This establishment is now supplied with an extensive assortment of JOB TYPE, which will be increased as the patronugo demands. It can now turn our PRINTING severy description, in a neat and expeditious manner and on very reasonable term Pamphlets, Checks, Business Cards, Handbills,

Circulars, Labels,
Bill Headings, Blanks,
Programmes, Bills of Fare,
Invitations, Tickets, &c., &c.

The friends of the establishment, and the public gene Agricultural Ware-house, Nos. 21 k 23 South Sixth Street, near the State House,
PHILADE HILA

TEN FLOORS of this spacion building, erected expressly for the Proprietors' trade are stored with Seeds and Implements of interest to Farmers and Gardeners.

Sixty Fars Established.—The subscribers desire to call the attention of every one interested in Farming and Gardening, their well-selected stock of Afficultival Intelements with Midchinery, year Variety of Hortcultural Tools,

Warrantetifarden and Flower Seeds,
The Agrultural Implements sold by us are mostly inanufacted at our Steam Works, Bristol, Pa.

Having Jed up this establishment without regard to expense, wit the most complete machinery, for the manufacture of trious kinds of Agreements in Junements. AB-HANDHILLS Printed at an hours notice.

See Deeps of all kinds. Common and Judgment Bonds. School, Justices. Constables and other Blanks, printed correctly and neatly on the best paper, constantly kept for sale at this office, at prices "to suit the times."

*, * Subscription price of the LEBANON ADVERTISER, One Dollar and a Half a Year. Address, W.M. Breslin, Lebanon, Pa.

Music.

COORDEONS, Flutenas, Flutes, Fifes, Music Boxes, Innjos, Temborinocs, Violin and Guitar Strings, &c. Yory cheap, for sale at REITZENSTEIN & BRO.

The Groceries A T the Centre Buildings of RABER & BRO'S, you will find very cheap, and a full assortment.

Lebanon, Oct. 21, 1857.

SECOND ARRIVAL. OF FALL and WINTER GOODS, which will be sol cheap for cash at Lebanon, Nov. 25, 1857.

Presents for the Holidays. TUST received a new supply of Watches, Jewelry, and other Fancy Articles, suitable for Christmas Presents, and for sale at low prices to suit the times, by Dec. 16, 1857. REITZENSTEIN & BRO.

I MPORTANT INFORMATION, by which much suffering in families may be avoided, sent to married men and those contemplating marriage.* Address, enclosing four stamps, DR. G. W. ADDISCOMBE, Brooklyn, N. Y. Dec. 16, '57,—6m.

For Cheap Cloth, Cassimer CATINETT, and all kind of Woolen Goods, call at the Centre Building of RABER & BRO'S, where you will find every variety of Goods for Gentlemen & Boys' Wear, in kind for the season and in price to suit the times. Lebanon, Oct. 21, 1867.

Revolvers. Colly's Atten's aid other Revolvers, single and double barrel Pistols, find Pocket Knives, Port Monaies Purses in great variety and sold at the lowest figure at, ILETZENSTEIN & BROS.

Dec. 10, 1857. Cheap Jewelry and Fancy Store.

Feed-Feed!

DERSONS din want of Feed for Cows or Pigs, can obtain it daily at the Browery of the subscriber, in Cumberland street, West of Plank Road. Price, from 1214 to 25 cents & bester.

Dec. 9, 1867. — Im.

HENRY HARTMAN.

Importing Announcement:

To all persons a ted with Sexual Diseases, such as Spermatorrhose minal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhose, Gete, Syphilite Viceof Onanism. or Self-Abuse, &c. The Howard Assition, in view of the awful destruction of human life, sed by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised u the unfortunate victime of such diseases by Quick's; we directed their, constiting Surgeon, as a Charitable, worthy of their name, to give Medical Advice Grato all persons thus afflicted, who apply by letter, with servicion of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of l &c.,) and in all cases of extreme poverty and suffering 'urnish Medicines free of charge.

The Howard associati is a benevolent Institution, established by special en ment, for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted he virulent and Epidemic Diseases." It has now a sus of means, which the Directors have voted to expen advertising the above notice. It is needless to add they Association commands the highest Medical skill of suc, and will furnish the most approved modern treatm?

Just Published, by the sociation, a Report on Sper materfluce, or Seminal kness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abush other diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the consult urgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a scaled cavel free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge, on the recipit of two stamps for post free of charge. Fancy Dress Goods. T RAHER & BRO'S NEW BUILDING you will find a splendid assortment of all kinds of Fancy Goods—Shawis, Capes, Scarfs, Collars, and in short, every variety of Goods for a complete Dress—very cheap.

All kinds of Donestic Goods—Muslins are very cheap—Chock, Ticking, Sheeting, Blankets, &c., &c. & Please call and see for yourselves. [Lebanon, Oct. 21, '57.

Henry Hartman's Brewery LAGER BEER SALCON,

LAGEM BEEM SALGON,
IN Cumborland Street, west of the Plank Road, Lobanon. Schweitzer and Limberger Cheese, Holland Herring, wholesale and Rotall. A large room in the second story is free for meetings, societies, &c.
Lebanon, Dec. 9, 1857.

Ready-made Clothing! CUCH AS OYERCOATS, Sack Coats, Frock Coats, Pants and Vests, all colors and all prices, just received and offered at such prices as have already induced many to purchase. We defy competition on Ready-made Clothing. For chear Coats, Pants and Vests, all at HRNRY & STINE'S Stone.

Call and Sec! CARPETS! Carpets! Oil Cloths! Oil Cloths! Baskets!
Baskets! Carpet Chain! Carpet Chain! Bed Feathers!
Hed Feathers! Corn Brooms! Gorn Brooms! Band Boxes!
and a variety of other Goods, received and daily receiving by Howard & Co.'s Express, which will be sold cheap by Labanon, Oct. 28, 768.

HENRY & STINE.

Notice to Creditors. AL PERSONS indebted to the firm of SHIRK & TICE,
A or to SAMUEL U. SHIRK, by Note, Hook. Account, or otherwise, are requested to make early payment to Anos
II. Bougurra, Esq., at his Office, in Lobaron, and save costs.

Lebanon, Oct. 7, '57.

Attorneys for Creditors.

For Salc.

36,000 DARREL STAVES, which can be bought on reasonable terms from the undersigned.

ERIFABETH C. WEIDMAN,
ROBERT W. COLEMAN,
JOHN W. ULRICH,
Admin'rs of the Estate of Jacob B. Weidman, dec'd.

Dec. 2, 1857.

