YES, OF COURSE!

"Will you take wheat, oats or corn for subscription?" We are often inquired of in this way by letter from patrons who reside at a distance from Clearfield. We again say yes. The receipts of a responsible merchant or mill owner in the vicinity, will answer as just as well as the cash. To illustrate: If any of our patrons will deliver at a bag of grain at the mill of Joseph H. Breth, in Chest township, Horace Patchin, in Burnside, Thomas B. Forcey, in Graham, Wm. Porter or Shaw's, in Lawrence, or Brown & Seyler's, at Rockton, Union township, and forward their receipts for the amount, we will credit them on their account for the same. In this way all may soon pay what they owe, if they will pursue this course. tf.

Public opinion seems to be universal in the fact that the right place to put the bridge is to take the place of the "Gandelow bridge," is at G. L. Reed's farm, a half a mile below the old site. A SUBSTANTIAL TESTIMONIAL.—Rev. Dr. William J. Gibson, having recently completed fifty years in the Ministry of the Presbyterian Church, his friends in the Huntingdon Presbytery, in which he has resided for more than forty years, desiring to manifest their appreciation of this unusual occurrence, as well as their affection for the man, visited him at his home in Duncansville, Blair county, on Thursday of last week, Nov. 18th, and presented him with a certificate of the First National Bank of Hollidaysburg, for $1,562 53. This amount will be used to purchase a home for the venerable Minister, who has been in this Presbytery since 1858, and always actively employed. Dr. Gibson has passed his 76th year, and, though physically impaired by time and service, his mind retains all its original strength. PARENTAL CARELESSNESS.—The Huntingdon Local News of the 19th relates the following: "Yesterday afternoon a little girl named, Rhetta McDonald, aged about ten years, the oldest daughter of Mr. William McDonald, a carpenter, who resides on Moore street, near Seventh, in this place, met with a sudden death. Her father had gone from home to work, and Rhetta had been told by her mother to mind the youngest children for a few minutes before going to school, while she went to visit a sick neighbor. Over the stairway leaning from the basement kitchen to a shelf upon which Mr. McDonald had placed a long barreled navy revolver, which he thought was unloaded. Rhetta, according to the statement of her little brother, attempted to pull the revolver off the shelf with a broom, when by some means it was discharged, and the whole charge of twenty or more shot penetrated her breast and some of the shot entering her heart caused almost instant death. Her parents were immediately notified, and returned home to find their little daughter lying upon the kitchen floor in a pool of blood. The unfortunate calamity awakened the sympathy of the entire community."

SENT FOR.—The Judges of two election districts in this county failed to have their returns at the Prothonotary's office within the time prescribed by the law, and His Honor, Judge Cummin, issued bench warrants for their arrest, and brought them in at their own costs. Evidently Judge Cummin is not to be trifled with in matters of such importance, and his position is right.—Jersey Shore Herald.

The carelessness of Return Judges is truly remarkable. When the Court summoned for the purpose of tallying the vote according to the Act of Assembly, on less than three of our Judges and their returns were missing. This should never occur again. As the vote from the districts indicated did not elect or defeat anybody, the Court allowed them to be tallied five hours after the time set forth in their instructions. If five hours grace can be given to one man, why cannot another claim five days? The next time any of our Judges are missing we advise the Court to do just as Judge Cummin did—send for them.

NEW WASHINGTON, Nov. 16th, 1880.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN—Sir: Will you permit me through the REPUBLICAN to render my grateful acknowledgment of the kindness and respect manifested by over one hundred friends from different sections, on the 12th inst., it being the seventy-fourth anniversary of my birth, who after enjoying a delightful season of social intercourse and partaking of a bountiful repast, provided by themselves, repaired to the M. E. Church. After singing, prayer was offered by the Rev. G. B. Agur, pastor of the M. E. Church, then singing by a choir of young ladies. Rev. B. Mims gave an expression of thankfulness in an address enmodying a review of the forty six years of his ministry. This was followed by addresses from the Rev. T. VanScoyoc, Rev. S. Furman, of Indiana county, Rev. J. E. Dean, of Reynoldsville, and Mr. H. D. Knox, and benediction by Rev. S. Mims.

The friends appeared to enjoy themselves greatly and separated with the kindest congratulations to the recipient of their favors, leaving as tokens and evidence of their respect some $82 in money and at least $30 dollars worth of articles for family use. May the God whom I try to serve abundantly, in Providence and grace, bless the kind donors, and may they ever realize that "it is more blessed to give than receive, and the liberal soul shall be made fat." May God bless them. SAMUEL MILES.
