Our Special column is decidedly interesting in a local point of view, and profitable reading to outsiders who want to save money.

YES, OF COURSE!

"Will you take wheat, oats or corn for subscription?" We are often inquired of in this way by letter from patrons who reside at a distance from Clearfield. We again say yes. The receipts of a responsible merchant or mill owner in the vicinity, will answer us just as well as the cash. To illustrate: If any of our patrons will deliver us a bag of grain at the mill of Joseph H. Breth, in Chest township, Horace Patchin, in Burnside, Thomas H. Forcey, in Graham, Wm. Porter or Shaw's, in Lawrence, or Brown & Snyder's, at Rockton, Union township, and forward their receipts for the amount, we will credit them on their account for the same. In this way all may soon pay what they owe, if they will pursue this course. tf.

Some six or eight large campaign flags and banners occupy conspicuous positions along the thoroughfares of our neighboring town of Philipsburg, and we believe the most of them float in the breeze in favor of Hancock, English, Jenks and Dechert. The last hand-organ of the season visited our town on Friday, which no doubt was on the way to Winter-quarters, accompanied by a man as organist and a girl as cashier.

All interested in the cause of Temperance are cordially invited. The exercises will consist of Readings, Essays, Select Orations and Lectures, with appropriate music.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

A SHADE OF CHANGE.—The Lewistown Sentinel says: "George W. Alberti, formerly of Lewistown, but now publisher of the Sutter Banner, at Yuba City, California, is the Republican candidate for County Clerk in Sutter county." There seems to be some mis-spelling about his name. We are the proprietor of two notes which he gave us in 1874 and '75, and he then scored it "George W. Elberty." Does crossing the Rocky Mountains wreck a fellow's name in that way?

"NOT GUILTY!"—Harry English, who created so much sensation in April last at Caledonia, Elk county, for the fatal shooting of Constable Warnith and the serious wounding of Vollmer, was tried at Ridgway last week, and after the jury had retired but a short time the verdict of "Not Guilty" was returned. This trial was about the first business transacted in the new Elk County Court House. English is still in custody and will be tried in the McKean county Court on the charge of forgery.

THE BAND CONTEST AT BROOKVILLE.—Of the bands, the Brookville Democrat comments as follows: "The band contest on Friday, between the Orpheus Cornet Band of Clearfield and the DuBois band, was a rich treat to all lovers of good music. Indeed, the fine music which the various bands so ungrudgingly bestowed upon the citizens during their stay will long be remembered. The very gentlemanly behavior of all the members has won for them a high place in the esteem of all. Perhaps some of the 'smashes' of which we hear may not result fatally, but no one knows how these things will terminate."

The Supreme Court now in session at Pittsburgh has just promulgated decisions in the following cases taken up from the Common Pleas Court of Clearfield county:

Bridget Baker et al. vs. Allegheny Valley R. R. Judgment reversed, and new trial granted.

John DuBois vs. Bigler, Young & Co. Judgment reversed, and new trial granted.

Richard Arthurs vs. Andrew King et al. Judgment reversed, and new trial granted.

Leonard's appeal from Orphans' Court, Clearfield county. Decree reversed with directions to correct auditor's report by striking off items of $2,000 and $67.50, the appellee to pay the costs of the appeal.

LAST PICNIC.—We wish to remind our readers of the last grand picnic of the season announced to come off at Merrell's Woods, in the rear of the Fair grounds, West Clearfield, on Thursday and Friday, October 14th and 15th. The large platform has been enclosed in case the weather should prove disagreeable, and the managers have gone to considerable expense and trouble to make everything pleasant and comfortable for all who attend. A grand prize, consisting of a handsome and valuable silver cup, gold-lined, will be awarded the best lady waiter. Hacks will be run to and from the grounds at low rates of fare. Everybody is invited.

