They can no longer dispose of stamps at a profit to their city for United States Senator. The reare on a strike. Under the former system, which supplied them with a convenient currency and gave them a profit on issuing it, they were ioyal to Republican rule. But they are disgusted at the meanness of a Democratic Congress. They cannot be expected to contribute a first profit on issuing it, they were ioyal to Republican parity in this State, as to stake so active a part in elections hereafter, or to swing the bloody shirt with their accustomed energy. The cause for which they fought so nobly has perished. Nor can they be expected to contribute so fiberally for campaign purposes since a Democratic Congress has so ruthlessly out off their sources of supply. But Postmaster General Key need not despair. If the country postmasters who have been accustomed to the enjoyment of the successfonds to the conjoyment of the successfonds in the Senate and consistent in the Suntan and country is not so canally extend the successfonds of the Congress has so ruthlessly out off their sources of supply. But Postmaster General Key need not despair. tyranny that characterized his former and everybody, except the clan Camwhisky rings and Government contractors, naval rings, army rings, and every species of plunderers, will revel again in a carnival of immense profit to themselves and oppression to the people. Grant's election for a third term would be the practical establishment of a dictatorship. Once again elected, if he cannot be re-elected at the grant acquirements, combined with his elected, if he cannot be re-elected at the grant acquirements, combined with his long experience in the Legislature (a the grant acquirements accounts to the Benevo-Centrolite, and $5,000 to t ment of a dictatorship. Once again elected, if he cannot be re-elected at the end of that term, he will be re-placed in the Presidency by the same means. Hayes was placed there. He played this general apprenticeship to the business, that he had been secretly marking and the first two days before to the widow of this brother Charles. In some parts in the Presidency by the same means that he had been secretly marking of the same means that he had been secretly marking of the same means to continue his own power?

General Sherman's mutterings already foreshadow what use is expected to be made of the army, and such sentiments as he utters are intended to educate the army to such uses, as well as to familiarize the people with such ideas. The warning is already given by Grant's lieutenants. Let the people take heed in time by crushing the treason in the bud, which is only to'be done by defeating the Republican candidates at the election this Fall.

Sach is the situation. It is rarely the latter. Congressited was threatened by the military power, even the state of the military power, even the same occupies the presidency who was never efferted to. Let them be consequence of these things a man now occupies the Presidency who was never effected to. Let them be consequence of these things a man now occupies the Presidency who was never effected, but overwhelmingly defeated for the position. This frand upon popular rights, this defiance of election by the people, this bold usurpation, will become a precedent unless the people vindicate their rights by condemning it at the elections. If this villainy and contempt for law, the Constitution and popular rights is to pass without robuke, if the men who perpetrated it defiantly are to be small stated by the precipe at the polls, what is to prevent General Grand, or any corrupt President from practicing it in the fairner? The usurpers can then reler to precedent (always a strong the support), and they will point to the act as proof that the people with not resist or condemn it, but support and usurpation. But if the precedent of lawy and the proof that the proof that the prople with not the act as proof that the prople will not the act as proof that the prople will not condemned now at the polls by so great a State as Pennsylvanis, it is not likely to be repeated or attempted.

THE HEATHEN CHINES. Governments cannot be stopped under Republican rule. These have been increased three to tour fold, as we shall lake occasion to show in the luture, as ceries with which they supplied their cases and a profit on the currency furnished them by the Government. Some cross roads postmasters thus did a larger business in the sale of stamps than was done in populous and thriving towns.

But the recent Act of Congress making the compensation depend on the number of stamps canceled has broken in upon this wholesale traffic in stamps on the part of the rural postmasters. Hence there is great the fact that the son had never rendered postmasters.
