The same of the sa proper to charge all our present financial and commercial distress to the Ranks and their man-*zgement. However much they may have contri-buted, other causes have operated still more direcly and powerfully to produce these results; and among them first in importance and inflaence is the present system of low duties, in connection with the warehousing system, a lopted as the policy of the Government in 1846. The abandon ment of the protective policy, as embedied in the Tariff act of 1842, was resisted by Pennsylvania with a unanimity almost unparalleled in her history. Her representatives in both branches of the National Congress strenuously apposed the repeal of that act. The evils under which we are now suffering were predicted, as dronsequence of such repeal. But other counsels prevailed, the act was repealed, and the industry of the country exposed to a ruinous competition with the cheap labor of foreign nations. The disastrous effects of the repeal, were postpoued by the operation of causes well understood by every intelligent citi-zen. Famine abroad produced an unprecedented demand for our breadstuffs, and the gold of California, although it may have added to the excitement of our progress, and contributed its full share in producing existing financial and commercial embarrasement, millions supplied the means of paying the overwhelming balances against us on our foreign importations. Under the present system of the whole the present system of imports over exports has been beyond the most extravagant wants of the country. They have been enormous and ruinous—destructive of demestic industry, and involving the home manufacturer and home labor, in one common ruin. We have imported more than we could pay for, and much more than we needed. Pennsylv abounds in iron ore. Iron and its manufactures are justly regarded as important elements of her material wealth; and from her abundance, if properly fostered and protected by a wise national policy, could supply the markets of the world; and yet, since the passage of the act of 1846, we have imported of iron and steel and their manufactures, more than two hundred millions of dollars in value; paid for in gold or our bonds and stocks, now held by foreign expitalists—the interest on which but adds to the burdens imposed upon us by our foreign indebtedness. The same is true of many other important branches of home industry. home industry. Many millions in value of cotton and woolen goods have, during the same period, been imported, that should have been made in our own workshops, should have been woven on American, and not on British, French or German

As an example of the practical working of the zystem, official documents exhibit the fact, that during the past four years the imports of foreign merchandise, exceeded our exports one hundred and eighty four millions two thousand seven hunand sixty eight dollars; and as a consequence, the drain of the precious metals was correspondingly great. The amount of specie sent out of the county during that period, was two hundred and thir-teen millions three hundred and sixty four thou-sand three hundred and eighty four dollars—specie imported twenty six millions nine hundred and twenty seven thousand four hundred and twentyseven dollars; leaving a balance against us on especie account of one hundred and cighty six mil-lender account of one hundred and cighty six mil-lender four hundred and thirty six thousand nine hundred and fifty seven dollars. This depleting process, aggravated by excessive importations, unsettled the currency and induced an inflated paper circulation, resulting in bank suspensions and financial embarrassment. But the evil does not end here. An inflated paper currency, by cheapening the price of money, increases in this country the cost of production, and thus, whilst the American Manufacturer is exposed, under a system of low duties, to a ruinous competition with the cheap labor of Europe, he is paid for his goods in a currency less valuable than that paid to his foreign competitor. As a necessary result the home fabric is driven from the market, and the home manufacturer ruined. The operation of these causes, stimulated by low duties, is sufficient to destroy the industrial energies of any i people.
With these facts before us, it is no matter of surprise that our mills, factories and furnaces have been closed and thousands of honest laborers thrown but of employment; that commerce has scarcely an existence, that bankruptcy and ruin are around us, and our general prosperity paralised. To avoid these disasters, to waich we have been periodically exposed, reform not only in our system of banking, but in our revenue laws, become indispensable.

