THE ANATOMY OF AN OYSTER. (From the Baltimore Gazette.) Every oyster has a mouth, a heart, a liver, a stomach, etc.

PRESIDENTIAL DISABILITY. The fact of President Garfield's inability to attend to his legitimate duties has brought up the question of the Constitutional "disability" in a new form.

MR. SPOONER IN THE CHARACTER OF A SPORTS MAN. "Say, my dear," said Mr. Spooner, as he drew a gun from the case and eyed it critically.

A FEW WORDS ON CELLARS. Those who failed to spring their cellars thoroughly in the Spring cannot expect wholly to escape through scrubbed or somewhat, that is, their neglect.

AGRICULTURAL. Contributions to this department should be addressed to J. B. REED, CLEARFIELD, PA.

RESTORING, MAINTAINING AND IMPROVING THE FERTILITY OF FIELDS. ESSAY BY COL. JAMES YOUNG, OF MIDDLE TOWN, PA.

HORSE STABLES. There is far too little attention paid to the matter of ventilation and room in horse stables.

APPLES FOR HORSES. One of our citizens, who usually keeps several dozen workhorses, informed us a few days since that he occasionally fed some apples to his horses.

CARE OF WINTER APPLES. As the time will soon be here when the care of winter apples will claim the farmers' attention, I presume a suggestion on this subject may be as timely as possible.

A SURPRISE--NOT A SLAUGHTER. General Carr, so soon as the mails reach him, will enjoy a pleasure rarely accorded to men.

MR. SPOONER IN THE CHARACTER OF A SPORTS MAN.

"Say, my dear," said Mr. Spooner, as he drew a gun from the case and eyed it critically.

"I'm going down on the island, and you'll probably go as far as the front door."

"Women don't go gunning. It's only men up and get breakfast. When I come home we'll have some fun."

"I'm going down on the island, and you'll probably go as far as the front door."

"I can kill you with this," explained Mr. Spooner. "This is a gun, my dear; it isn't a nest with three speckled eggs in it, nor is it a barn with a cow in the roof. You stick the cartridge in here, make a hole in the place, and down comes the bird every time."

"Well, isn't that the greatest thing I suppose if you don't want a partridge, you can stick a duck or a turkey in that end, too, and a lobster, and bring it down just as quick."

"Yes, or you can stick a house or a cornfield, or a dog-dadged female idiot in there, too, if you want to!"
