The weather for the last few days has been exceedingly warm. Linen apparel, fans, ice-creams, (right and left,) soda water, &c., are in extra demand.

CAMP MEETING .- A camp meeting by the Evangelical denomination will be held on land of Mr. Solomon R. Light, near Jonestown, this county commencing the 24th instant.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire at 7 o'clock, on Saturday evening, was occasioned by the burning of the roof on Focht's Brick kiln, at the east end of this Borough. The Perseverance fire company was operating at an early stage of the fire,-nothing but the frame work was

The opposition convention will be held in the Court-house next Monday. Fair play is a jewel, and we trust the members of that hody will see to it that no gouging, chizeling, or reballotting is allowed, as was the case last fall. When a man is fairly nominated stick him on the ticket, even if he is not the capillate of the alloque in this horyugh. candidate of the clique in this borough. This advice is unasked, but we are for fair play.

The people of Lebanon and vicinity

The people of Lebanon and vicinity of such noble treatment. May their lovely appearance have proved as attractive to all as to myself, and may they receive husbands good and true.

A procession was then formed and moved around the table, when all partock of a sumptuous dinwill do well to pay more attention to the security of their effects at night than has been the habit heretofore .-The Railroad has opened means of access to dishonest as well as honest as well as honest and "Hurly Burloy," were the favorities of the day, the latter receiving the palm by acclamation.—
The smaller children also greatly amused themselves, as their fancy dictated.

Whitst in the midst of our enjoyment, the "trumpot sounded" and all assembled to hear Rev. Mr.

Company (the Harrisburg Herald says.) which "supper was ready," and all sat around the taple, doing ample justice to the good things servintend to build a large and elegant deceded homeward, stopping on the way at Mr. E. pot at that place, near the Harrisburg and Lancaster Company's depot. The same paper also states that a change in the location of the Pennsylvania Canal is to made for the accommodation of the Lebanon Valley road, to enable it to form a connection at Harrisburg with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

HE TIME TABLE .-- Two passenger rains now leave and return to Lebanon daily. The morning train leaves this place at 7 o'clock, A. M., and arrives t Rending at 8.40, in time to connect vith the morning train to Philadelphia. The afternoon train leaves Lebanon at 2.15, and arrives at Reading at 5 P. M. The morning train from Reading leaves hat city at 10.20, and arrives at Lebaon at 1.18, P. M. The afternoon train eaves Reading at 6.20, and arrives at Lebanon at 8 o'clock.

It is evident that the disposition of the company is to extend every convenience possible to the people of this valley, for traveling purposes. The arrangement as now constituted suits the people of this borough excellently well, still it is imperfect for the people along parts, in order to override and subdue the professtill it is imperfect for the people along the line who wish to visit Lebanon and return home the same day. The intervening time between the arrival and departure of the cars at Lebanon is too hort to permit the transaction of busiess. The travel on the road thus far has exceeded the expectations of the

We take another example:

Do the opposition party in Swatara and other districts see how the bulk of their voters are disfranchised in their conventions? Those that give the biggest votes for the candidates at the elections, should have the biggest say in their nominations. We merely refer to this matter to show its unfairness. Harvest Home Celebration at Annville. MR. EDITOR :- It seems that the public appremin. Editor:—the seems that the public appreciate my services as a reporter for your widely circulating sheet. By special invitation (as reporter.) in company with the Perseverance Sax Horn Band, "we waited for the wagon and all took a ride" to Annyille, to attend the Harvest Home Celebration of the Union Sabbath School of that neat village arriving there are to be the statement. neat village, arriving there at about 9 o'clock, a.m.
I was happy to observe the many improvements going on, and the air of prosperity which characterises it. The men are plain, the women pretty, and crinoline does not banish corduroy from the oavements. When we arrived at the Church, the Band struck When we arrived at the Church, the Band struck up that favorite national air—"Hail Columbia," to the surprise of the "insiders," only six being aware of its presence, after which the scholars formed into procession, and preceded by the Band, marched and counter-marched through town.—The children—and here I speak of one of the peculiarities of the place—are as children should be, unadorned and simple. Their eyes sparkle with pleasure, their checks bloom with health, and their manner is freed from all affectation. In a world manner is freed from all affectation. In a word, they are children who at once draw the heart of the stranger toward them by the sweet simplicity cchood in clamorous tones through the wild woods. They were followed by a hymn from the school, after which Rev. II. S. Miller delivered an eloquent address in his usual happy style, on "Harvest Home." He very appropriately spoke of the lib-erties we onjoy and of the bountiful harvest just the boquets:-