New Barber Shop. CEORGE W. DALY, MARKET STREET, opposite the Leb-Ganon Bank, would respectfully inform the Citizens of Lebanon and vicinity, that he still continues his first-class Shaving & Hair Dressing Saloon, and is prepared to do businoss in the neatest and best style, and would solicit all to give him a trial. Lebanon, Oct. 21, 1887.

REMOVAL.

DAM RISE has removed his HAT & CAP STORE, to his New Brick Building, (opposite his late stand,) in Cumberland Street, midway between flurket street, and the Court House. He extends a cordial invitation to all his friends, and the public, to give him a call in his new location. He has just opened his NEW GOODS, bought in anticipation of his Removal and the Christmas Holidays.

Lebanors Dec. 20, 1857.

Bargains! Bargains! THE undersigned having purchased at Sheriff's sale, the entire stock of ChOTHING of L. B. Oppenheimer, now offer for sale, at their store, one door south of Henry & Stine's store, in Market street, in the borough of Leabhon, all kinds of Heady-made Full, Winter, and Summer Clothing. Their assortment is extensive, and of the finest and best material, and well made, and as they are anxious to sell out speedily, they are prepared to sell at LOW RATES. All in want of Clothing WH-do well to give them a call before purchasing observers.

JACOB HECHT, BROS. & Co. Lebanon, November 11, 1857.—if.

A GREAT PANIC; GOODS SELLING WONDERFULLY

CHEDA E. THE undersigned are now opening a very large assortment of FALL and WINTER GOODS, among which are Cloths, Cassimeres, Vosting, Ready-nikle Clothing, and all kinds Men's and Boys wear.

ALSO, all kinds of Goods for Ladies' wear, such as black and fancy silk, Delaines, French Merind, Coberg and plaid (icods, Shawis of all descriptions, Bonnet Trimmings, &c. Also, a large stock of GROCERIES & QUEENSWARE.

Also, a large stock of GROCERIES & QUEENSWARE.

Also, a Carlotte and the Beautiful Comments of the Comme

The Clothing Store & Tail-oring Establishment of

OF INS. ESTAIDES PROVENT OF

ABER & BRO'S you will now find in their New BuildR ing, a few doors East of their former place, or tine 2d
Story, where you can find all kinds of CLOTHING—Conts,
Over-Conts, Sacks, Round Jackots, Pants, Vests; Boys' Ciothing, all very cheap. You can dress yourself from top to too at such low prices as will suit the times.

22. All orders for TALLORING will be promptly attended, to.

ASP All kinds of Country Product taken in exchange for Ciothing and Tailofing.

[Lebanon, Oct. 21, 57]

$12 000 Worth Store Goods AT VERY LOW PRICES

THE UNDERSIGNED, having purchased of Sheriff's INIE UNDERSIGNED, having purations of STORE Sale, the large and complete assortiment of STORE (UODS of SHIRK & TICE, at a very low price, and being desirous to close up the concern at an early day, will retail the stock at lower prices than Goods have ever been sold in Lebanon, and much cheaper than the same kind of Goods can be beingth at Wholesale in the cities. The original cost of the GOODS was $12,000, and the stock is large, complete and well-assorted.

3. Such an opportunity to obtain CHEAP GOODS is rarely offered. Dity GOODS, GROCERTES and QUEENS-WARE in great quantities. rarely offered. DRY GOODS, through a war was a quantities. Nores of all solvent Banks taken in exchabge for Goods. Lebanon, Oct. 7, 27. ABRAHAM SHIRK.

Prices Reduced To suit the Times.

To suit the Times.

CONSIDERING the present aspect of the times, we have adopted the billowing resolutions:
RESOLVED, in the we will sell all kinds, of Clothing at very reduced prices so as a cive, overybody a chanco to buy what he wants for the winter.
RESOLVED, to sell all kinds of Furnishing Goods such as Undergarments, Sooks, Shirts, Gioves, Hundkerchiefs, to, etc., cheaper than the cheapest.
RESOLVED, to give overybody the worth of their money in whatever they want to buy in the lime of Ready-made Clothing.
RESOLVED, to return our thanks to the people of Lebanon county, for the liberal patternse harstofore bestowed upon us.

RESULZENSTEIN & BRO.

November 75, 1867.A

ant in its taste and odor, but immediate in its action.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

Is prepared directly according to the Rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry, with the greatest accuracy and Chemisal Rhowledge and care devoted in its combination. See Professor Dewees' Valuable Works on the practice of Physic, and most of the late standard Works of Medicine.

One hundred dollars will be paid to any Physician who can prove that the medicine eyer injured a patient; and the testimony of thousands can be produced to prove that it does great good. Cases of from one week to thirteen years standing have been effected. The mass of teen years standing have been effected. The mass of voluntary Testimony in possession of the Proprietor, vouching its virtues and curative powers, is immense, embracing names well known to SCIENCE AND FAME.

100,000 Bottles Have Been Sold and not a single instance of a failure has been reported! Personally appeared before me, an Alderman of the City of Philadelphia, II. T. HELMBOLD, Chemist, who being daily sworn does say, that his preparation contains being daily sworn does say, that his preparation contains no Narcotic, Mercury, or injurious Drug, but are purely vegetable.

H.T. HELMBOLD, sole manufacturer.

WM. P. HIBBARD, Alderman.

Price $1 per Bottle, or six for $5. Startling Disclosures. Startling Disclosures.

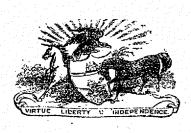

TUST PUBLISHED, a very interesting and useful book, disclosing the mysteries of the himan frame, with Munerous Hantrons, containing curious and interest. Numerous Hantrons, containing curious and interest. Numerous Hantrons, containing curious and interest. Numerous Hantrons, and interest with the Marriage State, designed only for Females.

All young married, persons, and those about to be married, will find in this book information of grest, value to them. All such persons should lose no time in procuring this book. It will be sent on receipt of one delign, securely mailed hid post-paid, to any address in the Unions, securely mailed hid post-paid, to any address in the Unions, ed. Persons wishing this valuable work will please cut off the address below, and paste to on an envolong spiciosing one dollar, and they will receive the book of the return mail.

JOS: Y. MATSON, Publish.

Box 1544, T. O., New York.

Lebanon

Advertiser.

VOL. 9---NO. 30.

LANDRETHS

the most complete machinery, for the man-rious kinds of Apricothrial Implements, we tred to supply all articles in this line fully perior, to any thing of the kind ever offer-

Lareth's Warranted Garden Seeds, Have been but the public for upwards of sixty years; their wide-spied popularity, and the constantly increas-ing demand in year to year, is the best evidence of their superiority of all other.

Cottans an open and sevent, which is the world.

