vote at all. He has no property. It is the race that votes. An American born, whether colored or white, can vote without the property qualification; but the foreign-born citizen cannot vote, unless he has got a house to live in worth $133. That is the situation in the State of Rhode Island, and they defend that rule under State rights. Gold help us if that is State rights. The equality of individual with individual is one of the rights of the land. The equality of the Irishman or En-glishman with the colored man or white man in the land is one of the doctrines that belong to us, and it is as depr to us as the apple of our eye It is a strike at the foreign born citizen. Now, we will find next session that Brother Anthony will be in a registry tax. The Irishman can not
