A year later Dr. Crampton hied him Northward on a visit to Lock-port, N. Y. While there he was ar-rested by officers of the law charged with breach of promise by his maiden aunt, Miss Campbell. She too, claimed the resolutions he reported to the aunt, anse Campbon. Sno, too, claimed the resolutions he reported to the residence in New York State, institu-ting suit in the Supreme Court. The case was transforred, upon the applica-tion of Dr. Crampton's attorney, W. B. Douglass, of Lockport, to the Cir-cuit Court of the United States for the Newton Database of New York State, institu-term. Six Professional Certificates were mailed recently to six teachers, who, in our opinion, are fully deserving of the mark of home, for the following term. Senator occupied that position on more people the right to pew, and save them than one Committee.
