the subject, will be driven from the profession, as the time is near at hand when it will be taught in every school in the county and State. Other States have adopted it, and some foreign countries have been teaching it for years, and none of these can be persuaded to drop it now. Then, follow-teachers, be professed. Get a set of drawing books, and study the subject yourselves, and if one andied you will not one. and, if once studied, you will not op-pose it, unpopular as it is. He then explained his chart, which cannot be given in the proceedings.
