CLEARFIELD, PA WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1881. SAP WEATHER.

When in the orchard trees we hear At early morn the robin's cheer; When first the blue bird pipes his song; When days grow mid and trillights long; When brooks grow hig, mow-drifts amail. When the lary crows the valleys fill With homely muzic, and each hill Stands frosty in the dawning still; When days are suppy and nights for Then sugar-makers tap the frees. Then sugar-makers tap the frees.

When hight grow warm, as well as days;
When hills draw on their nets of hase;
When thrushes sing in all the fields,
And every lingering snow-drift yields.
To patient sanshine; when frogs sing
And cawelipe by the brooksides apping;
And cawelipe by the brooksides apping;
And cawelipe by the brooksides spring;
When Maydewes 'ind the hat year's learner
Shyly her pale, swent biosom weares;
When brooks appen the heanthes swell,
And home-returning availance swell.

When through the soft availance soft
When through the soft air wild been hum;
When through the soft air wild been hum;
When afters sing their tassels free.
And in muit hollows are may see
The bright, treak tuits of springing clover.

and uniformity of remins, which embots physicians as well as invasible to use it with confidence. It is the most reliable remaly for diseases of the throat and lungs that semee has produced. It strikes at the femidation of all pulmonary diseases, afferding recompt and oscial relief, and is adapted to guidents of any age or either sex. Hong very palatable, the youngest childron take is without difficulty. In the treatment of ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sorre Throat, Broughlitis, Influence, Gengyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Group, and Catarch, the effects of Ayras's Cremy Paronat are magical, and multitudes are asmulally preserved from serious liness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household, for the protection it affords in modelen attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption
there is no other remedy so efficacions, soothing, and helpful.

The nurveillous cures which Aven's Common Perronal, has effected all over the world are a sufficient guaranty that it will continue to produce the best results. As impartial trial will convince the most sceptical of its wonderful curative powers, as well as of its amperiously over all other proparations for pulmonary complaints.

Endment physicians in all parts of the country, knowing its composition, recommend Arm's Comman Performant to invalidate and presented its in their practice.
