WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST I), 1888. "COME AGAIN."

Have you spent a pleasant day? Come again, come again; Would you learn the better way, Then come, come again; Here you'll find a welcome true, Have you spent a pleasant day?

Come again, come again. Would you learn the better way, Then come, come again. Would you leave all sinful ways? Come again, come neath;
Would you join our cheerful lays?
Then come, come again.
We are bound for Canash's land.
Will you come and join our band?
We will take you by the hand, Words of comfort you shall hear Come again, come again; From the Book we love so dear,

Jesus uled for you and me, His disciple you may be, O come, come again. Come on every Sobbath day,
Come again, come again;
Never, acroy clay away,
O come, cime again;
New improve the hours that dy,
Thay are gliding swiftly by,
You are not too young to die,

Then come, come again WILL THEY?