DEATH OF WM. S. BRADLEY.—On Sunday morning last it was announced on our streets that all that was mortal in the person of William S. Bradley was dead. This was hard to believe on the part of those who saw him on the street a few days previous, apparently enjoying pretty good health; but such was the fact! He is no more. Mr. Bradley was well and intimately known to many of the citizens of our county, having been engaged in keeping hotel in this borough. He occupied the Leonard House for some time, and four or five years ago he leased the Allegheny House, which he was keeping at the time of his death. He served in the capacity of Clerk to the County Commissioners from 1858 until 1869, and of necessity became personally acquainted with Constables, Assessors, Collectors, etc., many of whom still regret to learn of his demise. He also taught public school in this borough and other districts in the county at an early day. He visited the State Fair at Philadelphia a few weeks ago, and also spent a few days at the seashore, hoping to receive some benefit, but the disease—consumption—had taken such a hold upon him that his hopes were in vain. He took his bed on Tuesday of last week, and declined so rapidly that he expired on Sunday morning, at 6 o'clock, in the 35d year of his age. A widow and a number of relatives are left to mourn his death. The funeral took place this (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock.

THE RADICAL POW-WOW.—After a great deal of preparation on the part of our Radical friends last week, they got together a respectable showing on Wednesday evening to take part in the torchlight procession; but it was nothing like that of the Democrats the evening previous. If the Democrats had on Tuesday night what lamps the Republicans had left unused on Wednesday evening, they could have had 200 more men in line. The Republicans, leaving out the Orpheus, Citizen and Curwensville brass bands, and several martial bands, had about 250 men and boys in line, in the rear of which was a donkey leading a mule with a jackass rider, carrying an image that looked more like the Chairman of the Clearfield County Committee than anything else we have ever seen. The Court House and Opera House were both lighted to entertain the crowd, but after filling the Court room, they sent two bands to the Opera House to gather an audience. They were all so comfortably seated in the Court House that they were content to remain, and the Opera House was subsequently abandoned. The meeting was presided over by General Patton, of Curwensville, and the speakers were a fellow from Philadelphia, named Shields, the savoring of whose head caused more merriment than the language he used did respect. H. T. Harvey, of Lock Haven, a Mr. Moran, of Philadelphia, and Congressman Murray. The lovefeast broke up near midnight, and they all went home feeling that they had fallen short of the demonstration and enthusiasm of the evening previous; and they will realize it about the third of November next.

We have witnessed these annual demonstrations for the past twenty-five years, but never before was the contrast so great. The Democrats filled the Court House, Opera House, the Public Square and all the hotels, while all the Radicals were comfortably seated in the Court room. On many former occasions the Radicals in their street parade threw the Democrats in the shade, in point of numbers, but on this occasion the latter had three to one. However, this campaign is running in that groove, and it cannot be changed.

THE DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

In accordance with previous notice, given by the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, the Democracy of Clearfield borough and surrounding townships, and those in attendance at Court from a distance, assembled in Mass Convention on Tues day evening of last week, to hear the issues of the campaign politely discussed. The procession formed in line in the vicinity of the Wigwam at 7 o'clock P. M. for a torchlight parade, and marched along our principal streets, being joined by a delegation from Curwensville and Pike township, headed by the Curwensville Cornet Band, a delegation from Penn township and Mt. Joy, in Lawrence township. The streets were ablaze with torches and enthusiasm, and the line was interspersed with appropriately worded transparencies and banners. The Orpheus and Citizens' band of this place, the Curwensville band, and several martial bands occupied positions in the procession, and furnished an abundance of music.

After marching for an hour or more, the people crowded the Opera House full, and it was found necessary to organize a second one in the Court House. The meeting in the Opera House was called to order by Chairman Barchfield, and on motion Hon. George R. Barrett was called upon to preside, supported by the following officers, viz:

Vice Presidents—John Owens, Lawrence; Hiram Woodward, Bradford; General Baker, Knox; C. W. Kyler, Graham; Dr. F. R. Reed, Osceola; Dr. Caldwell, Glenn Hope; G. L. Reed, Clearfield; John Troxell, Sandy; David Moore, Bogg; Dan St. George Frazier, Houtzdale; Dr. A. D. Bennett, New Washington; Chas. Schwem, Brady; John D. Thompson, Curwensville; Daniel Moore, Karthaus.

