BURNED OUT!

BUT NOT

BURNED UP!

The subscribers have, at great expense, rebuilt a neighborhood necessity, in the erection of a first-class Woolen Manufactory, with all the modern improvements attached, and are prepared to make all kinds of Cloths, Cassimeres, Satinetts, Blankets, Flannels, &c. Plenty of goods on hand to supply all our old and a thousand new customers, whom we ask to come and examine our stock.

The business of

CARDING AND FULLING

will receive our especial attention. Proper arrangements will be made to receive and deliver Wool, to suit customers. All work warranted and done upon the shortest notice, and by strict attention to business we hope to realize a liberal share of public patronage.

10,000 POUNDS WOOL WANTED!

We will pay the highest market price for Wool and sell our manufactured goods as low as similar goods can be bought in the county, and whenever we fail to render reasonable satisfaction we can always be found at home ready to make proper explanation, either in person or by letter.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

IT is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The VIGOR cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair,

The VIGOR is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

OF THE

CLEARFIELD COUNTY

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY,

TO BE HELD AT

CLEARFIELD,

ON

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday,

October 14, 15, 16 and 17, 1879.

OFFICERS:

PRESIDENT—JOHN SMITH.
SECRETARY—AL. M. NOW.
TREASURER—JOHN McGAUGHEY.
EXECUTIVE COM'TEE—ISAAC M STAGE, ELISHA DAVIS, ISAAC CALDWELL, NATHANIEL RISHEL and LEANDER DENNING.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Family Tickets.....$1 00
Single admission Tickets.....25

Children under ten years old when accompanied by parents or guardian, free, and under that age not admitted unless accompanied by their parents or guardian

Every person wishing to be enrolled as a member of the Society, upon the payment of one dollar to the Treasurer, will receive a certificate of membership containing the name of the applicant.

Every person so enrolled as a member, shall, on the presentation of such certificate, receive a ticket which will limit himself, wife, and children under eighteen years of age, during the fair. Life members of the Society will receive a similar ticket.

All persons must be provided with tickets signed by either the President or Chairman of the Executive Committee, to obtain admission. They will be furnished by the Treasurer or Secretary, or at the office on the ground. Persons acting as judges are expected to become members of the Society. Persons from other counties can become members by complying with above rules. Ladies can become members by the payment of fifty cents.

Exhibitors must have their animals and articles entered on the Secretary's book on, or before the second day of the Fair, at 12 o'clock, and all animals and articles, except horses for pleasure and for the trotting premiums, must be brought within the enclosure as early as 12 o'clock on Wednesday morning. All persons entering animals and articles for exhibition must procure cards from the Secretary with the number and class upon it, attach the same to the animal or article previous to being placed upon the ground. Hay and straw will be furnished gratis for animals entered for premiums, and grain will be furnished at cost for those who desire to purchase.

No horse shall be entered or allowed a premium unless he is free from disease. Horses will be received until noon on Thursday, but must have been entered previously. All persons who intend to exhibit horses, cattle, sheep or swine, or who intend to offer stock for sale on the ground, are requested to notify the Secretary of such intention on, or before the sixth day of October, and leave with him a list and full description of the same.

The number and class, and the number in the class, with the name of the article will appear on the card attached, but the name of the exhibitor will not appear.

Premiums and Diplomas will be paid on and after the first Monday after the Fair, and until the first day in December, 1879, after which all moneyed premiums unclaimed will be considered as a donation to the Society. The officers of the Society and members of the Committee of Arrangements must wear a badge designating their office. A select police force will be in constant attendance for the preservation of order and the protection of property.

The Trotting Course is level, well graded and one-half of a mile in circuit. Ample arrangements will be made for the convenience and comfort of visitors.

Instructions to Judges—No animal or article on exhibition for a premium to receive an award in more than one class. This does not embrace horses entered for the trotting premiums. Judges are expressly required not to award premiums to over-fed animals. No premiums are to be awarded to bulls, cows or heifers, which shall appear to have been fattened, only in the class of fat cattle; the object of the Society being to have superior animals of this description for breeding.