D. LANDRETH & SON,
Oct. 7, 757-3m. 68. 21 & 23 South Sixth Street, Philada.

F YOU want BUY PRESENTS for the Holidays, call at WALL ROEDEL'S BOOKSTORE.

HOWAR ASSOCIATION

Imported Announcement!

GEO, FAIRCHILD, Mcty.

3 Copies for 1 year,

Chains 5000 Gold Lockets

are also received.

CALL and examine WALE ROBDEL'S stock of Holiday Books before puting elsewhere.

The Gold Prize.

The New Tils Hustrated by Golden Prize,

ONE of the largest and best try papers of the day.

An imperial quarto, conta, eight pages, or forty columns of choice reading meanly week.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION TOLLARS A YEAR:
And a fift will be presented is subscriber immediately on the receipt of the substrain subscriber immediately on the receipt of the substrain on money.

Each subscriber will be entitled a gift worth from $1 to $300,00 in $3 to $300,00 in $3 Conics for I year.

1 Copies for 1 year,
10 " 1" 15,000
READ THE LIST OF TS. 15,000
1 Package containing
10 Gold Patent Lever English 100, in Gold.
Cased Watches " 100 Each.
To " Gold Watches, 100 " 100 "

5000 Gold Lockers
Gold Rings—Ear Drops—Broaches
Breast Pins—Studs—Cuff Pins
Sfeeve Brittons, &c., &c., 1 teach.
Immediately on receipt of the subscripton book, opposite a number, and the gift conding with that number, will be forwarded to his address by

Helmbold's Genuine Prepaon

For diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel Weaknesses, Obstructions, Secret direases male Complaints, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, Arising from Excesses and Imprudencies in life moving all Improper Discharges from the Bladency, or Sexual Organs, whether existing in Male or Female,

From whatever cause they may have original And no Matter of How Long Stand

Joy to the Afflicted!!

question to another.

These symptoms if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Fatuity, and EPILEPTIC FITS—in one of which the partient may expire. Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases—IN-SANITY AND CONSUMPTION? The records of the Insanc Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The Countenance is actually fooded and quitted destitute—nother Mirth or Grief ever visits it: should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

Law sullen sounds his grief beguiled.

Deblity is most terrible! and has brought thousands upon thousand to untimely graves, thus blasting the ambition of many noble youths. It can be cured by the use of this INFALLIBLE REMEDY!

If you are suffering with .ny of the above distressing If you are suffering with .ny of the above distressing of this INFALLIBLE REMEDY!

If you are suffering with any of the above distressing aliments, the FLUID EXTRACT DUCHU will cure you. Try it and be convinced of its efficacy.

Beware of Quack Nostrums and Quack Doctors, who falsely boast of abilities and references. Citizens know and avoid them, and save long suffering. Money, and Exposure, by sending or calling for a bottle of this Popular and specific Remedy.

It allays all pain and inflammation, is perfectly pleasant in its taste and door, but immediate in its action.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu

Is prepared directly according to the Rules of Pharmacy

Price $1 per Bottle, or six for $5, De.

livered to any Address,

Accompanied by rollable and responsible Certificates from rofessors of Modical Collèges, Clergymen and others.

Prepared and sold by H. T. HELMROLD, Practical and Analytical Chemist.

No. 52 South Tenth St. below Chestnut Assembly Buildings, Phila.

A. To be had of Dr. George Ross, D. S. Raber, and of all Druggists and Dealers throughout the United States, Tanadas and British Provinces.

Canadas and British Provinces.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

Ask for Helmbold's-take no other.

Cures Guaranteed.

cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and re all the symptoms, among which will be foun Indisposition

Extract Buchu.

Highly Concentrated Compound

Cased Watches 000

15 " " " " " 75

25 " Gold Watches 0

100 " " " " 0

200 Ladies " " 0

200 Sliver Hunting Cased Watches 1

500 Gold Vest and Guard and Folicities 1

nail or express, post paid.
Address BECKET & COMPANY,
48 and 49 Moffat's Building

Specimen Copies sent free.

10 Itils of all the Banks taken that the States from whence they are sent.

Dec

LEBANON, PA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1858.

Bargains! Bargains! Good's bought at Sheriff's Sale to be sold
AT AND BELOW COST!

THE subscriber would respectfully inform the citizens of Lebanon and vicinity, that he has purchased, at Sheriff's Sale, the entire stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, &c., late of J. M. Pfleger & Brother, at a very low price. He will retail the stock cheaper than any Goods have ever been sold herotofore in Lebanon, for the purpose of closing out the concern. The opportunity is a good one, and should now be embraced by all desirons of Buying cheap Goods for the coming winter. The stock is a full one—complete in all its departments.

BP Give us a call and see our bargains.

Lebanon, Oct. 14, '57.

GEORGE PFLEGER.

BULL'S RECTO MISTURA,

FOR PILES, TETTER, RINGWORM NP for any Eruption or Excoriation of the Skin, whether on the head, face, arms or other parts of the body. Old ulcers or sores, and pimples on the face, may be speedily cured by the use of the Recto Mistura. To those especially that are suffering from the Piles, we offer a sure remedy.

From Rev. Mr. Enterline, Pastor German Church, Cor. From Rev. Mr. Enterline, Pastor German Church, Cor. Conway and Sharp streets:
For the benefit of the afflicted, I feel it a duty to state what a blessing medicine. Innown by the name of "10ff's Recto Mistin." has been to Sine. I have been afflicted with the Piles for eight years, during which time I tried my own remedies, as a practitioner, and many others, but without success. Itaving heard of Mr. Bull's Pile Remedy, I tried it; and though I used but one half-bottle, I can say that I am perfectly cured. I also used it in a violent case of Tetter, which extended over the whole body, and in less than two weeks it disappeared, and the skin became clean and smooth. I strictly adhered to the directions.

SAMUEL EXTERLINE.
Sold, Wholessic and Retail. by D. S. Raber, Druggist, Lebanon, Pa., sole agent for Lebanon county.

Of all diseases, the great, first cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws. SUFFER NOT:

CURE IS GUARANTEED SECRET DISEASES,

SECRET DISEASES,

Selfabuse, Nerpus Debility, Strictures, Gleets, Gravel. Diafefes, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Arkles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Fres, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs. Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, and all Diseases arising from a derangement of the Sexual Organs, such as Nervous Trembling. Toss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dinness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulfiess, Pyspepsia. Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face! Pain in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities and all improper discharges from both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obetiface the case, Recovers is Chrains, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines are pleasant without odor, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During twenty years of practice, I have rescued from the Jaws of Death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and most speedy cure. Secret Diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of Consumption, Scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. As a permanent cure is scarcely ever ignerates the amount of the disease falling into the hands of infompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the discases but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid Consumption.

