EDUCATIONAL.

BY M. L. McQUOWN "Education is a better safeguard of liberty than a standing army. If we retreach the wages of the schoolmaster, we must raise those of the recruit-ing surgeant."

There will be 236 schools in Clearfield county the coming Winter The leading boroughs have already appointed their teachers for the cur-rent school year.

Decatur township will have twelve schools the coming Winter, an increase of two over last year.

Eight teachers of the county have NEW SERIES-VOL. 21, NO. 25. been captured by Cupid's bewitching darts since last Winter's schools closed.
