

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 27, 1911.

Readers: If you want to know what is going on in the business world, just read our advertising columns, the special column in particular.

A VACANCY.—Hon. Nathan Clifford, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, died at his home at Cornish, Maine, on Monday, aged 78 years.

STILL ALIVE.—The news from Washington at 10 o'clock on Tuesday (yesterday), is to the effect that President Garfield's condition is better than it was the day previous.

Nearly a whole square of buildings at Syracuse, New York, including the Weiting Opera House, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday of last week. The loss is nearly $400,000; insurance, $270,000.

POOR GRANT.—Gath says that the banking firm of Grant & Ward, in which George Grant has an interest, divided $700,000 profits last year. The genius of this house is a young man named Ward, not much over 30 years of age, who is a son-in-law of a former cashier of the Marine Bank.

HIS LAST WORDS.—LONDON, July 19.—In Convocation to-day the Archbishop of Canterbury said the last audible words of Dean Stanley were, "I have labored amidst many frailties and much weakness to make Westminster Abbey the great centre of religious and national life in a truly liberal spirit."

WE ARE A MIGHTY PEOPLE.—The Philadelphia Times says: "It is stated on the authority of Secretary Blaine that there are one million applications for office on file in Washington. This is nearly one-fourth the whole number of votes received by Garfield, and the fact goes a long way toward showing up the true greatness of this country."

"ON THE FLY."—The Philadelphia Record of Monday says: Drs. Agnew and Hamilton, the consulting physicians in Philadelphia and New York attending upon President Garfield, when suddenly called on Saturday were almost flying into the White House by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. They went nearly a mile a minute.

A ROYAL SPENDTHRIFT.—The Prince of Wales has a revenue of half a million dollars, yet is involved in debt and begging relief from Parliament. Whilst the spendthrift and reckless scapgrace is wasting the money earned by the sweat and blood of the people, he is adverse to the petitions of the whole people of Ireland for simple justice and the right to live and enjoy their own.

DEATH OF A DESPERATE OUTLAW.—"Billy the Kid," a notorious bandit and outlaw was shot and killed by Sheriff Pat Garrett, of Lincoln county, at Serran, 120 miles from Las Vegas, New Mexico. The "kid" was a headstrong youth, said to have been born in New York, and his real name is believed to be McCarley. He was 21 years of age, and he boasted that he had killed a man for every year that he had lived. We will publish a full account of his terrible and thrilling career next week.

DEATH OF DEAN STANLEY.—Rev. Arthur P. Stanley, Dean of Westminster Abbey, England, died on Monday, July 18th, in the 66th year of his age. He was the son of the late Rev. Edward Stanley, D. D., Bishop of Norwich, and was distinguished as an author, theologian and traveler. He visited the United States in 1878. In the death of Dean Stanley, England loses one of her most distinguished sons and the church one of its brightest and best workers.

HALF RIGHT.—The Pittsburgh Post thinks there are two amendments to the Federal Constitution which ought to be adopted. One is the election of United States Senators by the people, the other providing that the Vice President shall not fill the unexpired term of the President, but only until an election shall be held as now provided after the death or disability of the Vice President. To the latter we agree and second the motion. Adopt that feature of the case and the motive to kill the President will be greatly abridged.

The Democrats of Jefferson county have made the following nominations, viz: President Judge, Col. James B. Knox, of Clarion; Sheriff, S. P. Anderson, of Glover township; Prothonotary, Thomas K. Hastings, of Punxsutawney; Treasurer, A. Hank, of Knox township; Commissioners, Uriah Matson, of Rose township; R. M. Donald, of Porter township; Additors, Jacob Bondy, of Henderson township; Robt. Dougherty, of Washington township; Coroner, M. J. Sarvey, of Rose township; James H. Maize, Esq., of Brookville, was chosen Chairman of the Democratic County Committee.

A GOOD KING.—We notice that Mayor King, of Philadelphia, is winning for himself the title of the "humane King." His edict prohibiting the sale of toy pistols and other dangerous explosives in that city on the Fourth of July, was properly enforced by his police, and the record of "accidents" was thereby lessened. He has now directed his officers to use their best efforts to arrest and prosecute all persons who shall carry any firearm, slingshot or other deadly weapon about their persons. It is to be hoped that Mayor King will succeed in breaking up this dangerous habit as successfully as he did in abating the toy pistol nuisance. The practice of carrying pistols is becoming prevalent in city and town, and the consequence is seen in the number of murders that are committed on the highway and in saloons. The law of the State imposes a penalty of one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary for carrying concealed weapons, and until it is enforced there will be no diminution in the number of persons who will violate the law.

CONKLING HAS THE LAST WORD.

The dead-lock in the Radical Legislature of New York was broken on Friday, the 22d of July, and the Empire State has two men who will represent certain private interests in the near future. Conkling and Platt are both overboard. The Joint Convention re-assembled at 4 o'clock, when voting for a Senator was recommenced with the following result:

Platt, 22
Conkling, 10
Total, 32

Necessary in a whole, 65.