But should the disease and the treatment not cause cases but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid Consumption.

But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in Scrofula, Tetter, Ulcers, Fruptions and other affections of the Skin, Eyes, Throat and Lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

SELF ABUSE is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of Methres through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the Nervous System, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental decangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marring, society, business, and all carthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body or mind, predisposed to Consumption and a train of evils more to be dreated than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of Self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abundonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, rigorous health.

The afflicted are cantioned against the use of Patent.

nate victims of Self Abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

The afflieted are cautioned against the use of Patent Medicines, for there are so many ingenious snares in the columns of the public prints to eatch and rob the unwary sufferers, that millions have their constitutions ruined by the vile compounds of quack doctors, or the equally poisonous nostrums vended as "Patent Medicines." I have carefully analyzed many of the so-called Patent Medicines, and find that nearly all of them contain Corrosive Sublimate, which is one of the strongest preparations of mercury and a deadly poison, which, instead of curing the disease, disables the system for life.

Three-fourths of the patent nostrums now in use are put up by unprincipled and ignorant persons who do not understand even the alphabet of the Marrana Medica, and are equally as destitute of any knowledge of the human system, having one object only in view, and that to make money regardless of consequences.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by twenty years of vactice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most rewarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to make part of the United States or Canadas, by patients dismanufecting their symptoms by letter. Business corpondence strictly confidential. Address 9. SUMMERVILLE, M. D., Le No. 1131 Filbert St., [Old No. 199.] below twelfth, Philadelia.

all the symptoms, among which will be found summandisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Discussion, Wakefulness, Horror of Discussion, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Lauguor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormou Appetite, with Dyspeptic symptoms, Hot Hands, Finshness of the Biody, Dryness of the skin, Pallit Coulitenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary suffusion and Loss of sight; Want of Mttendon, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such Patients than solitude, and Nothing they more Dread for Ear of Themselves no Repose of manner, no carnestness, ito Speculation, but a furried transition from one question to another.

Morse's Indian Root Pills NAUPS SETS A EXCERTE BEACOUS THIS MORSE, the inventor of Monse's Indian Root Pills is spent the greater part of his life in traveling, visited Europe, Asia, and Africa, as well as North—has spent three years among the Indians of our bountry—it was in this way that the Indian Root first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man by the fact that all diseases arise from Impurity ind—that our strongth, health and life depended that fluid:

I finid:

arrious passages become clogged, and do not harmony with the different functions of the deless its action, becomes thick, corrupted thus causing all pains, sickness and distress our strength is exhausted, our health we thus causing all pains, sickness and distress; our strength is exhabated, our health we of and if nature is not assisted in throwing at humors, the blood will become choked it, and thus our light of life will forever be upw important then that we should keep the upw important then that we should keep the upw important then that we should keep the upw in at we have it in our power to put a medicatch, namely, Morse's Indian Root Fills, and manely, Morse's Indian Root Fills, and put in Nature's garden, for the health of this ease do man. One of the roots from breature made is a Sudorific, which opens it will be an an assiste nature in throwing out the life in an adaptive in the second is a sudorific, which opens the right of the strength of the passage kneetoraut, that opens and unclogs has it ways, and thus, in a soothing manuer, from a throwing off palegm, and other huge, will by copiour spitting. The third is a hus escass and double strength to the kidle from be they draw large amounts of important are the which is then thrown out bountiful thartic ad in any other way. The fourth les while mapanies the other properties of brities of a purifying the blood; the coarting are thus which cannot pass by the other y the bo and conveyed off in great quantity in the or which that Dr. Morse's Indian wir that Dr. Morse's Indiau he stomach, but become uni-of find way to every part, and lanse the system from all im-body, which is the blood, be-compositionally all sidenases, and distressed when sick, and is to distressed when sick, and they do not get a medicine os parts, and which will open of fease to be cast out; hence, then let matter is lodged, and as; tierally overflowing with attempting disagreeable for ill take its ill that

BY EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH: CHAPTER I.

THE ASTROLOGER'S PREDICTION.

Reading, a few weeks since, one of De Quincey's papers—"Three Memorable Murders,"—recalled to my mind the strange circumstances of one of the most raysterious doinestic dramas that ever tax ed the ingenuity of man, or required the flight of ed the ingenuity of man, or required the light of time to develop.

The locality of our story lies amid one of the wildest and most picture que regions of the Old Dominion, where the head waters of the Rappahannock wash the base of the Blue Ridge.

The precise spot—Crossland—is a sublime and beautiful scene, where two forest-crowned ranges of manufactors cross each other at obline angles. f mountains cross each other at oblique angles At the intersecting point of these ridges nestles little hamlet, named, from its elevated position

Altamont.
At the period at which our story opens the four estates, in the four angles of the irregular mountain cross, were owned as follows:
The eastern farm, called Piodmont, was the life property of Madame Auderly, a Virginian lady of the old school.

The western and most ratuable estate was the inheritance of Honora Paris, an orphan heiress, grand-daughter and ward at Madame Anderly.

The nothern and smallest one, called, from being the deepest vale of the four—Hawe's Hole—was the property of old Hugh Hawe, a widower of valoury temper presimence. gloomy temper, parsimonous habits, and almost fabulous wealth.

The southern form—named, from the extravagant cost of the elegant mansion-house, cluborate out-buildings, and highly ornamented grounds, which had absorbed the means of the late owner, "Farquier's Folly"—was the heavenly mortgaged patrimony of Godfrey Farquier Dulanie, the grand patrinony of Godfrey Farquier Dulinie, the grand sou of Hugh Hawe, and now a young aspirant for legal honors at the University of Virginia.

But little benefit to the heir was to be hoped from the inheritance of his father's burthened property. In the first place, old Hugh Hawe had bought up in his own name all the claims against the estate of Farquier's Felly—doubtless to prevent a foreelestic and to save the records:

vent a forcelesure, and to save the property for his grandson.

But, unhappity, Godfrey had mortally offended the despotic old man by declining an agricultural life, and persisting in the study of a profession

To make this punishment more bitter to his grandson, the old man had taken into favor his beebew, Dr. Henry Hawe, whom he had estabished near himself at Farquier's Folly.

At this time, the disinherited heir, having finished a term at the University; had come down to spend a part of his vacation in his native place.

