NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.
BREADTH DEPENDS ON PURE BLOOD;
BRANDRETH'S PILLS purify the Blood;
and ensure the most perfect health and vigor.
Mild operation with successful results. The peculiarly of Brandreth's Pills.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated blood, at this season, and it is for this reason that we give Breadreth's Pills, as a purgative, and as a efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities, which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure the liver complaint, dyspepsia, of appetite, pain in the head, head-ache, burn, pain in the breast-bones, sudden faintness and costiveness. In brief, Brandreth's Pills work their way to the very roots of the disease, cleansing their passage, removing every unhealthy accumulation. With the blood purified, the whole system renovated, and the functions and duty of life become a pleasure, where before they had been and weary burdens. Often when thought has relieved vomiting of the most serious character, whether from weakness or otherwise, where the retching has been attended with a single dose of Brandreth's Pills, the one cured and the patient has fallen into a sweet sleep.
When the mind cannot collect itself, when the memory fails; when it is an effort to fix the attention; when our sleep is broken and our waking hours harassed with fretfulness and irritability, Brandreth's Pills will cure
if these warnings remain unheeded, rheumatism, consumption, disease of the heart, bilious affections, jaundice, dropsies, piles, apoplexies and costiveness will suddenly present themselves. These Brandreth's Pills will have no effect, but they will do good, and they will use them at once; do not let prejudice prevent the use of this simple but potent remedy.

Brandreth's Theory of Disease.
Never extract blood. Blood is the life. By abstracting it in painful diseases you may occasion the patient's death, but remember, that the blood is the life, and lessening the power to feed, and by thus taking away nature's tools, you may prevent her from repairing the ravages of inflammation, a convert what might only have been the effect of a cold, into a chronic disease of months and years.

Brandreth's Pills accord with Nature's Remedy. Nature's remedy is to draw the impurities from the system, and to draw them out by the bowels.

Poetry.
SOMEBODY ELSE.
"Come here," cries the man, in voice of command,
To see you so tipsy—I must not be disguised—
I'll teach you, you villain, to make such a noise;
You're the head and ringleader of all the bad boys."
The boy, blubbering, explains, "It was somebody else."
Says mamma to her daughter, "I'm shocked I declare,
To see you go out with your bladders so bare,
You attract the attention of all whom we meet."
"Dear mamma, when the wind blows me in the
street,
They, no doubt think 'tis you or somebody else."
Says the wife to the husband, "I'm grieved and
surprised,
To see you so tipsy—I mean so disguised—
Pray, what do you think your neighbors will think,
When a man of your age gets stupefied with drink."
"They'll think," says the toper, "it was some-
body else."

The couple strives, with all her attractions, to win
An admirer for whom she cares not a pin.
To see you so tipsy—I must not be dis-
guised—
I'll teach you, you villain, to make such a noise;
You're the head and ringleader of all the bad boys."

surprised,
To see you so tipsy—I mean so disguised—
Pray, what do you think your neighbors will think,
When a man of your age gets stupefied with drink."
"They'll think," says the toper, "it was some-
body else."

The couple strives, with all her attractions, to win
An admirer for whom she cares not a pin.
To see you so tipsy—I must not be dis-
guised—
I'll teach you, you villain, to make such a noise;
You're the head and ringleader of all the bad boys."
The boy, blubbering, explains, "It was some-
body else."
Says mamma to her daughter, "I'm shocked I declare,
To see you go out with your bladders so bare,
You attract the attention of all whom we meet."
"Dear mamma, when the wind blows me in the
street,
They, no doubt think 'tis you or somebody else."
Says the wife to the husband, "I'm grieved and
surprised,
To see you so tipsy—I mean so disguised—
Pray, what do you think your neighbors will think,
When a man of your age gets stupefied with drink."
