whole of her estate? I have only heard on explanation. The distinguished gentleman with whom I read law told me years ago. He said it was because the man made the law. They say that a woman should not vote because she is not a citizen.

Humors of the Census. A reporter of the Philadelphia Times took a jaunt with several Enumerators the other day in that city, and tallied the following information for the readers of that journal:

A ROW IN CROSS ALLEY. The aristocracy of St. Mary's street, Cross alley and Cullen street were found in a state of excitement yesterday morning when the Census Enumerator and a Times reporter arrived upon the scene.

It is the next great primary duty of the Nation to educate all its people. It is the next great primary duty of the Nation to educate all its people.

At the meeting of the trustees of the Peabody education fund, the most distinguished body of men on the continent met in the City of Washington.

Suffrage and Its Limitations. Orator by Hon. F. E. Belthover, at the Normal Anniversary, Millersville, Penna.
