

Railroads.

Pennsylvania Railroad
On and after Monday, May 24, 1898, the Passenger Trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Tyrone and Clearfield, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Tyrone, Clearfield, etc.

Clearfield Mail
On and after Monday, May 24, 1898, the Mail Trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Tyrone and Clearfield, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Tyrone, Clearfield, etc.

Clearfield Express
On and after Monday, May 24, 1898, the Express Trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Tyrone and Clearfield, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Tyrone, Clearfield, etc.

Clearfield Station
On and after Monday, May 24, 1898, the Station Trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Tyrone and Clearfield, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Tyrone, Clearfield, etc.

Allegany Valley Railroad
On and after Monday, August 4th, 1898, the passenger trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Red Bank and Driftwood, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Red Bank, Driftwood, etc.

Allegany Valley Railroad
On and after Monday, August 4th, 1898, the passenger trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Red Bank and Driftwood, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Red Bank, Driftwood, etc.

Allegany Valley Railroad
On and after Monday, August 4th, 1898, the passenger trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Red Bank and Driftwood, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Red Bank, Driftwood, etc.

Allegany Valley Railroad
On and after Monday, August 4th, 1898, the passenger trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Red Bank and Driftwood, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Red Bank, Driftwood, etc.

Allegany Valley Railroad
On and after Monday, August 4th, 1898, the passenger trains will run daily (except Sunday) between Red Bank and Driftwood, as follows:

Table with columns: LEAVE SOUTH, LEAVE NORTH, and times for various stations like Red Bank, Driftwood, etc.

Miscellaneous.

HENDON HAS ADVANCED
Prices of Shingles, SHAVED AND SAWED
Curwensville, Jan. 9, 78-9.

E. S. HENDERSON,
Undertaker
BURNSIDE, PENNA.

THE UNDERTAKER
I HEREBY give notice to the citizens of Clearfield and vicinity, as approved by ordinance, hereafter all kinds of Caskets and Coffins will be kept on hand, and orders filled at once.

GEO. WEAVER & CO.,
Second Street,
Clearfield, Pa.,

Dry Goods Groceries,
HATS AND SHOES,
QUEENSWARE, WOOD & WILLOW WARE,

FLOUR, FEED, SALT, &c.
Which they will dispose of at reasonable rates for cash, or exchange for country produce.

REMOVAL!
Having purchased the entire stock of Fred Sackett, kindly give notice that he has moved into the room lately occupied by Reed & Hagerty, on Second Street, where he is prepared to offer to the public:

COOK STOVES,
HEATING AND PARLOR STOVES,
of the latest improved pattern, at low prices.

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS,
Gas Fixtures and Tinware.

Woolen Goods
Have advanced ENORMOUSLY IN VALUE.

New Spring Clothing
Will Be Found As Low AS LAST YEAR.

GUINZBURG'S
ONE PRICE
CLOTHING STORE,

WESTERN HOTEL CORNER,
CLEARFIELD, PA.

HOFFER'S
Cheap Cash Store.

Fancy Dress Goods,

NOTIONS,

GROCERIES,

WALL PAPER,

LEATHER, FISH, Etc.,
Country Produce

THE REPUBLICAN.

Clearfield, Pa.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 16, 1898.
CONKING OVERBOARD.

It fell to the lot of Senator Conkling of New York, to put Grant in nomination at the Chicago Convention. The job was well done, but subsequent events spoiled the sentiments very much.

Coal, Wood & Coke,
Which I am prepared to deliver in a few hours' notice. I am always ready to haul and deliver from the depot, or anywhere else, and have families and household goods anywhere on the line. THOMAS A. DUCKETT, Clearfield, Pa., Mar. 31, 1898-9.

JOHN TROUTMAN,
DEALER IN FURNITURE, MATTRESSES, AND Improved Spring Beds,

Re-Union of Trade.
The undersigned wishing to inform the public that he is a candidate for the office of Mayor of Clearfield, Pa., on the 19th inst., with a full stock of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, NOTIONS, Books, Shoes, Etc.,

James L. Leavy,
Having purchased the entire stock of Fred Sackett, kindly give notice that he has moved into the room lately occupied by Reed & Hagerty, on Second Street, where he is prepared to offer to the public:

COOK STOVES,
HEATING AND PARLOR STOVES,

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS,
Gas Fixtures and Tinware.

