He lays all the blame on Anderson, whom he charges with concocting and perpetrating the murders. He says that Anderson killed the two women while he remained on the outside to keep watch. This story is not credited, however as it is protty certain the women were killed almost simultaneously, and that no one man could position Richards now has to make admissions in regard to the bloody deed, that he will eventually make a clean breast of it, and reveal the "hole transaction."

Exciting News from Kansas. Kansas advices to the 22d have been received. The constitution with the slavery provision has been carried by a large majority. It was renorted at Lawrence that letters had been received by the Republicans that a body of men had gone to Lecompton to seize the territorial suns; also. the pro-slavery settlers on the Shawnee reservation and carry the war into Missouri. Gen. Denver had assumed the Governorship, and issued an address exhorting the people to appeal to the ballot box for the settlement of their diffien lties.

Kansas dates to the 24th inst., received by the St. Louis Democrat, says that civil war is raging in Bourdon county. Several conflicts have occurin Boardon county. Several conflicts have occur-red between the free-State and pro-slavery men, and a number of prisoners have been taken on both sides. The United States marshal, with a force of eighty men, demanded the surrendor of the free-State party, but the demand was answer-ed by a volley of musket balls. The fire was returned, and the fight lasted for-by upon the shoulders of the heretofore fortunate.

The fire was returned, and the fight lasted for an hour, "Wen the pro-slavery men retreated, with the loss of one killed and two mortally wounded. The marshal was dangerously injured. Gen. Lane intrenched at Sugar Mount, and was determined to fight the dragoons if attacked. A battle was regarded as inevitable.

Exciting debates had occurred in the Lawrence free-State convention. The committee on resolutions had presented three reports .. The majority report disapproves of voting for State officers; the first majority report recommends the nomination of a full State weket, and the second. fecon-mends a participation in the election for the per-
