One evening last week Miss Prather was married at her father's house in Clark county, Indiana, and had got on horsebeck to accompany the bridegroom to his home, when her horse was frightened by a party of young men coming to charivari the marriage company, and, starting suddenly, threw her off and broke her nock.

Mr. Two elderly maiden ladies, by the name of Beard, who have fived as if in a state of great, if not abject poverty, recently died in Massachusetts, within a few days of each other, and since their decease it has been ascertained that they were in possession of over five thousand dollars' worth of property.

20 - It is now the fashion in Kontucky of the "old folks" to refuse their consent to all would-besons-in-law. This is not because they have any real objections to the gent, but because they are too stingy to give a wedding party. They know that a runaway match will be the next thing to a refusal.

We made a note in December last of a beautiful and extraordinary Meteor, whose flight we witnessed in the heavens. We now perceive in the English papers an account of a meteor seen in England on the same evening. It was of a blood red color, of great brilliancy, and traversed the boarens from north to west, which was about the appearance and direction of flight of the one we saw. Its appearance terrified a great many people in England.

At their Old Tricks.

It is remembered distinctly by the people of Pennsylvania that Govi' Johnston a few months before the expiration of his term of office issued "a flaming proclamation, announcing the "discharge and final extinguishment" of several hundred thousand dollars of the state debt, by the operations of his wonderful sinking fund. In his electioneering speeches the Governor boasted "I have paid off so and so much of the state debt." Notwithstanding all this, Gov. Bigler was scarcoly warm in his seat, when he was obliged to sign a bill creating a loan of $400,000 for the payment of debts created and left unpaid by the administration of Gov. Johnston. These are facts which cannot be denied. They left unpaid all their ob- off well. ligations that could be avoided, placing the money in the Sinking Fund for the purpose of deveiving and blindfolding the people for electioneering purposes.

eering purposes. By reference to Gov. Fulldat's Message, which we publish to day, it will be seen that he boasts in the same highfalliftin strain of his wonderful achievements in the payment of the State, Debt. We should feel highly delighted if it were a boun-fide payment, but we very much fear that it also nue payment, but we very much tear that it also is facilitous. The initededents of the opposition strengthen our these. If one of the first acts of Gov. Packer's ministration will not be the raising of mean to pay of the debt created and place of Wm. Stovar, Esq., resigned. left unpaid by Gov. Pollock we shall be gratified and disappointed. In connection with the boasts of Gov. Pollock. and his reduction of the State Debt it must also be remembered that the purchase money realized from the sale of the Main Line of the public works is a considerable item. He makes no mention of that. A few weeks will show how Gov. Pollock's apples swim !

Pennsylvania Legislature.

Both Houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature met on Tuesday ... William H. Welsh, (Democrat) was elected Speaker on the 1st ballot. Gon. Wm. II. Miller, of Harrisburg, was elected Chief Clerk. The other officers are as follows :- Ass't Clerk, F. M. Hutchinson, of Philada.; Transcribers, J. Simpson Africa, of Huntingdon, Jesse B.