It was upon the Saturday evening of his arrival that he found the little hotel, and, indeed, the whole village of Altamont, in a great state of a second control of the second vhole village of Altamont, in a great state of ex-

-a course that had resulted in his own disinheri eitement, from the fact that the celebrated heir-ess, Miss Honora Paule, had just stopped there, and passed through on her way home. Those who had been so happy as to catch a glimpse of her face, vied with each other in praise of her many charms, while these who had not, listened with corrects and lacked format. listened with engerness, and looked forward to in-demnifying themselves by seeing her at church the next morning.

The next day, Godfrey Dulanie attended church, where he saw and fell in love with the most beautiful and the saw and fell in love with the most beautiful and love in the saw and fell in love with the saw and fell in love with the head away here. where he saw and ferrin love with the most benutiful and intellectual-looking girl he had ever beheld. From the cheapness and simplicity of her attire, he supposed her to be some poor dependent of Madame Auderly's, in whose pew she sat—Godfrey was completely captivated, and he resolved. ed at once to woo, and, if possible, win this love-y being for his wife, poor girl though she was.— He was glad she was poor, because she could for that reason be more easily won. But on accom-panying Mr. Willoughby, the clergyman, and his panying Mr. Mylloughby, the clergyman, and his brother-in-law, Ernest Heine, home after church, what was his astonishment and dismay at being introduced to the supposed "poor girl," whom he found to be no other than the celebrated Miss flourar Paule, the greatest heiress and belle, as well as the best and noblest girl, in the State of Virginia. She greated him cordisity, and in a few minutes the company were busily engaged in few minutes the company were busily engaged in conversation. The topic of "capital punishment" having been started, Godfrey turned to Honora,

"I take an especial personal interest in his capital punishment abolished-Miss Paule, de you believe in astrology?"

Honora started, fixed her eyes intently upon the questioner, and then withdrawing them an

"Sir, why did you ask me if I believe in astrology?"
"Because, Miss Paule, I was about to relate for your amusément a prediction that was made con-your amusement a prediction that was made concerning myself, by a professor of that black art."

"A prediction;" exclaimed Mrs. Willoughby drawing near, with eager interest.

"Yes, madam," replied Mr. Dulanie, smiling,
"a prediction which, if I believed, would cortainly dispose me to favor the abolishment of the death penalty. Three years since, while I was sojourning for a short time in the city of Richmond, on my way to the University, I chanced to hear of the Egyptian Dervis, Achbad, who was at that time creating quite a sensation in the city His wonderful reputation was the theme of every o'Idleness and curiosity combined to lead me to his rooms. He required a night to east my horoscope. He demanded, and I gave him, the day, and hour of my birth, and then I took leave, with the promise by return in the morning. The next day I went-" "Well?" questioned Honora, carnestly.

"Good Heaven! But—the details?"

"It prophesied four remarkable events, the first of which has already come to pass." "And that was-?"

"And that was—f"
"The loss of my patrimonial estate?"
"Singular coincidence!" interrupted Mr. Willoughby, as he arose and joined his wife and brother in law at the other end of the room. "I thought so when the prophecy was fulfilled," eplied Godfrey.
"And the other three events?" softly inquired

Honora. "The other three events, if they follow as predicted must happen within the next two years, or before I reach my twenty-fifth anniversary.—The first of these is to be the unexpected inheritance of vast wealth.' Upon hearing this, a bright smile played around the lips of Honora, and barrished the clouds from her brow. She waited a few minutes for him to proceed, but finding that he continued silent, she

"Well, Mr. Dulanie, go on! what was the third predicted event?"
"Do you command me to inform you?"

"No, sir; I beg you, of your courtesy, to do so." "Very well," he said, dropping his voice to a low undertone, "It was to be my marriage with the woman I should worship."

A deep vivid blush supplainted the bright smile that quivered over Honora's variable face. There was a panse, broken at length by her voice, as she gently inquired—
"And the fourth?"

The answer came reluctantly, and in tones so low as to meet only her ear...
"The fourth prediction was that before my twen ty fifth birth-day I should perish on the scaffold."

A low cry broke from the lips of Honora as her hands flew up and covered her face. After a min-ute or two she dropped them, and looking him stendily in the face, said with quiet firmness—
"You doubtless wonder at my emotion. Now hear mc. On the autumn following summer in hear me. On the autumn following summer in which that prediction was made to you, I was in Baltiffere with my grandmother, and with Mrs. Willoughby, who was then Miss Heine. Curiosity took us to the rooms of the Egyptian, who was then practicing in that city. And after some such preparations as he had used in your case, he cast my horoscope and read my future. It was this, the before we was the highdry I belief her. that before my twentieth birthday, I should be a bride, but never a wife, for that the fatal form of the scaffold arose between the nuptial benediction and the bidal chamber. Such were the words of the prophecy." She spoke with a solemnity that scemed to overshadow every other feeling.

CHAPTER II. THE SYBIL'S CIRCLE.
The next day, Honora informed her grandmoth. adame Anderly, of Godfrey's presence in the borhood, and the old lady sent her only er, Colonel Shannon, to fetch him to Pied-Today to the control of the control

ers, for several days, with Madame Au-he old lady, in his honor, at once sent

THE BRIDE OF AN EVENING. | When ten was over, the company adjourned to the drawing-room, where, soon lifer the guests invited for the eyening joined them.

First came Father O'Louherty, the parish priest of St. Andrew's Church, at Crossland.

The next arrivals were Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby, and Mr. Hein.

Timmediately after them came Dr. and Mrs. Henry Hawe—the doctor, a man of great fashion and elogance, the lady, a delicate, pensive woman with a sort of sad, moonlight face, beaming softly out between her fleecy locks of jet.

And, last of all, to the astonishment of every—

And, just of all, to the astonishment of everybody, came old Hugh Hawe, who had been invited as a matter of courtesy, and was not in the least degree expected to make his appearance.

He came not alone. On his arm he brought a young girl, univited, but whom, with grave courtesy, he presented to his hostess as Agnes Darke, the daughter of a deceased friend, and now his ward, who had arrived only that morning, and whom, presuming on Madam Auderly's well-known kindness, he had ventured to present to Madame Auderly, a reader of faces, was certainly attracted towards her; and, after a little talk, that confirmed her first favorable impressions, she that confirmed her first favorable impressions, she took the hand of the orphan girl, and conducted her to the group former by the Misses Auderly, Mr. Hite, Mr. Dulanie, and Honora Paulo.

Under the auspices of Miss. Rose Auderly, they were just about to form what she called a Sybil's Circle, for which purpose, Messrs. Heine and Sterne were dispatched to bring forward a round table. Miss Rose went to a cabinet to seek the "Sybil's Leaves," which she presently produced. All then seated themselves around the table.