"Through every pulse the Music stole; And hold communion with the sout; Wrung from the coyest breast the imprison'd sigh, And kindled rapture in the coldest eye." The members of the Band could well be proud nor, after which plays of all shades and grades were brought into requisition, and the manner in which the ladies and gentlemen "pitched into each others' affections" was grand to behold—in which I was "prominent in the ring!" Such as "Copenhagen," "Jogging Along," "Fox catch the Goose,"

Hiester's address in the German, which was quite THE LEBANON VALLEY RAILROAD interesting. He was followed by the Band, after at that place, near the Harrishurg Strickler's residence, whom the Band seranaded all, was now dismissed, and the little one tantly retraced their steps homeward. The Band LEBANON VALLEY R. R.—CHANGE IN had a number of private invitations, but only had sufficient time to seranade Messrs. Fink, H. Carmany and C. Carmany, who had served up the refreshments, provided expressly for the occasion. Nothing occurred to mar the pleasures of the day, and all enjoyed themselves hugely-indeed the excitement run so high at one time that on of the "fair ones" fainted during her pleasurable emotions.

The United Brothren Sabbath School also celebrated the "Harvest Home," on the same day, but as I could not be present at both places, and my friend not being along, I cannot "report their occedings." I hope, however, they also had a happy time.
We now bid our kind friends of Annville adicu,

To depress the strength of a sick man by powerful depleting medicines, or by bleeding, is withstand the combined attack of a prostrating complaint and a prostrating system of treatment. The object of Professor Holloway is to fortify and sustain the vital powers while the virus of disease is being driven out of the system, and that object is accomplished by his celebrated medicines.—Boston Journal.

White Teeth, Periumed Breath and Beautiful Complexion—can be acquired by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers." What lady or gentleman would remain under the curse of a disagreeable breath, when by using the "Balm of a Thousand Flowers," as a dentifrice, would not only render it sweet, but leave the teeth white as alabaster? Many persons do not knew their breath is bad, and the subject is so delicate, their friends will never mention it. Beware of counterfeits. Be sure each bottle is signed.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE is said to be the only sure cure for buldness and gray hair. It removes all scurf, dandruff and scrofulous cruptions from the scalp, and in a few days restores wons from the scalp, and in a few days restores gray hair to its original color and beauty. This preparation contains no coloring matter, but resultates the hair by invigorating and restoring perfect health to the scalp, thus imparting new life and vigor to the roots, and by these contains and love the color of the roots, and by these colors of the roots, and by these colors of the roots, and by these colors of the roots of the roots, and by these colors of the roots o life and vigor to the roots, and by them causing healthy fluid to flow into each separate hair.

Holloway's Pills and Ointment .- Mortification may always be prevented, by the timely use of Holloway's Ointment, and lockjaw has never been known to supervene in any case of external injury where it was used as a dressing. Its healing properties are proverbial in all parts of the world, and it is used in all the great surgical in-stitutions of Continental Europe, as the only reli-able and unfailing specific for wounds, ulcers, dropsical swellings, cancer, tumors, and eruptive maladies. The pills are prescribed by eminent medical practitioners as the most efficacious remedy for indigestion, liver complaint and disorder

Hosterren. -The surprising effects of Hostetter's Vegetable Stomach Bitters in removing bile, forcing an appetite, imparting health and tone to the system, and dissipating dyspeptic symptoms, is truly wonderful. Every nervous, debilitated, weak and amaciated person, male or female, should try it at once. One wine-glassful taken three times each day, before meals, or if the patient should be a ludy or child in a debilitated condition, half the quantity will do until sufficient strength is restored, which will be realized in a very short time, and convince the patient of the truth of the above-named happy results, which have gained for these Bitters such an enviable reputation everywhere.
