rule for another man's conduct."

The pastor who can lead others to work multiples himself, is not one man, but a dozen, a hundred. Watch for opportunities of usefulness. Every day brings them, and once gone they are gone forever. Vanity is the foundation of the most ridiculous and contemptible vices—the vices of affectation and common lying!

Where one wishes to injure persons, the first thing to do is to assume an air of great impartiality with regard to them. Alas, for human nature that the weak of mind are so easily led astray and bleed so much longer than the wounds of affection! If we would amend the world, we should amend ourselves, and teach our children to do not what we are ourselves, but what they should be.

If you have any curiosity to know how subtle the devil is, you need not search for him. Just take a quiet survey of your own life, and you will find him. "Teddy, my boy, just guess how many guesses there are in this bag, an' I'll give you all the five." "Fire, to be sure," said Teddy. "Arrah! I had luck to the man that told 'y."

"Madam," said a trance medium, "your husband's spirit wishes to communicate with you. He says he is a good man, and he is a good man. He says he is a good man, and he is a good man. He says he is a good man, and he is a good man."

The processes of divine life are sometimes slow, and the changes wrought by grace may not always be completed in a day. It doth not yet appear what we shall be. But when the saving work is wrought, eternity will show that none but God could have accomplished it.

We listen to whom we know to be of the same opinion as ourselves, and we call them wise for being it; but we avoid such as differ from us; we pronounce them rash before we have heard them out, and we are wrong, for we should be thought at any time to have erred.

To-morrow is large enough to break down anybody, because it is larger than our strength, and God does not fit it to our backs. So let us say it over and over again, though we do not believe it, that we are as nothing, and we shall be wiser.

A common error is to devote too much time to oral reading. The ability to read for others should be more sought after than the ability to read for oneself. The ability to read for others should be more sought after than the ability to read for oneself.

EDUCATIONAL. BY M. L. McQUOWN.

Our correspondent in Huston township informs us that the new school building, located on Laurel Run, in that township, will be completed in time for school this winter. Mr. W. Postell has been chosen teacher. Miss Lottie Brown, from New York State, has been chosen to fill the vacancy at Mill Run, caused by the resignation of Mr. King. The Institute at the High School building at Penfield, Saturday, July 13, and was well attended by teachers. The exercises consisted of class drills and discussions. As the schools close next week, the Institute adjourned sine die. The schools will open for the winter term on the second day of September next.

REPORTS AND CERTIFICATES. The full quota (with three exceptions) of reports and certificates from the different school boards of the county were received before the commencement of the term. They were promptly examined, approved, and forwarded to the Department. Thanks to prompt officers.

HOW FAR SHALL THE STATE EDUCATE? Three points have never been settled and perhaps never will be. I. To what extent should the State provide an education free to all? II. How much education should the State compel the parent to give his children? III. How far should the State trust the voluntary principle to provide what is necessary for its own well being? A compulsory educational law is demanded. Of course schools are needed, and teachers should be prepared for them. The voluntary principle cannot be trusted to provide suitable schools in which these teachers may learn their business. Normal schools are a necessity on the part of the State, and teachers should be prepared for them. The voluntary principle cannot be trusted to provide suitable schools in which these teachers may learn their business.

THE DEAD QUEEN. There seems to be a fatal star shining over Spanish royalty. The position of the late Queen Christina is a striking example. The late Queen Christina was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy. She was a woman of extraordinary talents and energy.

A BAD EGG.—The Burlington Herald says: "An intelligent farmer living in Des Moines county has invented a dynamo, modeled on the principle of the telephone, by which one old rooster can be made to crow for the benefit of the others. The machine is a simple contrivance, and the farmer has already sold it to a neighbor for the sum of five dollars. The machine is a simple contrivance, and the farmer has already sold it to a neighbor for the sum of five dollars.

THE CONING CIRCUS.—The Burlington Herald says: "The circus is coming again, and once more we will have the pleasure of witnessing the cheerful spectacle of seven cheerful members taking one little two-year-old child to see the animals. The circus is coming again, and once more we will have the pleasure of witnessing the cheerful spectacle of seven cheerful members taking one little two-year-old child to see the animals.

AN OX MOVED.—Porter Rockwell, of the Burlington Herald, writes: "An ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July. The ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July. The ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July. The ox was moved in a wagon on the 17th of July.

THE DEATH OF A KING.—The Burlington Herald says: "The death of a king is a great event, and it is a great event. The death of a king is a great event, and it is a great event. The death of a king is a great event, and it is a great event.

MUCH IN LITTLE.

The shadow of our pleasures is the pain that seems so surely to follow them. Poetry is the record of the best and happiest moments of the happiest and best minds. Punch gives this definition of the word "conscience": "My rule for another man's conduct."

The pastor who can lead others to work multiples himself, is not one man, but a dozen, a hundred. Watch for opportunities of usefulness. Every day brings them, and once gone they are gone forever. Vanity is the foundation of the most ridiculous and contemptible vices—the vices of affectation and common lying!

Where one wishes to injure persons, the first thing to do is to assume an air of great impartiality with regard to them. Alas, for human nature that the weak of mind are so easily led astray and bleed so much longer than the wounds of affection! If we would amend the world, we should amend ourselves, and teach our children to do not what we are ourselves, but what they should be.

If you have any curiosity to know how subtle the devil is, you need not search for him. Just take a quiet survey of your own life, and you will find him. "Teddy, my boy, just guess how many guesses there are in this bag, an' I'll give you all the five." "Fire, to be sure," said Teddy. "Arrah! I had luck to the man that told 'y."

"Madam," said a trance medium, "your husband's spirit wishes to communicate with you. He says he is a good man, and he is a good man. He says he is a good man, and he is a good man. He says he is a good man, and he is a good man."

The processes of divine life are sometimes slow, and the changes wrought by grace may not always be completed in a day. It doth not yet appear what we shall be. But when the saving work is wrought, eternity will show that none but God could have accomplished it.

We listen to whom we know to be of the same opinion as ourselves, and we call them wise for being it; but we avoid such as differ from us; we pronounce them rash before we have heard them out, and we are wrong, for we should be thought at any time to have erred.

To-morrow is large enough to break down anybody, because it is larger than our strength, and God does not fit it to our backs. So let us say it over and over again, though we do not believe it, that we are as nothing, and we shall be wiser.

A common error is to devote too much time to oral reading. The ability to read for others should be more sought after than the ability to read for oneself. The ability to read for others should be more sought after than the ability to read for oneself.