Woolen Goods
Have advanced ENORMOUSLY IN VALUE.

New Spring Clothing
Will Be Found As Low AS LAST YEAR.

GUINZBURG'S
ONE PRICE
CLOTHING STORE,

WESTERN HOTEL CORNER,
CLEARFIELD, PA.

HOFFER'S
Cheap Cash Store.

Fancy Dress Goods,

NOTIONS,

GROCERIES,

WALL PAPER,

LEATHER, FISH, Etc.,
Country Produce

THE OLD QUESTION.

It is the old question of States' rights that now comes to the front, not, as heretofore, between the two great parties, but between the warring factions of the Republican party, and they are fighting over it with that peculiar bitterness that is always characteristic of family feuds.

It may be figured for Democrats to regard this fierce encounter with some thing akin to pleasure, but the Democratic party has never professed to be truly good, has never boasted of its Christian platitudes, has never sent missionaries to deliver the black men of the South from the oppression of their white neighbors, has never robbed any Freedman's bank, has never stolen the funds appropriated to buy grave-stones for the soldiers, in fact the Democratic party hasn't done any of these things which make a party truly good. Therefore, Democrats are wicked, and they laugh—a cold, bitter, sneering, snarl laugh—when they see the Radicals fighting over this old issue of States' rights.

The New York Tribune wants to know—and wants the information badly and in a hurry—whether the Republican party is a "Confederate" or "National," and it goes on to remark that:

This question summarizes the vital issue which separates the Grant from the anti-Grant elements in the Chicago Convention to be a Convention of delegates from the States? Can a majority in such a delegation represent the States as a whole, or the votes of the gagged minority? Is the Convention composed of forty-seven States, or of seven hundred and thirty-four "people"? The Tribune says a good deal more in the same vein, and proceeds to show that in attempting to enforce the unit rule the Grant men are trying to subvert the fundamental principles of their party.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—In November last a man named Patrick Ward was killed on the Reading Railroad, in Berks county, and without an inquest being held, the body was buried in the cemetery of the deceased, at Palo Alto, Schuylkill county. Here an inquest was held by the Coroner of Schuylkill county, who afterwards brought suit to recover his fees. Judge Fenshing decides against the claim, and says that the Coroner of the county in which the man was killed should have held the inquest; that the Coroner of Berks could have empanelled his jury in his own county, taken them to Schuylkill county to view the body, and then returned to Berks county to hear testimony and make up a verdict. This decision looks right and proper, and settles an important question of jurisdiction which sometimes arises in regard to cases of the kind occurring near the boundaries of different counties.

TRAGEDY.—An Associated Press telegraph in the dailies of Saturday, June 5th, details the following terrible episode, as a part of the Chicago Convention scenes: "The lady who was so conspicuous in the remarkable scene of last night is said to be Mrs. Charles P. Deems, the widow of a soldier of New York, and the flag which she displayed is said to have been Lincoln's. Again to-night she was present on the platform, swinging her flag in one hand and fan in the other, cheering like mad for Blair until the by-standers pulled her down to her seat, and tore the flag into tatters in her efforts to take it from her while she foisted it about her person and struggled for its possession. The confusion continued for full ten minutes."

SHERMAN SOLD OUT.—T. M. Nichol, Chairman of the Hard Money League of the Northwest, sent a colored boy the other day to a demijohn of whiskey, to be brought to the Sherman headquarters at the Grand Pacific Hotel. The boy took it into Mrs. Senator Logan's room by mistake, and the energetic but temperate lady told him he had made a mistake, and suggested that the next room might be the right one. The next room sent him to another, this to another, this to another, each party relieving the demijohn slightly, and when he reached the Sherman headquarters there was no whiskey left.

