THE LEBANON ADVERTISER.---A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

The 'Corner.

Wa. It has been said that a chattering little soul in a large body is like a swallow in a barnthe twitter takes up more room than the bird.

22 The happiest man in the world is the man with just wealth enough to keep him in spirits, and just children enough to make him industri ous.

The following sentiment was given at Frecent railroad festival in Cleveland, Ohio: "Our Mothers-the only faithful tenders who never mis. placed a switch."

20 Did you over go to a military ball, inquired a lively girl of old soldier .---'No, my dear,' replied the old -Revolutionary; In those days the military balls came to us."

The following postscript to a letter received by an editor out west gives unquestionable evildence of the great drought prevailing there :--"Lager, is vory scarce, and the dust very deep. The inhabitants here use whiskey as a beverage, the mater being used for agricultural purposes."

M. A jester in the Court of Francis I. complained that a great lord threatened to murder him.

""If he does so," said the king, "Inwill hang him in five minutes after." "I wish your Majesty would hang him five minutes before," said the jester. Mr. President, I arise to get up and am not backwards to come forward in the cause of education, for had it not been for education I would have been as ignorant as you are, Mr. President.'

So said an eloquent declaimer at a recent educational assembly.

A doctor up town gave the following prescription for a sick lady, a few days since. "A new bonnet, a Cashmere shawl and a pair of gaiter boots!" The lady recovered immediately. Shortly after, the Sheriff proscribed for her hus-·band two executions and a small red flag. He will not recover. "Can a body eat with these things ?" asks an elderly lady who is handling a pair of artificial plates in a dental office, and admiring the fluency with which the dentist describes them. -"My dear madam," responds the dentist, "mas stication can be performed by them with a facility scarcely excelled by Nature herself." "Yes, I know," replied the female ; "but can a body eat with 'em?"

Was. "You have no wife, I believe," said Mr. Blank to his neighbor.

"No, Sir," was the reply, "I never was married." "Ah," said Mr. Blank, "you are a happy dog!" A short time after, Mr. Blank, in addressing a married man, said, "You have a wife, Sir ?"

"Yes, sir, a wife and three children." "Indeed," said Mr. Blank, "you are a happy man !" "Why, Mr. Blank," said one of the company,

"your remarks to the unmarried and the married seem to conflict somewhat!" "Not at all-not at all, sir. There is a differ-once in my statement. Please be more observing, sir. I said the man who had no wife was a happy dog, and the man who had a wife was a happy man. Nothing conflicting at all. I know what I say, sir!"

Some time ago one of the Cunard steamers got on the rocks near Halifax on her homeward passage, and put into that port for repairs. An examination showed that she was still seaworthy, and the Captain resolved to proceed at once for Liverpool. During a conversation some