If the principle of the act of '42 had been preserved that the contract of the contract o

ed-even if its rate of duties had been reduced, our specie by milions would not have gone into for-cign coners to build up and sustain the foreign manufacturer; home industry would be prosper-ous, and the cry "we want work," issuing from a thousand lips, in our large cities and manufactur-ing districts, would not now be heard; nor would a foreign debt of nearly five hundred millions of dollars exist to startle and alarm us. That system that practically prefers FOREIGN to HOME la--that keeps our workshops in Europe, instead of building and supporting them here—that takes our gold to pay the wages of the British laborer, whilst our own are without employment and with-out bread—that fills the country with foreign merchandise to the exclusion of the home fabric, that age the Erit Elizal upon the road through our from districts and by our rolling mills, whilst they are silent and deserted, and that invites to speculation and extravagance, is at war with every true American interest and should be at once

A period of low duties has always been marked by excessive importations—large exports of specie --overtrading—bank expansions and suspensions, and financial and commercial revulsions. Under the protective policy these peculiar and startling characteristics of free trade have all been wanting. The history of the country establishes these facts. A well regulated tariff, adjusted to protect the productive industry of the country, is not only the true policy of the government, but is a better regulator of the currency, and a more certain security against bank expansions, than any system of pains and penalties yet devised for the control of banking institutions, or the operations of capital. To this we should return. Pennsylvania is yet true to her ancient and long cherish-ed convictions of its propriety and necessity.— She may have been misled. Political and partican pressure may have forced her from her the position. This was herenisfortune, not her fault. Sho sees and feels the wrong, and with an empha-is, intensified by her injuries, will demand ro-dress; protection for herself and the great indus-

The apparation of the school from the State Department by the act of the last session, was a just tribute to the importance and value of our Common School system. The great educational after sto of the State, the care and guardishship of the intellectual, social and moral improvement of the youth of the Commenwealth, should occupy a prominent and independent positions among the Department of the Commonwealth, this development of her material wealth, and the advancement of her politico-reconomical interests, have received from the Government, the material wealth, and the advancement of her politico-reconomical interests, have received from the Government of the manner provided in that section. This duly with its wondrous activities—its constantly unfolding cuteries, and its infinite superiority to the material and physical, claim a still higher consideration, and received from the imputation of selfishness. I cannot from the Representatives of the people, a m-re honored recognition.

physical calm a still higher consideration, and receive from the Representatives of the people, a more honored recognition.

As an independent Department, greater efficiency will be given to the system—a more direct and inmediate supervision will be secured—the details of its operation more carefully observed—the deficiences discovered—its errors corrected—the accomplishment of its moble purposes and objects rendered nicro certain, and the system itself saved from the dangerous and debasing influence of political excitement, and partizan perjudice.

The County Superincede next, to-lad by experience, has realized the just expectations of the friends of the measure and may now be regarded as a permanent and indispensible part of the system. When committed to competent men, it has accomplished a noble work in promoting the success and usefulness of our Common Schools; and wherever the duties of the office have been faithfully performed, the character of the schools has been elevated, their number and the number of scholars increased, and the candidance and encouragement of the public secured. In the hands of incompetent men, these results have not been for the public secured. In the hands of incompetent men, these results have not been officially on the contrary, opposition has been provoked, and the sause of Common School education retarded. This office should not be committed to any but men thoroughly qualited by education and experience for the preformance of its ardious and responsible duties; and if the School Directors of any county, in disregard of their obligations, from opposition either to the system of the office, should rest upon them, and not upon the law authorizing the appointment. The defects of the system when clearly established should be premptly corrected; but change is not always reform; and innovation, induced by selfishness or prejudice, nay endanger its permanent school destroy its efficiency.

The act of the 20th day of May. 1857, providing for the due training of teachers for the Common Schools of the State, by encouraging the establishment of Normal Schools within the Districts designated in the law, has received the cordinal approbation of all inferested in the success of our Common Schools. The passage of that are inaugurated a new era in the history of Common School education in Pennsylvania. It is a movement in the right direction; full of encouragement and hope for the greater perfection and usefulness of the system. Large and en hustastic meetings of the friends of education have been held, in many of the districts, to promote the establishment of Normal Schools, as contemplated by the act; and liberal sums of mency have been subscribed establishment of Normal Schools, as contemplated by the act; and liberal sums of mency have been subscribed to gener this dest-able object. A noble work has been commenced; and sustained by individual entorprise and liberality—encouraged by the State, and vindicated by its own intrinsic merit, it must go on until State Normal Schools, in number and efficiency; equal to the supply of well trained teachers, shall become the just pride and beast of Pennsylvain; pair its strength, or mar the beauty and hirmony of its proportions.