THOSE "WARDS"—The New York Herald, in alluding to the colored Cadet case, remarks: "The colored party have a perfect right to inquire further about the Whitaker case, for courts at West Point, as well as elsewhere, are liable to err; but when some of the colored Cadet's sympathizers are the opinion that one of their race has been treated unfairly they simply expose their own ignorance of the proceedings. No white Cadet, under similar conditions, would have had such patient attention bestowed upon him as Whitaker received, or been assisted by such an array of counsel."

AN AUTHOR DEAD.—Lucius Osgood, author of the well-known series of readers bearing his name, died a few days since, in New Castle, Pa. He had recently submitted to the operation of removing an abscess from his liver, which was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Osgood was 57 years old, and leaves a wife and one child. He formerly lived in New York. He was a member of the extensive school book publishing house of A. S. English & Co., Pittsburgh, through whose recent failure he lost a fortune.

TWO HUMAN GHOSTS.—It is said that Long John Wentworth and Bob Ingersoll met at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, with a crowd around them, and commenced to talk off each other. Long John said: "The difference between me and Bob is that I am for God and Grant, and Bob is against them." "Yes," replied Bob, "and they both will be lost."

EMPIRE.—That is what the thirty-six times 306 met in the Chicago Convention. But "the field" was too much for the empire.

AN OLD BACHELOR SAYS that the two things which cause him the most trouble to understand are the weather and the women.

In some respects the gentler sex far surpasses us. No man, for instance, can deliver a lecture with a dozen men in his mouth.

Ingersoll preaches a "free gospel," he claimed. May be, but it costs fifty cents a dollar to hear it, also among.

THE WHIPPING POST.

The Grand Jury of Philadelphia incorporated in their report to the Court last week, the following: "We are convinced," said the jury, after referring to the crowded condition of the County Prison, "that, while incarceration to a sensitive nature may be painful and humiliating enough to accomplish all the objects sought to be obtained by punishment of any kind and to prevent a repetition of the offense, yet in the case of a very large proportion of persons who form what are termed the dangerous classes of society, which include the habitual and professional thief, the well-dressed pickpocket, the adroit swindler and confederate man, together with those of a more brutal nature, a short term of imprisonment in comfortable quarters, with wholesome food, is not adequate to obtain the end required, as is proven by the oft-repeated commitments of the same criminal. Punishment should be severe, short and decisive. When our prison capacity would, we feel assured, be sufficient to meet the requirements. We would therefore suggest the enactment of a law by the State Legislature which would allow a mode of punishment, subject to the will of the Judges, to criminals for a second and subsequent offense, similar to that now in vogue in the State of Delaware, as the best mode of overcoming the present evil of overcrowded prisons." This, in effect, is a recommendation for the establishment of the Delaware whipping post-system.

THE New York Tribune wants to know—and wants the information badly and in a hurry—whether the Republican party is a "Confederate" or "National," and it goes on to remark that:

This question summarizes the vital issue which separates the Grant from the anti-Grant elements in the Chicago Convention to be a Convention of delegates from the States? Can a majority in such a delegation represent the States as a whole, or the votes of the gagged minority? Is the Convention composed of forty-seven States, or of seven hundred and thirty-four "people"? The Tribune says a good deal more in the same vein, and proceeds to show that in attempting to enforce the unit rule the Grant men are trying to subvert the fundamental principles of their party.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—In November last a man named Patrick Ward was killed on the Reading Railroad, in Berks county, and without an inquest being held, the body was buried in the cemetery of the deceased, at Palo Alto, Schuylkill county. Here an inquest was held by the Coroner of Schuylkill county, who afterwards brought suit to recover his fees. Judge Fenshing decides against the claim, and says that the Coroner of the county in which the man was killed should have held the inquest; that the Coroner of Berks could have empanelled his jury in his own county, taken them to Schuylkill county to view the body, and then returned to Berks county to hear testimony and make up a verdict. This decision looks right and proper, and settles an important question of jurisdiction which sometimes arises in regard to cases of the kind occurring near the boundaries of different counties.

