GRORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor. CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 18, 1878.

Reader, if you want to know what is going on the business world, just read our advertising lumns, the Special occasio is particular.

Soon after Joe Bradley counted Hayes into the Presidential chair, the - latter issued an order forbidding Fe

No man worthy the office of President should be willing to hold it if counted in, or placed there by any fraud.

I could never have been reconsiled to the elevation by the smallest aid of mine of a person, however respectable in private life, who must forever carry upon his brow the stamp of fraud first triumphant in American history. No subsequent action, however meritorious, cau wash away the letters of that record.

Charles Prayers Adams.

Under the forms of law, Rutherford B. Hayes has been declared Prevident of the United States. His title rests upon disfranchisement of lawful vuters, the false certificates of the returning officers acting corruptly, and the decision of a commission which has refused to hear evidence of alleged fraud. For the first time are the American people confronted with the fact of a fraudulenty-elected Precident. Let it not be understood that the fraud will be allendy acquiseced in by the country.
