HOME AFFAIRS.

We publish on the outside two thrilling passages connected with the recent disaster to the steamship Central America.

Messrs. Atkins & McAdams have just received a large and well-selected stock of boots and shoes for fall and winter wear.

Raber & Bro's have just received and are now opening a magnificent stock of Fall and Win tor Goods in their new Central Building. The public is invited to give them a call at their new head quarters. See Advertisement next week.

Messrs. Funck and Bro., at North Lebanon, have just received one of the largest and choicest selections of Fall and Winter Goods ever brought to this neighborhood. Their stock comprises Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, &c., and need only be seen to be appreciated.

There is but one passenger train now ru hing on the Lebanon Valley Railroad. It arriv at Lebanon at 12 o'clock, M., and leaves at 31 M. We understand that the train will run Hummelstown at an early day, thus leaving nine miles of staging on the route.

To Our subscribers, no doubt, already o the improved appearance of the Advertiser intend making further changes as speedily as sible, and have no doubt that when we have paper in conformity to what we contempl shall be, it will prove worthy of commence

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION! The Democracy Victorious!

General Packer ELECTED Governor by 80,000 or 40,000 Majority!

The following are majorities gathered hastily from our noon papers. Northampton 3000 for Packer. Northumberland 1500 for Packer. Perry 48 for Packer. Montour 450 for Packer. Luzerne 1500 for Packer. Lancaster city 737 for Packer.

Harrisburg 419 for Packer, a gain of Lycoming 1000 for Packer.

379. Berks 6000 for Packer. Bradford-Democratic gain of 100 on last fall, Allegheny city 450 for Wilmot, a loss of 700 on the Fremont vote, Pittsburg 225 for Wilmot, also a loss of about 700. The entire Democratic county ticket is elected in Allegheny. So in Philadelphia, which also gives about 13000 majority for Packer. The next Legislature will be democratic in much gratification to me to know that there are in both branches.

THE ELECTION.

The election in this county, yesterday, passed off peaceably and quietly. The majority for Wilmot is about 670-a majority somewhat exceeding our ex- of truth in the great contest of error. If we but pectations, yet, considering the sider persevere in our laudible effort, we will exert a matters we had to contend with during beneficial influence, and one that shall vibrate the past few days, we felicitate ourselves that it is not greater. We have kept our paper back some hours to give such re-when a man enters a profession, he by clear implication, places himself under solemn obligations to do all that he reasonably can, for the promotion of the best interests of said profession.

Resolved, That entertaining these views, we, the Teachers of Cornwall District, have met for the purpose of mutual improvement, both in the branches which we are daily called upon to teach, and in the art of teaching.

Resolved, That we feel sincerely anxious that the schools of Cornwall District shall prove highly successful during the term just opened, and we do earnestly call upon the parents in said district 1st, By sending their children to school as regdar as they possibly can.

2d, By frequently visiting the schools and seeing for themselves how their children are doing.

3d, By frequently examining their children at come and thus noting their progress and encouraging them in their studies. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the English papers of Lebanon. Passed on motion of Mr. Rupp. On motion ad-

No. 6, (Zimmerman's.) A. J. ARNOLD, Sect'y. Wa. The Firemens' Parade of Philadelphia on Monday a week, was an imposing affair. It was the largest turn-out of the firemen ever recorded numbering about 100 companies. The Perseverance Engine and Hose Company, of this Borwas well received, and is very favorably noticed in the city papers. We take the following extract from the News :- "Perseverance Engine and Hose Co., of Lebanon, numbered 26 members. Theo. Frantz, Chief Marshal. They were accompanied with a splendid band of 18 members, also belonging to the Hose Co.-44 in all-a fine looking body of men. They were equipped in grey, and the company was much admired."

For the Advertiser. TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

MR. EDITOR .- According to the appointed time the Teacher's Association met on Tuesday evening of last week, in the Academy. It is a source of humanity. It should be attended by all who favor its general welfare. In some towns literary gentlemen (and ladies too!) are engaged in conducting these Associations, by coming up to the help throughout the entire educational corpse of our Scripture informs us that "in the multitude of counsellors there is wisdom." With truth and force may this proverb be applied to persons assembled for intellectual improvement. It is by discussing our views with friends that they become clear and disperse the mists of our minds, and often baffle the thought and humble the pride of the most crudite scholar. Here then is room to improve our mental faculties. Lebanon boasts of one flourishing literary society, which has been in successful operation for nearly five years, and if we but adhere to the good old adage-"Perseverance Conquers"-we are bound to flourish in the same degree.