TRAGEDY.—An Associated Press telegraph in the dailies of Saturday, June 5th, details the following terrible episode, as a part of the Chicago Convention scenes: "The lady who was so conspicuous in the remarkable scene of last night is said to be Mrs. Charles P. Deems, the widow of a soldier of New York, and the flag which she displayed is said to have been Lincoln's. Again to-night she was present on the platform, swinging her flag in one hand and fan in the other, cheering like mad for Blair until the by-standers pulled her down to her seat, and tore the flag into tatters in her efforts to take it from her while she foisted it about her person and struggled for its possession. The confusion continued for full ten minutes."

SHERMAN SOLD OUT.—T. M. Nichol, Chairman of the Hard Money League of the Northwest, sent a colored boy the other day to a demijohn of whiskey, to be brought to the Sherman headquarters at the Grand Pacific Hotel. The boy took it into Mrs. Senator Logan's room by mistake, and the energetic but temperate lady told him he had made a mistake, and suggested that the next room might be the right one. The next room sent him to another, this to another, this to another, each party relieving the demijohn slightly, and when he reached the Sherman headquarters there was no whiskey left.

THOSE "WARDS"—The New York Herald, in alluding to the colored Cadet case, remarks: "The colored party have a perfect right to inquire further about the Whitaker case, for courts at West Point, as well as elsewhere, are liable to err; but when some of the colored Cadet's sympathizers are the opinion that one of their race has been treated unfairly they simply expose their own ignorance of the proceedings. No white Cadet, under similar conditions, would have had such patient attention bestowed upon him as Whitaker received, or been assisted by such an array of counsel."

AN AUTHOR DEAD.—Lucius Osgood, author of the well-known series of readers bearing his name, died a few days since, in New Castle, Pa. He had recently submitted to the operation of removing an abscess from his liver, which was the immediate cause of his death. Mr. Osgood was 57 years old, and leaves a wife and one child. He formerly lived in New York. He was a member of the extensive school book publishing house of A. S. English & Co., Pittsburgh, through whose recent failure he lost a fortune.

TWO HUMAN GHOSTS.—It is said that Long John Wentworth and Bob Ingersoll met at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, with a crowd around them, and commenced to talk off each other. Long John said: "The difference between me and Bob is that I am for God and Grant, and Bob is against them." "Yes," replied Bob, "and they both will be lost."

EMPIRE.—That is what the thirty-six times 306 met in the Chicago Convention. But "the field" was too much for the empire.

AN OLD BACHELOR SAYS that the two things which cause him the most trouble to understand are the weather and the women.

In some respects the gentler sex far surpasses us. No man, for instance, can deliver a lecture with a dozen men in his mouth.

Ingersoll preaches a "free gospel," he claimed. May be, but it costs fifty cents a dollar to hear it, also among.

THE MANSION HOUSE.

THE old and commodious Hotel has, during the past year, been enlarged to double its former capacity, and the new building has been furnished, and the proprietor will spare no pains to render his guests comfortable while staying with him.

ALLEGHENY HOTEL—
Market Street, Clearfield, Pa.

TEMPERANCE HOUSE,
NEW WASHINGTON, PA.

WASHINGTON HOUSE,
NEW WASHINGTON, PA.

LOYD HOUSE,
PHILADELPHIA, PENNA.

County National Bank,
OF CLEARFIELD, PA.

F. K. ARNOLD & CO.,
BANKERS AND BROKERS.

J. L. R. HEICHHOLD,
DENTIST.

DR. E. M. THOMPSON,
DENTIST.

A. OPERATIVE DENTIST,
CLEARFIELD, PENNA.

J. M. STEWART,
SURGEON DENTIST,
CLEARFIELD, PA.

J. H. LYTLE,
Wholesale & Retail Dealer in

Groceries,

THE LARGEST AND BEST SELECTED STOCK IN THE COUNTY.

COFFEE, TEA, SUGAR, SPICES, FISH, SALT, OILS.

QUEENSWARE, TUBS AND BUCKETS, DRIED FRUITS, CANNED GOODS, BROOMS, FLOUR, FERR.

THE BELL'S RUN WOOLEN FACTORY,
Pott township, Clearfield Co., Pa.

BURNED OUT!
BURNED UP!

ORDERS BY MAIL,
WILL RECEIVE,
PROMPT ATTENTION.

Geo. B. Goodlander,
Clearfield,
Clearfield County, Pa.