

GEORGE H. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 11, 1886.

Reader, if you want to know what is going on in the business world, just read our advertising columns, the special columns in particular.

MAXIMS FOR THE DAY.

No man worthy the office of President should be willing to hold it if it cost him, or placed him by any means, in the hands of the people.

Under the terms of the act of Congress, the title of President of the United States is held for four years, and the election is held every fourth year.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE FOR 1886.

- Wm. T. Taylor, Chairman; George H. Goodlander, Secretary; J. B. Burleigh, Treasurer.

Catharine Taylor, one of the editors of the Philadelphia Times, killed himself with a pistol on Sunday last.

RUBEN—An exchange rattles it over Blaine's scalp in account of his vacillating course in this style: The meekness with which "near personal friends" of distinguished aspirants for the Presidency submit to flat denials of their statements is a refreshing exhibition of Christian virtue and humility.

How CHANGED—An exchange remarks: The brave bold Mr. Kearney finds talking in the mouth of a loud-cannon by no means an exhilarating pastime.

RESIGNED—James Campbell, the member of the Democratic Committee for Woodward township, having resigned that position, William Luther Esq., has been appointed in his stead.

Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

W. E. WALLACE, Secretary.

CLEARFIELD, PA., March 11, '86.

SOMETHING NEW.—The birth of the first baby elephant on this Continent occurred in the Zoological Garden in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 10th day of March. It has always been held by scientists that these animals would never breed in captivity.

VERMILION MORTAL.—The editor of the Altoona Sun is fury-ous because Senator Wallace allowed the United States Senate to confirm the appointment of Marshall Kern for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

WHAT MIGHT BE EXPECTED.—No section of our country is so badly disturbed as California. This is due to Kearneyism and Killochism, two heresies that will damn any country, and if not eradicated in the Golden State, will in ten years from this time, restore the Pacific slope into a wilderness as absolutely as it was thirty years ago.

LOYAL STATESMEN.—We see it stated that two Radical Congressmen—Miller, of New York, and Russell, of Massachusetts—are the proprietors of a patent for wooden pulp, out of which the printing paper in the country is made, and which yields them $200,000 a year.

WELL TO DO.—The Chambersburg Valley Spirit tortures the Grantites, or bloody-shirt party, in this way: "There is an Indian chief in Dakota Territory, leading a little band which attacks surveying parties, who would do well for Vice President on the Grant ticket."

THE PARIS AMBASSADOR.—The Paris Ambassador, M. de St. Arnaud, is reported to be in the hands of the press.

THE EASTERN MARSHALSHIP.

A few thin-skinned editors with slight Democratic proclivities are attempting to find fault with Senator Wallace, because he did not have a Federal appointee rejected. The Harrisburg Patriot, in calling attention to the matter remarks:

"Senator Wallace is bitterly assailed for permitting W. H. Kern to be confirmed as United States Marshal for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. We have gathered the following facts in regard to this matter: When the nomination of Kern was sent to the Senate it was referred to the Judiciary Committee of that body."

"The Judiciary Committee of the Senate it was referred to the Judiciary Committee of that body. It was reported to the Senate in favor of Kern's confirmation. The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation."

"The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation. The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation."

"The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation. The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation."

"The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation. The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation."

"The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation. The fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation, the fact of Kern's confirmation."

HOW RANDALL WAS SAVED.

The editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, who knows all about it, says: "Sam Randall owes his present seat in Congress to the elder Cameron than to any other man. When the State was redivided at the time of the last census no effort was made on the part of the Philadelphia Democrats to preserve a Democratic district for Randall. On the contrary, they contrived to have the Democratic Congressional district of that city so arranged that Mr. Randall was left out in the cold."

"On the contrary, they contrived to have the Democratic Congressional district of that city so arranged that Mr. Randall was left out in the cold. He was left out in the cold, he was left out in the cold, he was left out in the cold."

"STRONG" GOVERNMENT ABROAD.

The appointment of General Louis Molloff at the head of a commission to investigate the Russian Government of the total collapse of its policy of repression. General Gourko, who was created Governor-General of the Caucasus, has since been invested with ample powers and charged with the work of stamping out sedition. General Gourko, who is a thorough soldier, set to work with great diligence and vigor. He has been practically in the front line of the most rigorous supervision of the press, etc.

"In spite of these despotic measures the Nihilists carried on their work as usual. They were not at all intimidated by the measures taken. They were not at all intimidated by the measures taken. They were not at all intimidated by the measures taken."
