A KISS AT THE DOOR. The clock struck ten; I seized my hat And bade good night to all, Except the lass I courted, who Came with me through the hall:

She stood within the portal, And I gazed upon her charms And, oh! I longed that moment To clasp her in my arms.

She spoke about the moon and stars, How clear and bright they shone ; I said I thought the crops would fail Unless we had rain soon.

Then I edged a little closer, Put my arms around her waist, And gazed upon those rosy lips, I longed so much to tasta

Said I, "my dearest Katlo, I'll never rest contented-If I leave to-night without a kiss, I'll surely grow demented.

Then up she turned her rosy mouth, And everything was handy; Quick from her lips I seized a kiss-Oh, Yankee Doodlo Dandy

Then off for home I started, I could no longer stay; With a light heart and breeches thin, I whistled all the way.

Hence learn this truth, ye bashful youth, Who seek for wedded bliss, No lass will leve until you move woman killed five hundred with her washing implement, in one day, on the bank of the river .-Rather tough.

Jar Unsophisticated boy-"Mamma, papa is getting very rich, isn't he?"

Mamma-"I don't know; why, child?" Boy-"Cause he gives me so much money .-Almost every morning, after breakfast, when Sally is sweeping the parlor, he gives me a sixpence to go out and play."

Sally received short notice to quit.

Good INTEREST. -A Chicago banker asked a young lady of that city, what kind of money she liked best.

"Matri-money" she replied. "What interest does it bring," asked the inquisitive banker. "If properly invested, it will double the original stock every two years," she portly replied.

A NEW ORLEANS FASHION .- The New Orleans True Delta says the following pithy speech was made after the successful launching of a steamer the other day, by one of the boss superintendents to his workmen :

"My men, I have made the little arrangements, and you can all go down to Kriss's and take a drink ; then you can go up to the St. Charles and 'take a drink; then you can go down to Kriss's and take a drink : then you can go up to the St. Charles and take a drink; then you can go down to Kriss's and get a little something to drink; then you can go up to the St. Charles and get something warm: then you can go to Kriss's and the St. Charles and get some-some whiskey and then you can-[Immense applause.]