Based as our institutions are on the will of the people—dependent for preservation on their virtue and intelligence—knowledge with us should occupy the high position to which it is so pre-caincutly entitled. Knowledge, founded upon the pure principles of etrain truth, is the crowning glory of the citizen—the safeguard and defence of the State. Education, full and free to all, is the boom we ask for the children of the Commoewealth—it is the duty, paramount to all others, the States ewes to her citizens. The aid of the Commoewealth—it is the duty, paramount to all others, the States ewes to her citizens. The aid of the Commoewealth—it is the duty, paramount to all others, the States ewes to be citizens. The aid of the Commoewealth should be liberally bestowed. The subject, in all its relations, is warraly commended to the generous care and patronage of the Legislature.

Legislature.

Legislature, whilst properly encouraging the developement of the material wealth of the State, should reconize the still higher obligation to improve the social, intellectual and moral condition of the leople. The amelloration fuhrman suffering, the reformation of the errors and the correction of vaniful all citizens each.

lioration filiman suffering, the reformation of the er-ring, and the correction of youthful viciousness, are ob-jects that deserve the attention of the philanthropists and statesmen. To secure these results, the educational, charitable undreformatory institutions of the Common-wealth should be fortered and encouraged by liberal weight should be lottered and encouraged by liberal legishition.

The reports of the State Lunaric Hospital at HarrisLurg and the Western Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, at Pittsburg, will be laid before you, and will exhibit in detail their operations for the past year.
These institutions, in their objects and results merit These institutions, in their objects and results filerit and should receive our warnest approbation. The condition of no class of suffering humanity appals with more thrilling power to our sympathies, than that of the insane. Ignorant of the frightful makely that oppresses them, shrouded in the fearful gloom of mental darkness, and shut out from the social joys of home and friends, the aid of the hencyoleth and benefactions of the Commonwealth should be liberally and cheerfully given to the meaning the first of the commonwealth should be liberally and cheerfully given to the meaning the first of the following the first of the first of Whilst almost all our sister States have provided residences for the accommodation of their Chief Magistrates, feansylvanis for reasons not creditable to her as the "Ecystone State," has refused to incur the expense necessary for the erection of such a building. The failure to provide, in this manner, for his accommodation, subjects the Governor to much inconvenience, oftentimes vexuations and amonging. A suitable house cannot always be obtained here, and infittat event he is compelied to be shut up in the rooms of a hotel, or crowded with his family into some small and obscure dwelling, alike unfitted for domestic confort, or the exhibition of the amenities and courtesses of social life. It should be remembered that the G verner of the Commonwealth is regarded as the representative of the people, of ally as well as politically, and therefore he should be enabled by every proper appliance, to represent truly their social virtues and character. This he cannot do, to the extent desired on the very meagre shary he receives; and I do not hesitate to affirm that no one occupying this office can, without drawing largely on his private income, exercise the hospitalities or maintain the dignity properly associated with the position. I have avoided all useless expenditures, and yet the salary received, has been wholly insufficient to defray the expenses necessarily incurred.—This should not be permitted. its own intrinsic merit, it must go on until State Normal Schools, in number and efficiency; qual to the supply of well trained teachers, skall become the just pride and boast of Peunsylvain.

The organic structure of our system is as perfect, perhaps, as human legislation can make it; but it needs the competent and thoroughly trained teacher to give it great reliably and efficiency, and secure the full accomplishment of this purposes of its creation. The teacher, the properly educated, the well-trained, the scientific teacher, is the great want of the system. We need the reachers almost non-venients of mere physical organization or autiquated routine, to direct and coursel, but he intellectual energies of the young, they may be taught to think- and how to think—to investigate, and know for themselves; and thus beginded by the properties.