The chair announced the election of Elbridge G. Lapham in place of Roscoe Conkling, resigned, and the joint assembly dissolved. Cheers for Lapham, Miller, Garfield, Conkling and Potter followed. The Legislature agreed to adjourn sine die to-day. In the Assembly a resolution was tabled that the $2,000 alleged to have been paid a member as a bribe, and in the custody of the Comptroller of the State be handed over to the widows and orphans of persons killed at the New Capitol. The bill passed to amend the constitution so as to make casual fees, and maintain them by a general State tax.

CONKLING TO HIS FRIENDS.

When Conkling received the telegram advising him of the election of Lapham at Albany, he immediately sent the following telegram:

New York, July 22, 1891.

Hon. James Anthony, Member of Assembly, Albany.

The heroic conduct of the Spaniards which has long been a source of pride and glory to our people, gratifies and stimulates. But how by the aid of the Spaniards and agents which were later on sent to Spain, to carry the measure of their courage and manhood will long live in the hearts of our people. The great future will vindicate their wisdom and their wisdom with great pleasure all for me to receive my most grateful acknowledgments.

RESIGNATION OF COMMITTEE MEN.

MR. STEINER'S CARE.

The Chairman of the Democratic County Committee has authorized us to publish the following:

Proctorville, Pa., July 24, 1891.

To Dr. J. P. Burdick, Chairman of the Democratic County Committee of Clearfield county.

Dear Sir:—As a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, I have the honor to inform you that I have resigned as a member of the County Committee, I hereby tender you my resignation as a member for Sandy township, (see Public Record).

J. F. STEINER.

We understand that the Chairman has filled the vacancy indicated by appointing Adam Kephart as the member for Decatur. His postoffice address is Oceola Mills.

MR. TROXEL'S CARE.

DeBor, Pa., July 25th, 1891.

To Dr. J. P. Burdick, Chairman of the Democratic County Committee of Clearfield county.

Dear Sir:—Having concluded to become a candidate for County Treasurer at the approaching primary election, and being a member of the County Committee, I hereby tender you my resignation as a member for Sandy township, (see Public Record).

M. TROXEL.

The resignation of Mr. Troxel having been accepted, we understand that Chairman Burdick has appointed Mr. S. J. Mead to fill the vacancy.

TO THE POINT.—The Philadelphia Times, in alluding to the new Senator from New York, chimes in on this schedule: "To speak plainly and truthfully, Warner Miller is a disgrace to Congress, and the newspapers of the country, the present half-breed organs among them, united in holding him up as an example of all that is pernicious in the national Legislature. He confessedly became a member of the House of Representatives in order to protect his wood-pulp monopoly from a reduction of duty. His first appearance was before the Ways and Means Committee as an agent for his own pecuniary interests, and the most active lobbyist he did in Congress was as a lobbyist on the floor, and yet he unabashedly receives his salary from the Government. These are the facts about Warner Miller, and no amount of leading articles calling him a statesman because he led a faction in an Albany Speakership fight can gloss them over. He is already a disgrace to the House of Representatives, and the half-breed propose to make him a disgrace to the Senate."

POK SAYS: "WHAT FOOLS THESE MONTANA MEN!"

Over a quarter of a century ago, that standard Philanthropist, Horace Greeley, (in his latter days) advised all young men to go West and grow up with the country. Some went and were benefited by the grasshoppers, others were wiped out by cyclones, and still there are a few left the richest men in the world, outside of "blooded families." California and Nevada assessments show that Mr. James G. Fair heads the personal assessment roll just filed in San Francisco with $426,200.00. Mr. J. C. Flood is assessed at $300,000.00 for himself and $20,500,000.00 as trustee for J. W. Mackey. Mr. Chas. Crocker is assessed at $20,000,000.00. All over twenty millions! What a pile for the boys and girls!

OUR DECLINING TONNAGE.

The Fall Mail Gazette, in an article on the decline of American tonnage, and the rapid increase of English, says: "For the central carrying trade the American flag has been steadily given up by the world. We sometimes see the statistics of the rapid decline of our shipping interests, and we are told that New York is 'losing her position as the largest harbor in the world.' Within the last few years in the year just passed, nearly three thousand British ships arrived at the total tonnage of about four millions, as against only about half a million more than the total British tonnage entered at Liverpool."

STAR ROUTE CONSOLIDATORS HEMMED IN.

New developments tend to show the rottenness of the Star Route mail service and the extent of its ramifications in this city were disclosed here yesterday. For some days past rumors had been busy with many names, and though the warrants for the parties were only issued yesterday Joseph T. Ford had been engaged as counsel for the Star Route consolidators. It is understood that the Star Route consolidators are now being organized in this city. How those referred to would cognize of the fact that they would soon require the services of a lawyer the postal authorities cannot doubt. The United States District Attorney, William A. Foster, has been called in by the Star Route consolidators. The Star Route consolidators are now being organized in this city. How those referred to would cognize of the fact that they would soon require the services of a lawyer the postal authorities cannot doubt. The United States District Attorney, William A. Foster, has been called in by the Star Route consolidators.

