THE MAIN LINE.—We are reliably informed that J. Nothing was said as to the terms or conditions of the sale—though it is to be presumed that the Company named would hardly become the purchasers except with the intention of keeping the line open.

There is an will habit sometimes indulged in by boys in solitude, often growing up with them to manbood and which, if not reformed in due time, not only beget serious obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but give rise to a suries of protracted, insidious, and devastating fleetions.

Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the nervous system shattered, feel strange and unaccomtable sensations, and vague fears in the mind. [See pages, 27, 28, 29, of Dr. K.'s book on "Self-Preservation."]

The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is unable to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak: he is dull, irresolute, and ongages oven in his sports with less energy than usual.

If he emancipate himself before the practice has done its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfruitful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his carly follies. These are considerations which should awaken the attention of all who are similarly situated.