Secretaries—James P. Hale, Osceola; Johnson Hamilton, Luthersburg; Dr. J. M. Stewart, Clearfield.

Judge Barrett introduced J. L. Butler, of Boston, Mass., as the first speaker of the evening. Mr. Butler briefly and eloquently reminded his listeners of the bad record of the Republican party. His speech was well received by all who heard it. He addressed the Greenbackers in the Court House in this place two years ago.

Senator Wallace was the next speaker, and delivered an able speech of three-quarters of an hour. He was followed by Hon. Jacob Ziegler, editor of the Butler, (Pa.) Herald, "Uncle Jake," as he is familiarly known, although an old man, put a great deal of humor in his address, and at times got quite eloquent while talking about Gen. Hancock. The speeches were all able and interesting and held the audience until eleven o'clock, when the meeting adjourned with three cheers for General Hancock and the whole ticket.

The meeting in the Court House was presided over by D. W. Moore, Esq., and was addressed by Hon. Jacob Ziegler and J. L. Butler, chasing alternately between that place and the Opera House.

Thus ended the meeting, and all went home feeling that it was good for them to be there. This occasion was one that indicated that the Democrats of Clearfield county are fully alive to their interests and the best interests of the whole country.

THE NEVLING MURDER TRIAL.

The trial of John A. Nevling, for the shooting of Samuel Pennington at Houtzdale, on the 17th of February last, and from the effects of which Pennington died on Monday morning, April 19th, 1880, began in our Court, before Judge Orvis, on Tuesday morning of last week. The Commonwealth was represented by District Attorney McKenrick and Wm. M. McCullough, Esq., and the prisoner was defended by Messrs. McEnally & McCurdy and Smith T. Wilson, Esq. Tuesday forenoon was taken up in selecting a jury, after which the case was ready for the attorneys. The jury was composed of the following:

Adam Beck, farmer, Beccaria township.
Evans Miller, farmer, Lawrence township.
William Thurston, farmer, Jordan township.
George Lingle, farmer, Girard township.
S. U. Heverly, farmer, Beccaria township.
Samuel Spangler, farmer, Graham township.
Samuel P. Shaak, carpenter, Lawrence twp.
Henry Brooms, painter, Pike township.
Christian Horn, farmer, Bradford township.
Joshua Harshorn, farmer, Pike township.
Zachariah Hoover, farmer, Bradford township.
John Williams, farmer, Jordan township.

A large number of witnesses were examined on each side. Maps of Houtzdale borough, showing the scene of the affray, and the gun from which the load of buckshot was discharged, were offered in evidence. Both sides rested their cases on Thursday evening, and Friday was devoted to the argument of the case before the jury. District Attorney McKenrick spoke first, and was followed by Mr. Wilson and Judge McEnally. Mr. McCullough came last, and concluded his argument about half past nine in the evening.

Judge Orvis delivered a careful and exhaustive charge to the jury in a fair and impartial manner, and afterwards instructed them on the points of law submitted by Defendant's counsel.

Two tipstaves were sworn, and at out 10:30 o'clock P. M. the jury retired to their room to deliberate upon a verdict. The Judge gave them notice that if they reached a verdict any time before 12 o'clock that night, Court would convene at the ringing of the bell, and it would be received. Shortly before 12 o'clock the bell rang out its tones upon the stillness of the midnight air, and it was but a few moments when men and boys could be seen running to the Court House from all directions to hear the result. The Court room was packed full, and everything was as quiet that nothing could be heard but the ticking of the clock in the tower. The prisoner was brought in by Sheriff Mahaffey, and shortly afterward the jurymen filed in and took their seats in the box. The verdict was handed to the Clerk, Mr. Bloom, who handed it to the Court for examination. At the request of the Defendant's counsel the jury was polled, after which the Clerk said: "Gentlemen of the jury, hearken to your verdict as the Court do have it recorded. You find the Defendant, John A. Nevling, guilty in manner and form as he stands indicted, and guilty of murder in the first degree. And so you all say." They all responded in the affirmative.

