

Lebanon Advertiser.

TERMS, $1.50 A YEAR. LEBANON, PA., OCTOBER 28, 1887.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Mr. Jacob Reif's farm, in North Lebanon township, containing 127 acres, was sold on Monday, at Adam Phillips, for $50,735 per acre.

One of the firm of Swartz & Bro., is now in the city buying new goods. They will be opened the beginning of next week.

Mr. Roberts, the "American" candidate for Senator in this district, received 563 votes, a pretty good poll considering the adverse circumstances with which they contended.

THE ADVERTISEMENTS.—The following are the official returns of the votes on the amendments to the Constitution, in Lebanon county:

Table with 4 columns: For, Against, Total. Rows for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th amendments.

The man found last week in Monroe Forge dam, in Bethel Township, turns out to be Thomas Dehney, a son of Jacob Dehney, who resides near the Forge. Almost eight days before he was found, he left home and informed his parents that he was going up to Penn's Valley, Centre county. Nothing had been heard from him until found in the dam.

RENTS MUST COME DOWN.—Yes, fellow-citizens, rents must come down. The high rates of the fresh times of 1856 cannot long co-exist with the levelling tendencies of the revolution of 1857. Rents must come down—real estates must come down—fast horses must come down—fast young men must come down from their fast horses, and stretch their legs by a little wholesome walking.

For the Advertiser. JOHNSBURG, October 21, 1887. Mr. ENRON—I perceive that some one under the signature of "Observer," very ill-naturedly and unmanfully, takes exception to my charge, last week, of how the election was conducted here. I will not reply in the same strain, because it is not pertinent to the subject. Why did not "Observer" deny my charge, or even one of them—Simply, because, he knew they were true. Let me here remark, in parenthesis, that "Observer" signs himself thus very incorrectly. Why don't he observe the election laws, and learn that they require the polls to be closed at 7 o'clock. Did he not induce the election officers to keep them open, and receive votes, at least 10 minutes after that hour, because, as he said, there was "still some voting?" This "Observer" personally, and after he has answered it, I shall propose something further for his explanation. I charged, and it cannot be denied, that two more votes were in our box than appeared on the register; that two names were afterwards added to the register to make it tally with the votes. I also charge that one man voted who was only five days in the district. Also, that another man voted who resided but two months in the place, and that it was not known whether he resided six months in the state, or even in an American city, or a subject of her Majesty, the Queen of Great Britain. Another man, whose family was known to reside in York county, was also voted, and has already left the place. It strikes me that if it was found necessary and lawful to question Democrats as sharply as some were questioned, the same would be equally requisite all round. I note those things to direct the attention of the proper authorities to them. The purity of the elections is of vital importance to the freedom of our people and the perpetuity of our union, and that is what I contend for; nor shall the bluster of any one intimidate me and prevent me from speaking my plain sense as I think proper.

BY OUR "LOCAL REPORTER." The evenings are getting long, and our literary societies are filling up. We would advise all our young men to "fall in" and give them a trial, at least.

We learn that a regular stage dance came off at—no matter where—last week. They had a "high" time barring the chap who threw the cayenne pepper on the floor "where the glowing hours were chased with flying feet." He had to "git out."

IN A BAD WAY.—The young lady whose parents came home and trailed on the pavement, coming from a protracted meeting a few evenings ago—'Poor creature—hope she may have better success on her next tour.

Much complaint is made by the farmers against fruit thieves at present prowling through the orchards. "A little more grape from a Sharp's Rifle," would no doubt have a serious effect upon the trespassers, if detected!

THE PRESBYTERIAN BAND have again procured the services of, and are daily receiving instructions from their very able teacher, Prof. Rowbotham. This band, it is contended on all hands, has made extraordinary good progress since its organization, and through the exertions of their indefatigable instructor, Prof. Rowbotham, and their persevering leader, Mr. Stanley, it has already acquired a wide-spread reputation.

CORN HARVEST.—During the past few weeks our friends in the "rural districts" have been very busy in harvesting corn and housing the crop. We learn that owing to the large yield "huskings" are unusually numerous. They are a "great institution" in this county, and a large amount of fun is realized by attending one where the feminine gender is well represented.

The following "eloquent" lines, uttered by an "outsider" a few evenings since, are respectfully dedicated to our young lady friends. Read them, and if you do not pity the sorrows of the young man, run down to live and die old maid: "I wish I was a turtle dove, A sitting on your knee; I'd kiss your smiling lips, And not stop there!"