A dead silence reigned. Rose shuffled the cards turned them with their faces down, and then, adturned them with their faces down, and then, addressing her right hand neighbor, Mr. Storne, in low voice, she demanded

What would you with the Sybil?" would know the future partner of my life," was the formal answer The young man hesitated for a while, smiled, and rejecting all those cards that were nearest himself, put his hand under the pack, and withdrew the lowest one. "Read!" he said, extending the card to the

"Hear!" she exclaimed. "A widow, beautiful as light,
"Twill be your lot to wed—
With a rich jointure, which shall pour
Its blessings on your head."

There was a general clapping of hands and shouts of laughter. It was now Miss Jessie's turn to test her fate. Being a young lady, she would not put the quos-tion in the usual form, but merely inquired what should be her future fate. The answer drawn "To dandle fools and chronicle small boor." a reply that nearly extinguished Miss Jessie for he evening.

"I declare, if here is not Mr. Hugh Hawe!" ex-

"I declare, if here is not Mr. Hugh Hawe!" ex-clamed the lively Lily, as the old miser sauntered deliberately to the table, and stood looking with indolent cariosi y upon the game of the young people. "Come, Mr. Hawe! I declared you shall have your fortain told!"
"Well, well—the commands of young ladies are not to be disobeyed," replied the old man gallantly, as he extended his hand and drew a card, which he passed to the Sybil.

Amid a profound silence, and in a solemn voice he road—
"Thy fate looms full of horror! From false friends,
Near at hand, perdition threatens thee!—
A fear ful sign stands in thy house of life!—
An enemy—a fiend lurks close behind
The rediance of thy planet.—Oh, he warned."

"Pshaw! what serious mockery!" exclamed the old man, scornfully, as he turned away, and gave place to his nephew, who had all the while been posted behind him, peeping over his shoulder.
"Will you permit me to testmy fortune?" inquired the "fascinating" Dr. Hawe.

"And what would you with the Sybil?" was the response.
"I would know the future."
"Dlaw!" said the Sybil, in a tone of assumed Smiling his greatful but most sinister smile, the "Hear!" said the latter, lifting the tablet of fate

"I know thee! -- thou fearest the solemn night! There's a tome in her voice thou fain wouldst shun, For it asks what the secret soul hath done! And thou!—there's a weigh to on thine!—away!— Back to thy home and pray."

"Look! I declare how pale the doctor has grown exclaimed the flippant Jessie: "One would really think to look at him, that 'a deep remorse for some unacted crime preyed on him."

"Nonsense! Jugglery!" said the latter; turning away to conceal his agitation. The eyes of Honora Paulo followed him with est interest—there was that upon his brow that she had never seen before. The next in turn was Agnes. Turning to her,

Rose said,
"What seek you in the magic circle, lady?"
"My destiny," answered the luscious tones.
"Invoke the knowledge!" Agnes drew a tablet, and passed it, as usual, to Agnes drew a tablet, and passed it, the Spbil, who rend—

"Oh, ask me not to speak thy late!

Oh, tethit me not to tel!

The doom shall make thee desolate,
She wrong thou mayst not quel!!

Away! Away!—for death would be

Even as a mercy unto thee!"

Agnes shuddered, and covered her face with her "Put up the tablets! they are growing fatal!"

"Not for the world !- now that each word is "My horoscope was a Honnon-scope indeed! It predicted for me—a short and stormy life, and a sharp and sudden death."

"Mot for the worm:—now that each word is fate! There is a couple yet to be disposed of!—Miss Paule; draw near!" said Mr. Heine.

The cheek of Honora Paule changed; yet striving with a feeling that she felt to be unworing, she smiled, reached forth her hand, drew a tablet, and passed it to the Sybil, who, in an effective oice, read—

"But how is this? A dream is on my soul!
I see a bride—all crowned with flowers, and
As in delighted visions, on the brink
Of a dread chasm—and thou art she!"

Mu dread chasm—and thou art she!"

Honora heard in silence, remembering the strange correspondence of these lines with the prediction of the astrologer, made long rgo, ondeparoring to convince herself that it was mere coincidence and variable transfer. coincidence, and vainly trying to subdue the fore-boding of her heart. "Mr. Dulane!" said Rose, shuffling the tablets, and passing them to him. He drow a card, and returned it to be perusod. The : will took it, and a thril of superstitious terror shook her frame as she read—

--- "Disgrace and ill, And shameful death are near!" An irrepressible low ery broke from the pallid lips of Honora. "Throw up the cards!" she said: "It is wicked, this tampering with the mysteries

The above is the cominencement of Mrs. Southworth's great story, which is now being published in the New York Ledger. We give this as a sample; but it is only the beginning of this most interesting, fascinating, and beautiful tale—the balance, or continuation of it, can only be found in the New York Ledger, the great annily paper, for which the most popular writers in the country editribute; and which can be found at all the contribute; and which can be found at all the stores throughout the city and country, where papers are stild. Remember and ask for the New York Ledger of January 16, and in it you will get the continuation of the story from where it loaves off here. If you cannot get a copy from any news office, the publisher of the Ledger will mail you a copy on the receipt of five cents.

The Ledger is mailed, to subscribers, at $2 a year, or two copies for $3. Address your letters to Robert Bonner, publisher, 44 Ann Street, New York. It is the handsomest and best family paper in the country, elegantly illustrated, and characterized by a lifth moral tone.

per in the country, elegantly illustrated, and c. aracterized by a lfigh moral tone.

The story is, of itself alone, worth the price of the Ledger. To peruse the history of the lovely heroine, Miss Paule—how she came to be a bride for only an evening, and all the strange and absorbing particulars connected therewith, will be a treat for all who take the trouble to get the Ledgel.

Her smile so soft, her heart so kind,

Her voice for pity's tones so fit.

All speak her woman;—but her mind

Lifts her where bards and enges sit.

CHAPTER II.

THE SYBIL'S CIRCLE.

17, Honora informed her grandmothluderly, of Godfrey's presence in the Liand the old lady sent her only nel Shannon, to fetch him to Piedrey accepted the invitation. On his and that Gen. Sterne, the governor ina, and his son, had just taken up 5, for several days, with Madame Aure old lady, in his honor, at once sent avitation to some of the neighbors to evening.

An acquaintance of Sir Thomas More, having taken great pains in writing a book, which he intended to publish, brought it to Sir Thomas for his opinion. Sir Sir Thomas, having looked it over, and finding it a foolish, trifling jierformance, told the writer, with a grave face, that it would be worth more if it was in verse. The man, upon this, took it home, and set about trifling it into verse. When he had finished it into grave again to Sir Thomas, who, having took again to Sir Thomas, who, having took again to Sir Thomas, but the single for the control of the properties of the properti

RICHARD HOFFMAN.