Fat Cattle—The judges on fat cattle will give particular attention to the animals submitted for examination. It is believed all other things being equal, the best cattle have the greatest weight over the smallest superficies. The judges will require all this class to be weighed, and will take measures to give the superficies of each and publish the result with the report. They will also, before awarding any premiums require the manner and cost of feeding, as required by the regulations of the premium list.

If there is but one exhibitor, and he may show several cattle in one class, premiums will be awarded in accordance with the merits of the animal.

The Superintendent will take every precaution in his power for the safety of stock and articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangement on the ground, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. Exhibitors will be required to give personal attention to the animals and articles, and at the close of the Fair to attend to their removal.

Any article not enumerated in the classes placed on exhibition, if worthy of notice, will be suitably rewarded.

All the articles may be entered free of charge, except horses for pleasure, or for the trotting premiums.

Any information desired can be obtained by addressing any of the officers.

Discretionary premiums will be awarded for all articles of merit not embraced in the above, and exhibited by mechanics in all the various branches, and it is hoped that a general exhibition will be made. For all improvements useful to the farmer, and having valuable properties, although not made in the county, premiums may be awarded by the Executive Committee. In all cases of merit diplomas will be awarded to exhibitors residing out of the county, and such persons are cordially invited to attend the Fair, and exhibit any articles they may choose. They will receive every attention at the hands of the officers.

An earnest appeal is made to our people to make this the best Fair ever held in the county. A glance at the Premium List, as published above, will show that this Fair is strictly for the benefit of the farmers of Clearfield county, and it is hoped that they will give us their hearty co-operation.

Persons desirous of renting stalls, or getting the privilege of the grounds for refreshment stands, etc., will address or call upon Isaac M. Stage, Clearfield, Pa.

Any inquiries addressed to the Secretary will receive a prompt reply. JOHN SMITH,
AL. M. ROW, Secretary. President.

Clearfield, Pa., Sept. 17, 1879-2t.

THE REPUBLICAN.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1879.

A HUMILIATING SPECTACLE.

The President and Secretary of the Treasury in the Clutches of a Member of the Louisiana Returning Board.

CASANAVE'S DEMAND FOR CASH.

HAYES AND SHERMAN SQUIRM, BUT ARE FORCED TO FURNISH THE SHEKELS —ANOTHER CHAPTER IN THE EIGHT TO SEVEN HISTORY.

Casanave furnished the following statement to the Chicago Times:

"When these criminal proceedings were begun, Messrs. Anderson and Wells, against whom the prosecution was particularly and especially directed, employed Messrs. Cullom and Castellanos, attorneys to defend them. I assented to it upon assurance from Mr. Anderson, who showed me a letter, which he said was from Washington, and, I supposed, written by Secretary Sherman, to the effect that funds would be sent to defray all the expenses incurred for our defense. After the trial, and the acquittal of Anderson, Messrs. Cullom and Castellanos demanded their fee, and after repeated efforts to collect it, they sued the board and got judgment. The other members having nothing, my property was seized and advertised for sale by the Sheriff to pay the amount. The judgment was originally $5,000, but $1,795 has been paid, leaving a balance of $3,125.

"Do the other members of the board refuse to pay this amount?"

"Well, they have failed to do it."

"Are they not holding good offices in the New Orleans Custom House?"

"Yes, Anderson, Wells and Kenner, and all their family connections, numbering not less that forty persons, are drawing money from the United States government, besides the stealings, which, if what everybody says is true, amount every month to as much as this judgment."

"How did you happen to come here about this matter? I should think the other members, having such good places in the Custom House, would not care to have this case brought to the attention of the Administration?"

"Before coming here I called upon Anderson and Kenner, who refused to pay anything. I went to Wells' office frequently to see him, but could never find him. He has been absent from his office a long time, and it is difficult to find him. Seeing that I could get no assistance from the other members, and being pressed continually for payment by the attorney, who threatened to sell me out at Sheriff's sale, if I did not pay speedily, I thought I would come to Washington and seek relief from those I had helped into the high and lucrative office they now hold. This is what brought me here. I could get nothing out of the officers in Louisiana. Therefore, I came to try those higher up, but no less the creatures of the Returning Board. I had great confidence in my mission here, remembering the ancient Spanish saying that 'it is not much to give a leg to him who gave you the fowl.'"

