Our Landlord Rise has put up the best and most substantial pavement in this goodly borough. Try it-stand upon it, and you will feel (as one of our neighbors said) like standing during election times upon the Democratic platform—there is something really substantial and useful to support vou. Episcopal Services.—The Episcopalians of this borough, for the first time, had regular services, on Sunday a week, at the house of Mr. Samuel Herman. Mr. Able, an ordained Deacon of the Church, officiated. There will be services at the same place, Sunday, November 22, at 2 o'clock.

A Visit .- Our friend M. LEOB, Esq., of old lang syne, paid us a visit last week. He is now editor and proprietor of the Doylestown Morgenstern, and we are pleased to learn that he is a man of family, in excellent health, and making money. He looks younger than he did 12 years ago. In polities he is a Democrat at heart, and a Republican to the world.

Teachers' Institute.-We perceive by a notice in another column that the Teachers of this coun. ty intend organizing a Teachers' Institute. It is desirable that every teacher in the county should | pletely taken by surprise. It must be the garden attend, and lend a helping hand. Several distinguished gentlemen from abroad, including the State Superintendent, will be present.

At an election for Directors of the Lebanon Bank, on Monday last, the following gentlemen were elected. viz:-Dr. John W. Gloninger, William Lehman, Joel Goodhart, Dr. Henry Schneck, Jacob Witmer, Jr., Dr. George Reidenaur, Dr. D. B. Marshall, Samuel Blistone, Henry Heilman, Jr., Henry Heilman, (Jones'n.) Geo. F. Miller, Michael Kreider, (C. S.) J. B. Hiester.

THE LEBANON VALLEY BANK still continues a safe depository for those who have money for which they have no immediate use. Each of the gentlemen connected with it is responsible for the institution to the full amount of his private fortune. No one need want a better guarantee of safety than this. Lebanon, Oct. 7, 57-4t. Possessing such penetrating and healing virtues, their success must be inevitable. We know it. We can read it in the now glowing features of the once pale and prostrated patient; we can read it in the friendly grasp of the father's hand, and in the mother's warm tears of joy, as they behold their darling child santched from the clutches of death by their powerful agency; we can read it in the young man's gayety, and in the old man's vigor and "God bless you;" we can read it in the husband's and wife's gratitute, and in the children's prattle; we can read it away out upon the bosom of the ocean, in the prightly tread and invigorated system of the poor mariner. Yes, and we sometimes fancy we can almost read it far up in it he blue canopy of heaven, in words of living fire—Disease's vanourismen—rue triumen is complete. WE call the attention of allold and young to this won derful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with aluxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the nataral fluids; and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair, will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call, then, upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely; the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, over he without it.—Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

State of Illinois, Carlisle, June 27, '55.

I bave used Prof. O. J. Wood's flair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming as I thought prematurely gray, but by the use of the Restorative, it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt, permanently so.
Sidner Breese, Ex-Senator United States.

From the Washington Star. I
Among the many preparations now in use for the restoring spreserving and beautifying the hair, there are none that we can recommend with more confidence than Prof. Wood's fluir Restorative, now in general use throut the States. This preparation possesses the most invigorating qualities, and never fails in producing the most lappy results when applied according to directions. We refer our readers to the advertisement for a few of the innumerable certificates which have been sent by parties, who have been henefitted by it, and feel happy in giving testimony to its wonderful effects produced on them.

Paor. O. J. Woon:—Allow me to attest the virtues and magic powers of your Hair Restorative. Three months since, being exceedingly gray. I purchased and soon commenced to use, two bottles; and it soon began to tell, in restoring the silver locks to their antive color, and thair which was before dry and harsh, and falling off, now became soft and glossy, and it coased falling; the dandruff disappeared, and the scalp lock all the disagreeable itching, so annoying before, and now, I not only look but feel young again.