REPUTABLE INSURANCE.—The Altoona Tribune says: "A case of speculation in life has just been brought to our notice from Mill Creek, Huntingdon county, in which it is said several prominent citizens are engaged. The subject of the speculation is Mrs. Wm. Lightner, a lady over 80 years of age, who has been in quite a precarious state of health for more than a year past. Within the past year policies to the amount of over $100,000 have been issued upon her life by the different companies engaged in this disreputable speculative business."

A SENSIBLE ACT.—The Harrisburg Patriot remarks: "State Treasurer Butler has done well in refusing to approve a contract for supplies awarded at an extravagant sum and deserves credit for his watchfulness and fidelity. He will do the State additional service by publishing a statement of the condition of the sinking fund, showing its present amount, of what it consists and where the moneys belonging to it are deposited. No sinking fund or general fund statement has been published for a year or more."

CANDID AT LEAST.—The New York Times, one of the leading Radical organs, in alluding to the election of the new Senator from that State, says: "New York has got two Senators of no remarkable ability, and about whom it would be absurd to indulge in any expressions of State pride."

AN INDUSTRY REVIVED.—The hoop-skirt factories are again running with a full head of steam. The style calls for small hoops now, but doubtless the balloon arrangement is impending.

SHOULD THE VICE PRESIDENT BECOME PRESIDENT?

It seems to be a grave question, says the Doylestown Democrat, whether the period has not arrived when Vice President Arthur should assume the duties of the Presidential office. We can come to no other conclusion by reading the Constitution. The 6th section of article II is as follows:

In case of the removal of the President from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, then the same shall devolve on the Vice President.

Has not one of the conditions provided for in the Constitution, when the duties of President shall devolve upon the Vice President, arrived? No one will contend that the President is able to discharge the "powers and duties" devolved upon him by the Constitution. His case is one of pure inability to discharge these powers and duties. The bulletin of one of his medical attendants stated, a few days ago, that he was entirely helpless, could not move a limb, and could only move his tongue. If this does not disable him for the performance of his duties, it is hard to tell what would. If there be truth in the actual condition of the President, as reported, he cannot write his name. It seems to us as a case when the Vice President should discharge the Presidential duties. If Vice President Arthur should assume the Presidential office, it does not follow that the discharge of these duties should continue longer than until the President should be restored to health. There is nothing in the Constitution to prevent him resuming them when he is fit to meet their responsibility.

A GOOD MAN GONE.—The news of Dean Stanley's death will be received in the country with very general and sincere regret. No British clergyman since Charles Kingsley died was better known or more highly esteemed on this side of the Atlantic than the amiable and accomplished Dean of Westminster. Every American who visits London makes a pilgrimage to the Abbey, and so it came about that to very many of Dean Stanley was as it were, an old friend, even though the friendship might all be on one side. His character was, moreover, one which appealed with peculiar force to American sympathies. In the best sense of the word he was a Liberal. He was singularly and pre-eminently free from that tendency to dogmatic conservatism and narrow-mindedness by which in so large a measure his countrymen are distinguished, and while himself a man of clearly defined and firmly-founded convictions, he was always ready to respect the convictions of others and to recognize what was worthy of praise whenever he found it. His all-embracing charity not infrequently brought his orthodoxy into suspension, but he felt that Christianity is above creeds, and unmoved by reproaches, he kept the even tenor of his way. The church which he honored will find it hard to fill his place.

POSTOFFICE TRIBLES.—An exchange relates the following: "More evidence as to the Star postal route swindlers has been discovered. It now appears that the ringsters used all their influence to have Garfield appoint a Postmaster General of their own kidney, but failed. Then they tried their utmost with Postmaster General James to have another ring man appointed in the place of Brady, but again failed. Now they are working with pertinacity and skill to avoid conviction and imprisonment. The late developments show that Route No. 32,023, running from Vinita, Indian Territory, to Las Vegas, New Mexico, was 'expedited' and raised from the original contract of $6,330 to $150,633.00 under Brady's skillful manipulation." The scandalrum that has recently been uncovered in the Postoffice Department, establishes the fact that the Government Bureau is corruptly managed as the Indian branch in the Department of the Interior. In fact, we fear that rogues, instead of statesmen, are managing every department of the Federal Government.

MARRIAGE MADE EASY.

Wiley, like the others, was ready to go to the limit for the crime upon his associates. He took the money from Barrett the other day, when questioned upon the subject, that he was ignorant of the nature of the agreement which he had made, and that he was forced to do so by the threat of the loss of his property. He might take all that, if only this matter could be kept secret. My reputation will be destroyed.