"How many appointments have Anderson, Wells and Kenner of their family connections and friends in the New Orleans Custom House?"

"Not less than fifty, including sons, sons-in law and fathers-in law and their sons.

"To illustrate: There is Anderson, Deputy Collector, salary $3,000; Anderson's son, Clerk, salary $1,400; Ben Bloomfield (Anderson's son's father in-law), Auditor, $2,500; George Bloomfield (son of Ben, and brother-in-law of Anderson's son), Clerk, $1,200; R. Notille, (friend of Anderson), salary, $1,460; Louis Demarais (friend of Anderson), salary $2,500; William R. Johnson (friend of Anderson), $1,600; and Louis E. Salles, also a friend of Anderson, $2,000 per annum. Mr. Salles has charge of the dead head and sinecure roll which has drawn from the Treasury from $1,500 to $3,000 for each month since Anderson and Wells have controlled the New Orleans Custom House, and this fact must be well known to the Secretary of the Treasury. Then there are Louis M. Kenner, Deputy Naval Officer, salary $2,500; a brother (Alexander Kenner), Clerk, $1,600; another brother (Dick Kenner), $600 per annum. Wells is Surveyor of the Port at a salary and fees amounting to upward of $3,000; his son (Alex. Wells), Deputy Surveyor, at a salary of $2,500; R. R. Robinson (son-in-law of Wells) salary $1,080, and other of the family connections."

"Who have you seen about this matter or relieving you from paying this judgment?"

"I called on the President in company with General Sypher the next day after my arrival. He treated me courteously, but made no offer to relieve me and remarked that he had nothing to do with it, but advised me to see Anderson, who he thought would settle it. General Sypher suggested to the President that he convey his wishes in this regard to General Anderson in authoritative form, which no doubt induce Anderson to pay, but for me (Casanave) to return to Louisiana with the President's verbal message would be useless. The President took alarm at this suggestion and retreated behind the Cabinet, which was about assembling. I also called on Secretary McCrary, who expressed much sympathy for me and said: 'If I was able I would pay this judgment myself, but I am a poor man and live entirely upon my salary. It should be paid at once.' Of course I was very grateful to the Secretary for these kind expressions. I next saw Messrs. Shellabarger and Wilson, to whom I explained my case. They advised me to see Assistant Secretary Hawley, which I did in company with General Sypher. Mr. Hawley referred me to Mr. Shellabarger, who, he said, would attend to it. I saw Messrs. Shellabarger and Wilson, who assured me, on a promise of Mr. Hawley, that the money would be raised on the return of Mr. Sherman, who was then in Maine and would be home in a week. I waited contentedly a week, believing it would be satisfactorily arranged. I called on Mr. Sherman on his return; he received me very cordially. I stated my case to him, explaining how my property was about to be sacrificed and showed him, explaining how my property was about to be sacrificed and showed him a copy of the Sheriff's writ. He answered that he knew nothing about it, and that he did not see why Anderson did not settle this matter, but that the money ought to be raised, and that he would give $100, which he attempted to take from his pocket, remarking at the same time, 'You go and see some of the leading Republicans and collect something from them.' My reply to him was: 'I have been to see the President and yourself, and I know no other leading Republicans. Is that the best you can do for me, Mr. Secretary?' He answered: 'That is all I can do. I am only here on a salary, and I can't pay everything.'

"I then took my hat, as I did so, saying: 'I thank you sir. That amount would not pay my traveling expenses to Washington!' Then I left his office, being very much disappointed and depressed at the thought that I was going to be sacrificed and ruined while others were being enriched in the high offices into which they had climbed on the ladder I helped to set up. For the first time in my life I realized the force of the French aphorism, 'Serve a great man and you will know what sorrow is.' I again sought the advice of Shellabarger, to whom I had expressed my great disappointment at the manner in which I had been treated by the Secretary after having been assured upon the word of Mr. Hawley that the matter would be arranged on the return of Mr. Sherman from Maine. In my excited feelings I said to Mr. Shellabarger that I would expose the whole matter of the Returning Board proceedings and go home, pocket the loss. He very kindly advised me not to throw the handle after the pot, but wrote a letter setting forth the facts in the case and advised me to await results for a few days. I acted upon his advice and prepared a letter, a copy of which I will furnish you, which I delivered to the President and a copy to Mr. Sherman.

