of this was the result of rum. If farmers, mechanics and all professional men would look this thing square in the face, and say, "Let others do as they may, we will down with it in our county, and save the paper and criminal tax to the school our children, and make them good and useful citizens for the future life."

A FORGOTTEN ASPECT OF THE IRISH QUESTION. One of the great evils of our dealing with Ireland that we are permitted in governing her according to English prejudices and ideas. Not thus have we dealt with India, or French Canada, or even the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands.