While the verdict was being received amidst the death-like stillness that prevailed, the prisoner sat with Stoic indifference, as he did throughout the entire progress of the trial. His countenance was pale and care-worn, caused by his long imprisonment. The Sheriff took the unfortunate man back to prison and locked him him up to await further action.

On Saturday morning Judge McEnally made a motion for a new trial, which motion will probably be argued this week.

REMARKS FROM PENN.

GRAMPIAN HILLS, Oct. 1st, 1880.

MR. EDITOR:—We have had some fun up here at the expense of our Deputy Postmaster General. He manifested considerable indignation on last Wednesday, because his party friends had employed a Democratic band to attend the Clearfield meeting that night. However, after growling for some time, he joined the parade and started for the County seat. But he heard so much Hancock talk between Pennville and Curwensville, and nobody hallooing into line to swell the gang, between the two towns, that he became discouraged and deserted the train at Curwensville, so highly disgusted that I should not be surprised if he votes for Hancock on election day. You know that the turnout from Penn, Lumber City, Ferguson, etc., to that meeting was a fizzle, in comparison with the turnout on former occasions. The Hancock star outshines the DeFolyer Garfield star up here, and I will not be surprised if quite a number of Radicals in this neighborhood will vote for Hancock, who is gaining ground every day. Yours, HANCOCK.

CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.

The Congressional Conference of the 20th District met at the Irvin House, Lock Haven, on Tuesday, September 28th, at 2 P. M. The following Conferees were present:

Centre—J. H. Morrison, J. H. Holt, C. T. Alexander.
Clearfield—Dr. J. W. Potter, James L. Leavy, John K. White.
Clinton—H. L. Diffenbach, W. H. Brown, T. C. Hipple.
Elk—Andrew Kaul, Charles Lehr, G. D Messenger.
Mifflin—C. P. Dull, S. R. Weber, J. S. Rakerd.
Union—Joseph Green, Samuel Blair, G. W. Walls, (Mr. Walls being absent Mr. Blair cast his vote for him.)

The Conference organized by the selection of Judge Lehr, of Elk, for President, T. C. Hipple, of Clinton, and John K. White, of Clearfield, Secretaries.

On the call of counties Mr. Morrison, of Centre nominated Hon. A. G. Curtin for Congress; Mr. Messenger, of Elk, of the same county; and Mr. Rakerd, of Mifflin, nominated Andrew Reed, Esq., of the same county. The following letter from Hon. A. H. Dill was presented and read:

LEWISBURG, PA., September 18th, 1880.

DR. Samuel Blair, Joseph Green and G. W. Walls, Gentlemen:—As the delegates to the Congressional Conference from this district I wish to notify you of my desire that my name shall not be presented as a candidate for the nomination for Congress.

I appreciate highly the honor done me by the county in suggesting my name, but as several gentlemen are competing for the honor of the nomination I do not feel at liberty, occupying the position that I do, to engage in the contest. By making this decision of mine known at the meeting of the Conference you will much oblige me. Very truly yours, A. H. DILL.

The Convention then took several ballots with recesses now and then, till about 10 o'clock in the evening, the vote standing 9 for Curtin (Centre, Clinton and Clearfield,) 6 for Reed (Mifflin and Union,) and 3 for Hall (Elk,) when they adjourned till the next morning.

They met next morning at 8:30 o'clock, and on the 9th ballot Hon. Andrew G. Curtin received 11 votes (necessary to a choice, 10, two from Elk having voted to him.) He was thereupon declared the nominee, and on motion the nomination was made unanimous.