"In a few hours after the delivery of this letter I was informed that $500 had been sent to Collector Badger at New Orleans, to apply in payment of the judgment, and that more would be sent. The next day I was told that $500 more had been forwarded to be applied in the same manner, which I have since learned is not correct.

"The second installment of $500 was not sent. On the morning of the 13th I received this dispatch from home:

"NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 2, 1879.—G. Casanave, Washington, D. C.:—The stable and contents are advertised to be sold Saturday, 16th. What am I to do? P. CASANAVE.

This alarmed me very much, and I went at once with the dispatch to Messrs. Shellabarger & Wilson, and appealed to them to see Secretary Sherman immediately, and get a definite answer whether relief would be given me, and, if so, when, as the time for the sale was then only three days off; for if no relief was to be expected from the administration, I would go home at once and try to save my property. In a few hours, affording time for a conference between Sherman and his attorneys, this dispatch was handed me to send, and I did so at my own expense:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12th, 1879.—To R. NORTH CULLOM, New Orleans, La., Exchange Alley, near Custom House street: Should we send $1,000 more on Returning Board judgment will you give a reasonable time for balance?

SHELLABARGER & WILSON.

To which the following is a reply shown me by Mr. Shellabarger:

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13, 1879.—Messrs. SHELLABARGER & WILSON, Washington, D. C.: If you send me $250 more, making a total of $1,750, and Casanave will give security not to dispose of his property I will wait till January 1st.

E. NORTH CULLOM.

After reading this dispatch I said to Mr Shellabarger that I desired the matter definitely settled, so that I could be relieved and my property released from the custody of the Sheriff, and that I could not give security for the payment of the balance of the judgment. Mr. Shellabarger wrote this substantially on the back of the telegram, inclosed it in an envelope, and I carried it to Mr. Sherman. In about an hour after, I called on Mr. Shellabarger to learn if he had received any answer. He said yes. Webb Hayes had just been there, and said that a detective reported that there was fraud and collusion in this matter, and that the whole thing was dropped, and that I should go to see the President.

This statement overwhelmed me with surprise. I was completely dumbfounded. I finally said that I would go to the President if Mr. Shellabarger would give me a note saying that he desired to see me. He gave me this card:

"I recommend Casanave to call on the President to give him the opportunity to speak to Casanave about the fraud that the detective spoke about, provided the President so desires. S. S."

I called at the White House, and learned that the President had gone for the day. This thing worried me terribly, and I went to my room thinking about Hayes charging me with fraud and collusion. Fraud and collusion for $3,000! And even that amount, if raised, would not be paid to me! I might have made $50,000 once if I had committed a fraud, and I think it would have been in the interest of the country and morals if I had taken the money. For not doing so I have been pronounced a fool. After sleeping on the matter, I concluded that if I did not want to lose my character, as well as my property, I had better quit the company of Mr. Hayes and his Secretary of the Treasury. I may be able to stand the loss of my property, but to be charged with fraud and collusion by this administration ought to shame the devil. I determined to return home at once, and made preparations to do so, but before doing so I concluded to call once more on Mr. Shellabarger, who had been so kind to me. I did so and stated my grievance again, including the fraud story, which I denounced as false and infamous. He went to the Secretary again, and in a little while returned and handed me this dispatch, which I signed and sent to Mr. Cullom:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 15, 1879.—E. North Cullom, Exchange Alley, New Orleans, La.: Will cause $1,000 to be mailed to-day, provided you will wait till January for balance and stop sale to-morrow. Answer immediately.

G. CASANAVE.

"To which I received this reply:

"NEW ORLEANS, La. Aug. 15, 1879.—G. Casanave, Washington, D. C.: I will not. Sale goes on. E. NORTH CULL