WHOLE NO. 447.

A TALE OF LOVE AND RETRIBUTION.

Rachel Bently, the lovely daughter of one of the richest merchants of London, having married George Hoffman, one of her father's cler's, dur-George Houman, one of her lather's cier's, dur-ing the old-man's absonce in India, he on his re-turn disinherited her and discharged George.— The latter being overwhelmed by disappointment, took to drink, and in a few years became a habitnal drunkard; his wife supporting herself and two chi.dren—Richard, now a fine boy in his thirteenth year, and Mary, h sweet child of six by selling, one after another, the remnants of her o ce costly wardrobe and jewelry.

On the last day of December of the year in which our story opens, Rachel was without food, light or fire, and that yory day the rent must be with cold.

Little Mary was mouning for broad, and crying with cold.

The dranken father we sat the dram shop.

The agonized mother had but one more article of value left—a locket containing a lock of her father's h. ir. The had hoped to be able to save this, the first monar to of her once happy home. this, the fast mome to or her once nappy nome. But goaded by little Mary's cries for food she seized the locket, rushed to a pawnbroker's, obtained a few shilling, put, by the amount of the rent and with the rest purchased a little bread and milk for her children, and themset out, with them, to visit the old confidential clerk of her father, Peter Mangles, who had ever been kind to her, to consult him anout sonding Richard away from the contaminating influences with which he was surrounded.

On returning home late in New Year's eve from on returning home rate in New Year's bye from her fruitless visit, for the old clerk was not at home, Rachel discovered that her husband had been home and stolen the sum she had put by for the rent from the place where the had concealed it, and gone off again to "The Crown and Mag-It, and gone off again to "The Crown and Magpie" tavern to waste it in drankenness. Little Mary, chilled and hungry, began to ery for food, and the suffering mother, in hopes of regaining a portion of the indney taken by her husband, set out with her children to the haunt of vice whith er George Hoffman had gone.

There was a great crowd at the har of "The Crown and Magnie." The landindy—a stout, yillgar-looking woman with red with contributions in vulgar-looking woman, with red ribbons in her cap, a profusion of false curls, a heavy gold chain round her neck, and numerous rings on her fat fingers—was busily engaged in pouring out gin for her eastomers; the regular ones she was reating-for it must not be forgotten that it was New Year's eve.

Such was the scene of vice and discipation which met the eye and sickened the heart of Rachel when, with little Mary in her arms, and protected by the presence of her son, she ventured into the house.

"Is Mr. Hoffman here?" she inquired, faintly.

The question had o be repeated several times before she could get an answer. "Can't tell the names of any of my customers," replied the mistress of "The Crown and Magpic,"

"Perhaps you will oblige me by ascertaining." "Too busy, ma'am! Hot water, Sally! Three and eight pence, sir. Half-and-half directly "You can't go in there!" shouted the landlady, s Rachel was making her way towards the parlor. "Mine is a respectable house; I allow no females beyond the bar."
"But I am Mr. Hoffman's wife."

"So they all say," answered the woman, with a There was a coarse, mocking laugh from the crowd of half drunken wretches standing near.—
The eyes of Richard flashed angrily; but the voice, and still more, the imploring look of his

"Let us return home," she said in a despairing tone. "I feel faint and sick at heart." And leaning on the arm of her son, the unhap-

And leaning on the arm of her son, the unhappy wife tottered rather than walked from the place.

The keen, frosty air parlially restored her strength and Rachel proceeded with her children till she reached the throughfare londing through St. Margaret's church yard towards the Almonry, when a faint mean from Mary, whom she still carried in her arms arread by reasons. carried in her arms, arrested her steps. She plac-ed her hand under the thin faded showl which covered her; the child was cold as ice, and shivering, as if seized with an ague fit.
"She is dying!" groaned the terror stricken parent—"dying for the want of food!"

The heart of her boy could or dure no more—it was breaking. The cup of misery and endurance had been filled to overflowing. His brain was on fire—tears could not quench it.

"Take her home mother!" he cried—"take her home! never fear but I will bring you food!—

Mary shan't die! I'll beg—beg," he added;
"anything to save her!"
"Richard! Richard! do not leave me!" sbrieked his agouized parent. "Let me not lose both my children! if you love your mother, retürn—for nity's sake return!"

my children! if you love your mother, return—for pity's sake return!"

The appeal came too late. Her son, stung, maddened beyond endurance by the sufferings of those so dear to him, had broken from her feeble grasp, darted down the thoroughfare, and was already beyond the reach of her voice.

Rachel clung to the railings of the churchyard for support, till a second mean, still failter than the first, sent a pang through her maternal breast.

"She must not die in the street!" murmured Rachel. "Home—home! if I have strength to —"Oh, God!" she cried with a suddie hurst of

Rachel. "Home—home! if I have street!" murmured
—"Oh. God!" she cried with a sudden burst of anguish, "protect my boy! Shield him from crime; guard him against vices and the hideous snares which in a thousand forms assail unfriended youth; or take him," she added solemnly, "take him in Thy meret." Thy meret. hy mercy." It was a Christian's prayer wrung from a moth-

It was a Christian's prayer wrung from a moth-or's heart, uttered in faith, in agony, and tears; and angels bore it to the mercy seat on high. Clasping her perishing child yet closer to her aching bosom, the drunkard's which hastened to her home.

As Richard Hoffman rushed along the street, scarce knowing whither he went, and only intent on the one idea of getting, by some means, food for his famished mother and sister, he was hailed by Jack Manders, an impish hequaintance who lived near Richard's home, and to whom he told the desporate state in which he had left those so dear to him. Jack listened with much interest, dear to him. Jack listened with much interest, and at once proposed to Richard to help him to pick the pocket of an old gentleman, who was staring into a window on the opposite side of the street. Richard refused with horror, although

Jack urged the necessity of at once gotting some-thing to save the life of his mother and little. Ma-ry. Jack t en undertook the Business alone, and just as he had relieved the old gentleman of his just as he had relieved the old gentleman or ms pocket-book, a policeman spring from a doorway to arrest him; but Jack made good his esemps.—Not so Richard, who was at once seized by the policeman as an accomplice of the escaped picknocket. "I am no thief, sir," cried Richard breaking

"I am no thief, sir," cried Richard breaking from the strong grasp that held him, and throwing himself at the feet of the old gentleman, who had just come to the spot, "though poverty and hungor tempted to me become one. My mother stid sister are starving."

The future history and trials of this poor boy will be given in the New York Ledger of January 16, which is for sale at all the bookstores and news offices.

SLANDER.

