THE REPUBLICAN.

CLEARFIELD, PA.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 9, 1879.
GARFIELD ON REVOLUTION.

The House of Representatives, we are advised, was quite excited on recently over a speech made by Mr. Garfield, the recognized leader of the Republican party.

Neither the spirit of the constitution, the example of precedent, nor the intrinsic merits of the issue can successfully be cited to sustain the Republican position in this struggle.

Now the really required is a government based upon truth and morality. But the great trouble in this case is, that no man is willing to admit that he is wrong, and he proposes a remedy that will reach evil perpetrated by others.

Mr. Garfield says that because Congress will offer to Mr. Hayes only the opportunity to sign the repeal with the appropriation bill, or to veto the appropriation bill with the repeal.

It is a mere contest between parties of the Executive and the Legislature. The Executive is believed by three-fourths of the people to have obtained his seat through fraud.

THE NEW PATENT FLOUR.
In order to make this understood we have to state the usual process of making the different qualities of flour.

There is a new process of the first wheat is an ordinary flour, sold for exportation, then the remainder is put upon great horizontal rollers.