THANKSGIVING.—Gov. Pollock has issued his proclamation for a day of Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania, and appointed Thursday, November 26th. The Governor of Maryland has appointed the same day, upon which the N. Y. Times pertinently remarks that "doubtless we ought to give thanks at all times. But in the present posture of affairs it seems to us that a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer would be a more appropriate recognition of the Divine discipline; and, indeed, we argue like Mr. Carlyle, that 'we all deserve to be hung in chains, those who are living in idleness ought to give thanks!'"

DRAWN OF A MEMBER.—Mr. J. B. Backhouse, a Republican member of the last House of Representatives, and re-elected, died at his residence in Ohio township, Allegheny county, on Friday last.

AT Chicago, the retail merchants, on account of the scarcity of silver change, are issuing checks, payable in goods, for fractions of a dollar.

Look at the Returns!

"Judge Lupton, of Bradford county, says a good male team would haul all the Paeker man in Bradford county out of its limits. Bradford will give Wilmot six thousand majority—Courier before the Election.

Look at the returns, to see how the soothsayer's prediction is fulfilled. In about six months a good male team will be sufficient to haul all the Republicans out of the State.

The work on the East Pennsylvania Railroad, between Reading and Allentown, has not been suspended, as reported last week. It is still going on, notwithstanding the financial difficulties which have compelled the suspension of nearly all similar improvements. The officers of the company and the contractors deserve public gratitude for their energy and perseverance, which thus gives employment to the hundreds of laboring men, at the approach of winter, when otherwise they would probably be out of employment, and themselves and families suffer for the want of the necessities of life.

The reported suspension of the work on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, is also untrue. At a meeting of the Board of Directors on Wednesday last, it was resolved to push the work through to Harrisburg by the 1st of January next, at which time, it is asserted, the cars will run from Reading to Harrisburg. In about two weeks the cars will run to the Swatara Bridge, thus leaving but eight miles of staging. This is good news to the people of this valley, and is certain the Directors and Contractors have the good wishes of our citizens that their laudable undertaking may be crowned with success.

Proposed Issue of Small Notes. HARRISBURG, Oct. 24. A large meeting of citizens was held this evening at the court house, to request the Town Council to issue small notes for the convenience of business men in making change. Judge Dock presided, and Messrs. Geo. Boyger and Jno. Wallinger were appointed secretaries. A committee was appointed to confer with the Town Council on the subject, and the workmen generally are in favor of the project.

Our announcement last week, that Alex. Ramsey was elected Governor of Minnesota, was premature. He is defeated, and Sibley the Democrat is elected by about 2000 majority.

This Minnesota has also wheeled into the Democratic ranks. Chase, republican, is re-elected Governor of Ohio by about 2000 majority. What a falling-off was there, my countrymen, from last fall's opposition majority! The Legislature is Democratic. In Iowa the result for Governor is yet doubtful, but the Democrats have secured the Legislature.

Joseph F. Ferry, a real estate agent in New York, and the present bail of Mrs. Cunningham, has been arrested in that city on the charge of having stolen a watch valued at $1000, which was found on his person. He was committed for fitting out an expedition for the purpose of determining that point. It could be done at a comparatively trifling cost, and not only give satisfaction to the immediately interested, but also to the community at large.

DEPUTY HUSBAND.—In Utah, they have a way of appointing deputy husbands to look after matters and things when the genuine article has gone from home. We find the following notice of this singular practise in one of our exchanges: "When a married man is called by conference to a foreign mission, he has the privilege, as they call it, before leaving of leaving some one to take the care of his estate, goods, and what ever he may possess, to provide for and defend the family, and become the pretence husband of the wife. The ostensible reason for the arrangement, is to prevent the husband (from suffering any loss) during his absence on missionary labors since the greatness of his future kingdom depends upon the number of children he has here. Carrying out the idea, the wife is handed over to a deputy husband, who maintains his position in the family until the husband returns."

PAVING STONES.—There is an old story in the East of a man journeying who met a dack and drank and a dack. "Who are you?" said the traveler, according to the proverb. "I am the Plague," it replied. "And where are you going?" rejoined the traveler. "I am going to Damascus to kill three thousand human beings," said the specter. Two months afterwards the man returning met the same apparition at the same point. False spirit, it said, "why dost thou deal with me in lies? Thou declarest thou were going to slay three thousand at Damascus, and lo! thou hast slain thirty thousand." "Friend," replied the plague, "be not over hasty in thy judgments; I killed, indeed, but my three thousand; I fear killed the rest."

