Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

YES, OF COURSE!

"Will you take what, oats or corn for subscription?" We are often asked of this in this way by letter from persons who reside at a distance from Clearfield. We again say, "Yes." The receipts of a responsible merchant or mill owner in the vicinity, will answer us just as well as the sack.

To illustrate: If any of our patrons will deliver us a bag of grain at the mill of Joseph H. Bush, in Chest Township, Horace Patchin, in Burnside, Thomas H. Forcey in Graham, Wm. Porter or Shaw, in Lawrence, or Brown & Sayler, at Rockton, Union township, and forward their receipts for the amount, we will credit them on their account for the same. In this way all may soon pay what they owe, if they will pursue this course.

For cheap suits go to Hirlinger & Rusk's.

Persons who wish to stock up in good stationery should go to the Postoffice, Clearfield, Pa.

Stop and look at John A. Stock's show windows, and see some frames for sale by J. K. Bissell.

The Fourth of July with all its innumerable acrobats throughout the country, are among the things of the past.

Mr. R. C. Calhoun, of Indiana, Pa., will soon receive a new address on receipt of the cash. See his offer elsewhere.

Hon. John Patton, of Curwensville, was recently elected one of the Board of Directors of the Williamsport Dickenson Seminary, for the ensuing year.

We have now on hand several thousand first-class envelopes, which we will print for business men, or anybody else, at prices that cannot be rivaled. Call and see us.

It's LOVELY—it seems that the most that there is on the streets the faster people drive, in order to kick up the dust so that the dwellings, offices and shops of the residents may be well filled with the filth of the streets.

Mr. Thos. E. Cooper, an employee of this office, and who has been spending a few weeks in Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and several other places, returned home last week. The water flows over all the new Niagara in a very natural way.

The "burnt district" in Pittsburg, is about to be reduced, and many persons have already come back. The new Elmo Hall will be a three-story brick building, and will be of the most modern designs and conveniences.

REMOVED.—David Hanson has resigned in the position of County Collector of Internal Revenue, Twenty-third Dist. District, summing up his affairs, he has given his resignation taking effect July 1st. He had the position since 1863. He has given his resignation taking effect July 1st.

A VETERAN.—Dr. Lewis Beck, a prominent citizen of Cambria county, and an active member of the community since 1842, paid our country a short visit last week. The Doctor is well and in full health, and will be glad to hear of his good health. May we wish to reach all the news in the midst of his convalescence.

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS.—The first symptoms of cholera are a loss of appetite, with a tired, dull, listless feeling. Then Dr. Foster's official list of New Washington citizens, the Faculty, which was concocted for by members of the school who in the graduating class were destined to be sent to this horrore. The price was presented by Rev. George F. Cale, and consists of "Knight's History of England," 8 volumes, a very popular work.

KILLED.—Charles Wolf, a resident of the village of Elmira, was killed by James F. Palmer, his riding on Friday, June 27th. Palmer was about 46 years of age. His head was crushed by the falling of a "bent," and died within two hours without uttering a word. He seems to have had a presentiment of his death. After agreeing to go to the riding of the horse, he tried for several days to get a saddle to ride, failed. When inquired of why he did not want to go, he always replied that he was afraid something serious would happen, and that he had better not go.

An oriental traveller describes this body scene witnessed on historic shores: "Our sinner hand on a beach which was the scene of the crucifixion, where the disciples were called Christians. There was no one at the water's edge, no people, no where. The passengers and the merchandise were set ashore in lighter boats, which were driven to the shore with their drivers, lay on the beach, ready to transfer the goods into the interior. Among the articles landed were boxes marked 'J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell Mass., U. S. A.' showing that they contained medicines and whereto the name. These with other goods were sent to the books of customs, for examination to Antioch. Thus the skill of the world set back its remedies to heal the maladies of popular health those Eastern shores, whence our spiritual manna came."—Widener (Pa.) Chronicle.

To BEE-KEEPERS—Bee Hives, of the very best pattern, for sale cheap, by Dr. A. M. Hills.

Now goods this week at Hirlinger & Rusk's.

JANE'S BEE-HIVE.

Wednesday morning, July 9, 1819.

THE BRAUD STATEMENT.—It will be observed by the American reader that the aggregate statement of Brady township totals up nearly eighteen thousand dollars—over, road and school.

A FACT.—It is said that many of the citizens of the Lehigh county have begun to plant big apple orchards, and say they will pay better than any other part of the farm, except in sectional bad years.

THOMAS BOY.—Mr. George W. Childs, Proprietor of the Philadelphia Ledger, gave all the papers in the city a public dinner, at the Restaurant Exhibit, on the 5th of July. After viewing the interior of the building for about two hours, six hundred and thirty guests seated themselves around Mr. Childs' well spread table, and of course, all enjoyed themselves.

AT THE RESTAURANT—In the place of the former, a new one has been opened to do anything in the printing office will be well, and at the right kind of prices.

TO LANDLORDS AND STOREKEEPERS.

There is an arrangement with an Eastern Cigar Company so that one can sell cigars by the box or thousand at bottom prices. Give their cigar stores.

NATIONAL CLASS AT CENTRE.—A Non-

class will open at Centre on Monday, July 15, and continue six weeks. Instruction given in the common branches, Algebra, Geometry, Philosophy, Physical Geography, Civil Government, and Theory of Teaching. Terms—Model Department, $1 50; Normal Department, $1 00.

W. A. AMBROSE, Teacher.

P. A. GAULIN, P. M.

ELECTION HOUR.—Strange as it may seem, the citizens of Beaufort have not had a legal election house, since the Union Hotel in Glens Falls was burned about two years ago.

The Court two weeks ago designated the School House in Glens Falls as a temporary election house, and the election was held there.

At the twenty-sixth commencement of the Law School, (Vassar), held during the week commencing June 23d, the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon the Rev. Dr. J. A. Munro, who has withdrawn from this vicinity.

CAUTION.—All persons are hereby warned against purchasing or in any way dealing with the following property now in the possession of the Rev. Dr. J. A. Munro, of Greenfield, Conn., who has withdrawn from this vicinity.

Mr. George W. Childs, Proprietor of the Philadelphia Ledger, gave all the papers in the city a public dinner, at the Restaurant Exhibit, on the 5th of July. After viewing the interior of the building for about two hours, six hundred and thirty guests seated themselves around Mr. Childs' well spread table, and of course, all enjoyed themselves.

AT THE HIR-LOOM.—Among the values taken in the recent fire was a Hirloom, a which cost $1000, and a piano, which cost $1500.

DRUGS CONFERRED.—At the recent convention of the Dispensing Association, held in the Hotel of the American Anti-Slavery Society, at New Haven, Conn., Dr. J. A. Abrose, President of the American Anti-Slavery Society, delivered a speech in which he said:

"I am sorry to find that many of the physicians who are engaged in the service of the slaves are not willing to give up their slaves, and that they are not willing to do so."

FACT.—An advertisement inserted in the Republican with much readers than the Herald, and which was published in the Herald, is as follows:

"FOR SALE.—A LITTLE GIRL WANTED.—A responsible family wish to obtain a little girl aged about eight or ten years, with whom to go to school, and to attend to various domestic services.

For further particulars apply to Mr. W. A. AMBROSE, Teacher.
