

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 5, 1879.

Reader, if you want to know what is going on in the business world, just read our advertising columns, the Special editions in particular.

MAXIMS FOR THE DAY.

No man worth the office of President should be elected unless he has the confidence of the people.

I would rather have the endorsement of a million of the American people than that of a Legislature.

Under the form of law, Rufus B. Hayes has been declared President of the United States.

One hundred years of Democratic misrule have not been able to bring about a more complete and thorough reformation of the American people.

The XLV. Congress died yesterday, March 4th, 1879, at 12 o'clock m.

"Hatebats and Scab," in our fourth page, incites a good Washington idea.

Don't fail to read Bayard's speech; yes, twice if you want to imbibe sound political doctrine.

"The Cipher Dispatches," on our fourth page, should have been credited to the Johnson Democrat, instead of the Tribune.

The Curt-Vuex inquisition has been holding a session at DeBols for the past two days.

How happy their friends must feel that Senators Conkling and Barnside did not assassinate each other, during their late fracas in the United States Senate.

A Veto.—Mr. Hayes returns the anti-Chinese bill to Congress with a veto, and that body accords the motion by a vote of 109 to 95.

QUEER TASTE.—The statesman who embraces the African and discards the Mongolian is certainly an enigma.

SUNDAY WORK.—The United States Senate remained in session until 4:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, and then adjourned to meet, and did meet, at 2 o'clock p. m., and proceeded with the public business as on other days.

FAVORABLE PROSPECT.—They now say Mayor Brinley over at Osceola, and Mayor Jones at Tyrone. If the people don't quit promoting printers in these local affairs, some one will topple in as Governor, or President, without the use of a Returning Board.

FAREWELL.—Not a single Carpet-bagger, or scalliwag, holds a seat in the United States Senate to-day, March 4th, 1879.

GEN. BARLOW'S MISTAKE.—General Francis C. Barlow is beginning to find that Republican statesmanship and common honesty are incompatible.

DURING HIS VISIT TO FLORIDA he endeavored to reconcile his desire to serve his party with his convictions of principle, and as soon as he was informed of the true condition of affairs he discovered that he was expected to play the part of a liar, a perjurer, and a thief.

FOUND.—Governor Hoyt has at last found an Attorney General in the person of Henry W. Palmer, of Wilkes-Barre.

DISINTERESTED.—It is said that Linin Bartholomew, who was the Cameron candidate for Attorney General, is on the way back since Governor Hoyt has appointed Palmer.

WHITE ON HAND.—Some fellows are making fun of Gen. Harry White, because he failed to get another appropriation for covering the river in the channel of the Conemaugh river with water during the summer season.

A GREAT SPEECH.—We embellish our first page this week with a speech of Senator Bayard, a perusal of which must satisfy every reader, who believes in civil liberty and personal freedom.

A BAD ANNOUCE.—The bark "Shootin' Star" arrived at Philadelphia on Saturday, the 22d ult., having on board Charles W. Angell, the defaulting Portland Car Company's Secretary, who absconded to Lisbon last July with $120,000 of the Company's money.

A GREAT SPEECH.—We embellish our first page this week with a speech of Senator Bayard, a perusal of which must satisfy every reader, who believes in civil liberty and personal freedom.

The Lancaster Intelligencer of the 25th ult., discourses in this way upon the subject of the "Warren Hospital."

The original estimate for the construction of the buildings was $902,000, and that that must be added $190,000 for fire proofing, not included in the original estimate.

There is too much high-school education in this country, and the mental gymnastics, not practical enough for the utilitarian necessities of those who must graduate into the hard work of the common and laborious pursuits of the people.