This deficency can only be supplied by State Normal Schools, they have been added to the supplied by State Normal Schools for the education of teachers. To them we must hook. The future is full of hope. Mich has already leen done to provide for their establishment lind support. In connection, with himorable individual effort, more legislative encouragement may be sequined. It should be given clearly and principle to the constitution, we state they be not be and as fidencing efforts of the teachers the selves, much good has been accomplished in educating and Parinty knowled and saffenning efforts of the teachers the selves, much good has been accomplished in the roughly and principle teachers. What ever of merit, or demerit may attach to my administration, whatever may be the opin ions entertained of my conduct of the affairs of State, I can at least claim from my fellow citizens, with a full consciousness of its right, the award of good intention, and will, enjoy in my retirement, the 'proud satisfaction of knowing that no act of mine, or of my administration, in tendency or fact, injured or corrupted the public morals, retarded the prosperity, or turnished the fame of my native State. I will surrender to my successor the cares and responsibilities of the office I now hold with greater cheerful ness than I assumed them; and will return, without a murmer, to the society and companionship of those, who can approve with out selfishness, and censure only at the bidding of truth and friendship. To the judgement of impartial history I commit my administration and its acts, without a fear of the result; and when time shall have soft. ened the asperity of partizan, feeling-healed the bitterness of disappointment and corrected the errors of prejudice truth will sustain the judgment and justice approve Great Crowds-Low Prices. NE morning, last week, as a friend and myself, were leisurely walking out Market street, and on arriving near the corner of Guillord street, our attention was attracted to a large crowd of Ladies—and nearly all of whom were provided with large market baskets, and others with satchels hanging to their arms, and were evidently intent upon the same object. Upon inquiry we found that in the Manston House, on the corner of Guilford and Market streets, is located the extensive Dry Goods, Grocery, and Queensware Store of our polite and attable friends, EUNCIA & BRO., who have just opened as large stock of Fall Goods, and that the great crowd of Ladies were their regular customers, who may be seen daily at their counters, purchasing their goods. All we saw were evidently satisfied with their purchases; were loud in the praises of the excellent quality of their stock, and all were of the unanimous opinion that FUNCIA & BRO. sell the best qualities, at lower pirices, than any of their competitors. So our advice would be to you, one and all, both great and small, to give Rusua & Buo, a call, and they both great and small, to give Funox & Bro. a call, and they will surely try to please you.

SOMETHING WORTH KNOWNG.—By using Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, gray hair can be permaently restored to its original color. The subjoined certificate from Johnson & Stone, Gardiner, Maine, is but one of the many instances that are daily coming to our knowledge, of its wonderful effects. It is no longer problematical, but a self-evident truth, as hundreds in our community can testify.

GARDINER, Maine, June 22, 1855.

DEAR SR:—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it I was a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case, was one of the worst kind.

DEAR Six.—Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflamination, dandruff, and a constant itching tendency with which I have been troubled from childhood; and has also' restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original bolog. Thave used no other article with anything like the pleasure and profit.

Wood's Hair Dye.—This admirable article is rapidly improving the hair. No article of a similar kind, now before the public, chjoys a better reputation as a restorative and invigorating hair tonic. Its peculiar chemical qualities have abeneficial effect upon the growth and character of the hair, giving a silky and glossy texture to that which was formerly of a coayse and dry nature. It has, also, we understand, a tendency to preserve the youthful color and appearance of the fiair, and destroying or counteracting two stitudes of the sair, and destroying or counteracting to the stitude of the latic of age. With such recommendations in its favor, we hardly perceive how any lady or gentleman should be without so valuable an adjunct to their toilet.

HAIR INVIGUEATOR AND TONIC.

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friend in New Bedford thus.—

To your inquiries, I would reply, that when I first commenced using Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for, the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose, and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used and the second bottle, (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color, light brown, and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the cond wish to ask.