Messrs. Potter, Rakerd, and Diefienbach were appointed a Committee to inform the nominee of the action of the Conference. The Committee performed that duty, and Governor Curtin was presented. He expressed his thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and acknowledged his pleasure at being placed in a position to be vindicated from the wrong done him and his party in 1878. He said he had left the Radical party in 1872 and joined the Democrats; that he had been with them ever since that time, and was heartily in the same company this year under the lead of the gallant Hancock; that there were but two great parties in this country—the Democratic and the Radical—and that he had in 1872 left the latter and joined the former, because he believed that it was only through the Democratic party that the country could enjoy perfect peace and lasting prosperity. He said that in 1878 he had obeyed the mandates of the State Central Committee and left his district to do battle for the Democratic candidate for Governor. In his absence extraordinary combinations were made and in the result he and the party had suffered grievous wrong. This time he proposed to stay in his district. He had received invitations to go to Ohio and Indiana, and calls from the State Central Committee, but he had made up his mind to remain with those who had honored him with this nomination, and with them to labor for the success of the Democratic ticket—the whole ticket—and as he felt sure of the election of the gallant Hancock, so he felt in reference to himself—that the Democratic party would stand by him, and would do his part towards giving them an active, energetic and zealous support. He had no fears of the result, and rested confident in the belief that the party would right the wrong of 1878 and sustain itself.

His remarks were frequently interrupted with applause, and at the close loud calls were made for Mr. Reed. He responded and said that he had gone into the Conference, as was evident, not to nominate the honorable gentleman who had been their choice to-day, but now that the selection had been made, and unanimously concurred in, it received his cordial support. He recognized the eminent fitness of the nominee, and pledged his hearty support of him in the canvass.

At the conclusion of his remarks, which were loudly applauded, Mr. Hall was called for. He said he had come there in good faith as a candidate, and was gratified at the support he had received from his county; but that the nomination had fallen to another, and he thought it a selection eminently fit to be made, and it would receive his most hearty support. The men who were his Conferees were representative men in Elk county, and their action would be concurred in by the people of Elk, and when the vote was cast on the 2d of November, our distinguished nominee would be found running along with our noble standard bearer, Winfield S. Hancock. For himself he would do all in his power to bring to Governor Curtin the support he should receive, and which he was sure the Democrcy of Elk would give. Frequent applause interrupted Mr. Hall's remarks, at the close of which the Conference adjourned sine die.

SHUNKWEILER.—At the residence of his father at Lick Run Mills, Goshen township, on September 29th, 1880, of Typhoid fever, Ellis I. Shunkweiler, aged 21 years, 7 months and 29 days.

The death of this young man affords a mournful opportunity to testify to the uprightness of his character. He spent his short life where he was born and died, and was known and beloved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who in large numbers attended his funeral. Of his good qualities it will suffice to say that he had more of the virtues and fewer of the vices than falls to the lot of most young men—amiable, courteous, honest, industrious, faithful and obliging in all his relations of life, and died in the full assurance of a happy future in the life to come. He was brought up under the auspices of the writer, who heartily gives this tribute of respect to the memory of a dear friend. I.

WEAVER.—In Clearfield borough, on Monday, September 27th, 1880, at 11 o'clock P. M., of membraneous croup, Francis Elizabeth, daughter of George and Ida Weaver, aged 2 years, 2 months and 12 days.

Little Frankie, whose sudden and unexpected death has wrought so much sadness to the hearts of her parents, was one of the most beautiful and amiable children that ever blessed a home. She was wise and thoughtful far beyond her years. She was the pet of a fond and loving father, and the idol of a doting and affectionate mother. Death came to this loving household, with scarcely a moment's warning. His march was stealthily and almost unnoticed until his work was done, and the sad reality could hardly be realized by her parents, who clung to her and would not believe their baby pet was dead. Their grief was unbounded and called forth the warmest sympathy from the entire community, among whom neither father or mother has a single enemy; but on the contrary, the most devoted friends. Their hearts are wrung with sorrow; but let us hope that they may find consolation and comfort in the realization that their dear little Frankie has been only removed from them to the care and protection of Him, who, while on earth, took little children in his arms and blessed them, and said: "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Mamma sadly strokes the golden head,
As in accents so uneven,
She stills the heart pain to say:
"No; our darling is up in Heaven
With tear-dimmed eyes she kneels
In fervent silent prayer,
As the spirit of her loved one
Floats near upon the air." E.
