

The Corner.

THE SCHOOL-ROOM.

"In the school-room while we stay, There is work enough to do; Study, study, through the day, Keep our lessons all in view, There's no time to waste or lose, Every moment we should use; For the hours are gliding fast, Soon our school-days will be past."

"Speak not, rather than speak ill. "Sealed proposals," as the chap said when he kissed his sweetheart.

"A kiss, says an ingenious authority, is like the creation, because it is made of nothing, and is very good."

"A love-letter, however, is a 'prayer of the heart,' and should be as sacred as the secrets of the confessional."

Young ladies are like arrows, they are all in a quiver when the boys come, and can't go off without them."

All women love breeches, except Breeches of promise, and even then they are not particular if there's money in the pocket."

POTTERWELLS were ninety-eight years of age when a young lady asked him at what period of life man lost the taste of gallantry.

"Indeed," replied the old gentleman, "you must ask that question of some one older than myself."

A SMART BOY.—"Father, did you ever have another wife besides mother?" "No, my boy; but what possessed you to ask such a question?"

"Because I saw the old family Bible where you married Anna Dornay in 1835, and that is, mother for her name was Sally Smith."

WHAT is a star in music? Almost any remark one singer makes about another. Second—What is beating time? Singing so fast that time cannot keep up with you. Third—What is a rest? Going out of the choir to get some refreshments. What is a staccato movement? Leaving the choir in a huff, because dissatisfied with the leader's requirements. Fifth—What is a swell? A professor of music who pretends to know everything about the science, while he cannot conceal his own ignorance.

POWERS OF MEMORY.—Boys are sometimes endowed with remarkable memories. We know a family in this city consisting of one girl and one boy—the latter about 7 years old. They were sitting one evening around the table, engaged in telling each other how far back they could recollect. The little girl recollected when she had a "doll that cried." The boy here spoke up and said that he recollected worse than that. "How worse," chimed in half a dozen voices in a breath. "Why I recollect four weeks before I was born, and I cried all the time, for fear I'd be a gal!"

NEW FURNITURE STORE!

Dundore & Oves. HAVE just opened the finest, largest and cheapest assortment of Furniture ever offered in Lebanon. Their store is in Cumberland street, between Market and Plank road.

Their stock consists of all kinds of Parlor and Common Furniture, which they will sell lower than can be bought in Lebanon. All they ask is of persons in want of Furniture to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere.

They have on hand a large assortment of Sofas, Teal-a-lets, Lounges, Cane, Pier, Card and other Tables, What Nots, Hat Racks, &c. Also, a large and well selected stock of Cane-seats and common Chairs, Settees, Bedsteads, and a lot of Cheap Mattresses. Also, Looking Glasses, Oil, Rosewood and Mahogany—very cheap.

Yankee Carriages, Glugs and Hobby-horses, for children; and a large stock, too numerous to mention. Particular attention paid to UNDEKATING. We have provided ourselves with the FINEST IRON and Steel, and will manufacture Coffins and attend Funerals, at the shortest notice and most reasonable terms. April 29, 1887. DUNDORE & OVES.

BOOT & SHOE STORE.

Jacob Reagle. RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed his Boot and Shoe Store, to his new building, in Cumberland street, where he hopes to render the same satisfaction as heretofore to all who may favor him with their custom.

He would also return his sincere thanks for the liberal patronage afforded him since opening in business, and feeling the more encouraged by the interest manifested in his behalf by the public, he has determined to purchase new machinery, despatching business with a promptness becoming a honest mechanic.

TERMS Reasonable. Call and Examine. P. S.—Also, a number of select Limestone Door Sills, for the accommodation of building men and contractors, who would do well to call and examine. J. B. D.
