THE OLD FARMER'S SOLILOQUY. Well! Well! this is a queer world—the air is mild and the sun is warm, but the world is full of sorrow.

THE FATAL WOUND. In the light cast upon it by the post-mortem examination, it is possible to describe the most prominent features of the case.

REMARKS. One hundred and eighteen provincial certificates were issued at the late examinations, and twenty applicants rejected.

EDUCATIONAL. Good teachers are scarce. Over one hundred teachers in the county are subscribers to educational journals.

THE VALUE OF RED CLOVER. An observation extending over a period of thirteen years, in this Calloway county, Mo., teaches me, or rather confirms the teachings of my neighbor, that clover is a most valuable forage plant.

THE FUTURE OF THE FUTURE. The teachers of Indiana county are holding their County Institute this week at Indiana.

THE NEW SCHOOL BUILDING AT HONZDALE has been completed, and will be ready to receive the scholars of the county.

Wade and Allison Hagar, of Becaria township, started for Lafayette College, at Easton, last week.

One hundred and eighteen provincial certificates were issued at the late examinations, and twenty applicants rejected.

Dr. George P. Hays, formerly of Washington and Jefferson College, is now pastor of the leading Presbyterian church in Denver city, Colorado.

A No. 1 man is wanted to teach the Lumber City High school. Salary, $50 per month. A good female teacher is wanted for the Primary school. Salary, $30 per month.

In the education of the young, two distinct objects need to be kept in view. One is the discipline of the mind, and the other is the cultivation of the character.

Do teachers know that it is very dishonest to agree to teach a school and then to fail to do so? It is a disgraceful thing to do.

"We insist," says the editor of the National Journal of Education, "that the people receive a great deal more for their money than they have reason to expect, from the small sum they are willing to pay the average teacher."

The following are the appointments made by the School Boards, designated and officially reported during the past week, as required by law.

Young man, be happy—hook, roller, skip, gambol and snap your joints at the nightmare of a new overcoat for next winter.

"So you're off on your vacation, are you?" said a townsman to Shuttle the other morning. "Take your family along." "No, I'm going for pleasure, that's all, and the remark would've been funny if Mrs. S. hadn't overheard it. That broke Shuttle's pleasure all up."

There is this difference between happiness and wisdom. He who thinks himself the happiest man really is so; but he who thinks himself the wisest is generally just the reverse.

The nearest approach to perfection of anything that has ever been invented is rent. Day and night it goes on all the same and never stops.

An Irish doctor says: Our whistles are accused of being fond of whistling. Well, so be it. What is more lovely than talpa walling?

The true way for a woman to drive a nail is to aim the blow square at the thumb. Then she'll avoid hitting her thumb. Anybody can do that.

THE PEOPLE who have charge of the islands of the parks, of the inclosed grounds, of the galleries, and of the various attendants. They come mysteriously out of unexpected places, like gnomes; they are all rough in manner, and generally outlandish in costume.