A FURRY INCIDENT.—Owing to the embarrassment of the Vermont Central Railroad, in the running of the trains is sometimes attended with great difficulty, and no little credit is due to the managers for keeping them moving. North Wrentham is a wood and watering station, but unfortunately what wood is in the sheds is under attachment. To procure more and store it there would be subject to the same process. But the engine must have wood, and when it arrived from Blackstone this morning, a load was waiting, and was hastily thrown on to the tender without being cut. To have stopped at that tender mercies of the engineers, the one brought on by the engine, and it was wood-sawyer was taken on board the engine, and he plied his saw vigorously all the way in to Boston. The sight was a comical one. The wrenthamer who was a passenger had undertaken to feed was almost too voracious for him, but he acquitted himself of his task like a good nurse, and when the monster halted, the self-satisfied hiss of the escape steam showed that he had not suffered.

THE DROWN THING.—On Tuesday last, when the tanks were giving up the ghost in all directions, our quondam correspondent, "Ribelion," was consulted as a lawyer, by a bank officer, to suggest some way by which the bank could hold over to the following day, without confessing, as its sister institutions had done, that it could not pay its debts. "Put black cards on your doors," said Ribelion, "and post up a notice, 'Closed in consequence of death in the family.'"—N. Y. Tribune.

THE HEMLOCK.—Gov. Johnson, of Tennessee, reports the purchase by the State of the Hermitage and its tender to the Federal government.

In case the tender is not accepted, the Governor recommends that the property be retained as a residence for future Governor of the State.

PHYSICIAN.—It is told of Gen. Zachary Taylor, that when Major Bliss brought him Santa Anna's despatch, proposing that the American army should surrender without further ceremony, the General, who at that moment was busy writing a private letter on his camp chest, replied, without so much as looking from his work, "Tell him to go to—!" "reiterated the General, "tellingly; "put it in proper diplomatic phrase, and all that sort of thing according to your own taste—but that is my answer."

DEATH OF A DEIST.—Kentucky papers announce the death of Henry Holleman, for many years the publisher of a newspaper in Frankfort, and public printer of the State, and connected with the most stirring political events of the State in former days. He once fought a bloody and fatal duel, and was himself a cripple for life from it. This duel took place five-and-thirty years ago. It grew out of a militia training. Holleman, who was commander of a company, was followed, while on duty, by a favorite dog. A subordinate officer, who was offended by the dog's antics, drew his sword and cut the innocent animal in twain. Holleman remarked that whoever would perpetrate such an act was a coward and a scoundrel. A challenge to mortal combat was the consequence. It was accepted, and the parties met on the State-house, at Frankfort, Kentucky, and fought desperately for two hours and upwards; and the antagonist of Holleman was killed, the latter escaped with desperate wounds. Among those who witnessed the duel were Henry Clay, John J. Crittenden and Jesse Bledsoe—the latter, then one of the most brilliant and distinguished orators of Kentucky. Holleman was arraigned, after a long and exciting trial, was acquitted. Mr. Clay and Mr. Crittenden exposed the cause of Holleman.

Possibility of Finding the Central America. Various conjectures have been advanced as to the possibility of discovering the exact position of the wreck of the steamer Central America. This problem I propose to solve by the following process: The position of the wreck having been already ascertained within five miles, and the soundings at that locality averaging from 200 to 300 fathoms, I propose to suggest a means by which her exact position may be discovered, viz, by the use of a powerful submarine electric lantern, in connection with a submarine telescope. The submarine electric lantern is an instrument very well known, and in extended use, the light of which can be increased to any intensity, and by which objects may be discovered at the depth of two miles. The submarine telescope is an ordinary telescope made water-tight, and screwed through the bottom of the vessel enabling persons, with the aid of the electric light, to discover objects as far as the electric light can reflect. By the use of these two simple instruments the wreck of the Central America can, without doubt, be discovered; and in order to satisfy ourselves that this inflated ship is not in a depth from which she can be raised, I would suggest the propriety of fitting out an expedition for the purpose of determining that point. It could be done at a comparatively trifling cost, and not only give satisfaction to the immediately interested, but also to the community at large.
