This is the decision of a court unantenous with a single exception, and he a Democrat. If this be the law, how can we take representatiom from a State for what is done by individuals r the investigation, even if the facts be proved, in useless. The remedy is by a contest for the seat, and not by sectional agitation. The purposes of that resolution, stated by its author, are to record fraude and outrages on recont elections in the Southern States and to find a method to prevent them. The newspaper press is given as the author
