

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, EDITOR.

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 26, 1880.

Reader, if you want to know what is going on in the business world, just get our advertising columns, the Special column in particular.

MAXIMS FOR THE DAY.

No man would hold the office of President should be willing to hold it if he is not a patriot...

There seems to be some "fanny men" in Congress, as well as in a circus, and to spice the meeting up...

Some fellow with considerable wit, and who seems to know all about them, has taken the pains to publish...

It is evident, from what has transpired at Lancaster during the past week...

The Altoona Sun draws this picture of one of them. The Hon. Charles H. Voorhis, Republican member of Congress...

The Republicans of this country are in a desperate strait. They fully recognize the fact. The States they rule...

Of course the exodus was and is entirely non-political. There was nothing, but the broadest principles...

ARNOLD PAYS CASH OR TRADE. MONEY TO LOAN. A Bank that Never Breaks. Try My Coal.
