

"What does Satan pay you for swearing?" said a gentleman to one whom he heard using profane language.

"He don't pay me any thing," was the reply. "Well, you work cheap; to lay aside the char acter of a gentleman, to inflict so much pain on your friends and civil people, and to risk losing your own soul (gradually rising in emphasis), and all for nothing ! You certainly do work cheapvery cheap indeed."

Experience has rendered Dr. K. a most successful practitioner in the curr of all diseases of a private nature, manhood's debility, as an impediment to marriage; ner-rous and sexual infirmities, diseases of the skin, and those arising from abuse of mercury.
TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.
There is an eril habit sometimes induged in by bors, in solitude, often growing up with them to manhood; and which, if not reformed in due time, not only begets terions obstacles to matrimonial happiness, but gives infections.
Few of those who give way to this pernicious practice are aware of the consequences, until they find the ner-vous system shattered, fiel strange and unaccountable sensations, and rague fears in the mind. [See pages, 27, 28, 29, of Dr. K.'s book on "Self-Preservation."]
The unfortunate thus affected becomes feeble, is una-ble to labor with accustomed vigor, or to apply his mind to study; his step is tardy and weak; he is duil, irrisolute, and eugages even in his sports with less ener-gy than usual.
If he emancipate bimself before the practice has dong its worst, and enter matrimony, his marriage is unfirti-ful, and his sense tells him that this is caused by his early follies.. These are iconsiderations which should awaken the atterful of all. No are similarly situated. REMEMBER.
If we hop laces himself under Dr. KINKELIN'S treat-ment, may religiously confide in his honor as a genti-ma, and rely upon the assurance, that the secrets of Dr. K.'s patkents will never the disclosed.