Information given, to warn or caution, is not slander. But to infuse suspicions, to render some one whom we dislike, obnexious and contemptible in the public estimation, to give a dark hint, a querulous look, or to rob any one of their fair eputation, or even to stain it, is the base office of he slanderer. How often the common conversation of too many is seasoned with the malice of slander. But when we consider that those who possess the least inherent purity are most apt to vilify others, it should shut the lips of all who would not desire to be thus judged.

Going on the Shares .- "Boy where do you come from, and how do you live?" "Would yo like something to-do?" "Don't care if 'taint hard work."

"Well, boy, if you like, I will set you up in ousiness that will prove both pleasant and prof-

The Lebunon Advertiser

A FAMILY PAPER FOR TOWN & COUNTRY, IS PRINTED AND PUBLISHED WEEKLY
BY WM. M. BRESLIN,
In the 2d Story of Rise's New Building, Cumberland St.,
At One Dollar and Fifty Cents. a Year,

63. Adventisements inserted at the usual rates.

RATES OF POSTAGE. In Lebanon County, postage free.
In Pennsylvania, out of Lebanon county, 2/4 cents per quarter, or 13 cents a year.
Out of this State, 6/2 cts. per quarter, or 26 cts. a year. If the postage is not paid in advance, rates are doubled.

Noetru.

TAKE THE PAPERS.

Subscribe, you cannot lose a cent-Why should you be afraid? On interest four fold paid.

While dying from a cough, While he was going off.

Of some new pills in force; He bought a box—and is he dead? No-hearty as a horse.

Wrecked with a scorching fever, Who swore to pay her bill next day. If her distress would leave her. Next morning she was-nt her word-

Till taken down again, "Here Jessie, take these silver wheels, Go, pay the printer now!"

She spoke, she slept, and then awoke With health upon her brow. I knew two men as much alika . As e'er you saw two stumps.

One took the papers, and his life. Is happier than a king's; His children all can read and write,

The other took no papers, and While strolling through the wood, A tree fell down upon his crown, And killed him-werry good."

And talk of men and things.

Had he been reading of his news, At home like neighbor Jim. I'll bet a cent that accident Would not have happened him

Because you borrow of his boy For he who takes the papers,

SAM PATCH. We find in an old paper the following account of the last leap of the famous and foolbardy Sam Patch, who lost his life in jumping over the Genesee Falls at Rochester, New York. It will be emembered that he had before leaped off the Gen-

"Danntless he stood upon the dizzy height, And gazed all fearlessly upon his cold, deep Grave, and dared to dic."

This singular and presumptuous being has, indeed, made his "last jump." Friday, (13th inst.,) at the hour appointed, in handbills which had been previously circulated, headed "Sam's LAST JUMP," the bank of the river on either side below the falls, for near half a mile, where crowded with spectators. Sam appeared amid the shouts and hurrahs of the expectant assemblage. A stage has been erected twenty-five feet higher than the bank of the precipice, making the height about one hundred and twenty feet, from which he was to leap. He had before jumped from the precipice without injury, and how delermined to prove by experiment (in his own language) that 'some things can be done as well as others," as conded the stage, and was again greeted by the cheers of the spectators. Sam addressed those immediately below for a few moments, in a language that seemed to say he half anticipated the result of his rashness. After adjusting his dress; he bowed to the vast assemblage, first upon the one side of the uneaviable station, then on the other, and deliberately leaping off, was for a momen in mid-air, and then engulfed in the abyss beneath. We stood near where he struck, and, for a moment after he left the stage, heard not a word. Each heart beat with a dread suspense, and every eye was strained to behold his rising; but they saw him not, for the water still engulfed its victim. At length, when not a wave or sign gave further clew to hope, the half-formed shout of joy died into breathing murmurs of "He's dead!" "He's gone!" and in a moment the vast crowd knew full well its truth, and turned half aside to conceal the horror that they felt. Thus has Sam Patch, who had rashly, but till now uninjured, sported with the law of nature, given us an example that vain and mortal man may not trifle with bounds prescribed by an omniscient God. The

In the province of Govas, Brazil, Dr. Gardner came to the fezenda of Sape, situated at the foot a small valley. Dr. C. remarked that in this valtains an enormous size, semetimes reaching forty feet in length; the largest he ever saw measured thirty-seven feet, but not alive. It had been taken under the following circumstatice:--"Some weeks before our arrival at Sape," writes

Dr. G., "the favorite riding horse of Sener Lagorica, which had been put out to pasture not far from the house, could not be found, although strict search was made for it all over the fazends. Shortly after this, one of his va juerors, (herdsmen,) in going through the woods by the side of a small stream, saw an enormous sucurju suponded in the fork of a tree which hung over the water. Towas dragged out to the open country by two horses; and was found to measure thirty seven feet in length. On opening it, the bonus of a horse in a somewhat broken condition, and the flesh in a hulf digested state, were found within; the bones of the head were uninjured. Fr.m these circumstances we concluded the bon had swallowed the hor e ontire. In all kinds of snakes; the capacity for swallowing is prodigious. I have often seen one not thicker than my things swallow a frog as large as my fist; and Lonce killed a rattle snake four fect long, and of no great thickness, which had swallowed not less than three large frogs. --I have also seen a very sender anake that fre-I have also seen a very sender anake that frequents the roofs of houses, awallow an entire bat three times its dwn thickness. If such he the case with those smaller kinds, it is not to be wondered at that one thirty, even feet long should be able to swallow a horse, particularly when it is known that previous to doing so, it breaks the hones of the animal by coiling itself around it, and afterwards lubricates it with a klimy, matter, which it has the power of secreting in its mouth.

Why don't you take the papers? They are the "life of my delight," Except about election time, And then I read for spite

An old newspaper friend of mine,

I took the paper, and I read,

I knew a printer's debtor once

Divested of her pain, But did forget to pay her debt,

And no phrenologist could find A difference in their bumps,

Why don't you take the paper?

And pays his bill when due Can live in peace with God and man, And with the printer too.

Miscellaneous.

esee Falls, and also at Niagara; His last loap was taken Nov. 13, 1829; body has not yet been found .- Gem. Why do old maids wear mittons? To keep

A SNAKE SWALLOWING A HORSE:

of the Sierra de Santa Brida, near the entrance to ley and throughout this province the anaconda at-

"Come from Pennsylvany and live by eating."

itable to you." "Drive ahead, 'm a lissenen." "Well, then, you go somewhere and steal a pasket, and go round begging for cold victuals, and you may have half ren get." To ascertain where woman is passionate or not, take a madd winto the parlor.

which it has the power of secreting in its mouth: