Comparisons.

The greatest of public censors, Junius, has i that comparisons are odious. We adopt the sen-timent de a just and fair one; but in doing so, the "wish is father to his thought" that others would do so alkawise. Our neighbor of the Conrier seems to think it necessary to prove his indepointings by questioning that of others. Now we take it that there is neither independence or mora heroilm to the mere act of attacking a harmless and defenceless object. Certainly independence does not consist in expediency; and to say that the Courier always expresses its opinious, without the consent or dictum of the "Judges in Israel"the leaders of his party-smacks of the farcical. A man makes but a sorry show of his independonce in the presence of those, deprived of the power to harm him. We can demonstrate without the braggart or boaster. "I am brave," said Winkles; "I have a bullet in my leg." "Where?" we asked. "Behind, here!" was the reply of the bravo.

Independence is the synonym of manliness. There is nothing of the coward and knaye in it There are no circumscribed limits and boundaries to it. The true scope given to independence is illimitable. It is, to quote Park Benjamin, "No peut up Utica;"

but a boundless sense of what is right, just and honorable, and with a full knowledge of the reeponsibility involved in it, religiously, morally and politically.

But do all thus define it? No, not all-only some, and they, we are inclined to think, de comprehend the importance attached to it-this worldrenowned word, INDEPENDENCE!

Our purpose, however, is not to explain the nature of roal independence, but the contrary. We condition of which are as yet undeveloped, and because of this sileuce, our editorial enpacity for independence is doubted! When the whole facts as they relate to Kansas, are once before the country, it will be time enough to venture an opinion. As an honest journalist, under the circumstances, this cannot be done now.

Seriously: our cotemporary mistakes our char seter when supposing our course, at any time, to be actuated by fear. We are subject to no man or party's consorship. Being responsible for the exercise of a constitutional privilege, we never hesitate, as the Editor of a democratic journal, to express our sentiments when called upon to do soon any and all occasions. This is independence as we understand it-as others understand it, it is, perhaps, kicking-"dead lions!"

We cannot find anything in the proceedings of the Pennsylvania Legislature of interest to the people of this county.

The Logislature of Massachusetts has been in session four weeks, and passed two bills, one of which is to increase the pay of the members,-The Legislature of New York has been in session since the 5th of January, and has not passed a single bill. Both Republican.

The banks of Philadelphia have virtually resumed specie payments. No difficulty it is said is experienced in obtaining gold and silver at any Agreeably to a call, a meeting of the citizens of of them. The Inquirer says it is probable that a formal and general resumption will be announced in the course of a day or two. There is, indeed no practical impediment in the way, and the publie are fully prepared for such a movement.

Pennsylvania Bank .- The report made on Monday of last work to the meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Pennsylvania shows that on the 5th of November last, the aggets of the bank where $2,791,114 37, and its liabilities $2,227,-767 57. After adding the capital stock, the surplus fund, and other liabilities, there was thought to exist at that time a deficiency of $1,319,478 75. The nominal surplus has been increased by recent discoveries. On the 30th ultimo, the account of the bank stood as follows: assets. $2,355.178.04: liabilities, $1,700,074 32; nominal surplus, $365 .-103 72. The report declares the stock of the bank to be irretrievably sunk, and recommends an assignment of its present that its open violetion is no longer talked about, but actually carried out; and that the signment of its property for the benefit of its cred-

We to-day present the message of President Buchanan to Congress on the occasion of transmitting thereto the Kansas Constitution. It is moderate and conciliatory in tone, and we trust will have the effect of shortly putting an end to the abominable controversy which has already lightly in the effect of shortly putting an end to the abominable controversy which has already living the spirit of the above promible and rescultions, with a view of obtaining the sentiment of claimed a score of times more attention from the tired of "Kansas" that if it does not speedily "give peace" we shall buy it, (provided that can be done on trust,) and farm it out to our hones and industrious friends, at 121 cts. per acre a year, (which is about four times as much as it would bring if sold at public sale,) with the understanding, in writing, that they shall mind their own delivered several sermons in the M. E. Church, business first, and if they have any time left then of this borough, on Sunday last. to attend to that of other people. We will take it out of Congress and out of politics, and thus save more to the people than the whole Territory is worth.

Congress .- The House of Representatives re half-past six o'clock on Saturday morning, quarreling whether the President's Special Message should be referred to a special committee or to the Committee on Territories, and then adjourned to Monday without deciding the question.

About midnight a fist-fight occurred between Mr. Grow, (Republican) of Pennsylvania, and Mr. words passed between them, when Mr. Grow up fist and knocked down Mr. Keitt. RESUMED OPERATIONS.—One of Plax seed, G. D. Coleman's Furnaces at North Lebanon, was started last week.

THE Lebanon Valley Bank has taken possession of its new and eligible quarters in Stine's new building, east of Reinhard's Hotel, on Cumberland street.

THE MAILS between Reading and Harrisburg are now carried on the Lebanon Valley Railroad. It requires time to perfect the new arrangement, but as our people had been greatly annoyed for a year past with the mail's irregularities, we trust proper attention will be given to make the matter perfect as quick as possible.-The mails were brought down on Friday for the first time, but did not arrive here until mear eight o'clock, owing to a run-off or break down ; and much trouble what the real characteristics are of Saturday's mail we did not receive until Monday, it having been left at Womelsdorf.

> - In another place we give the proceedings of the meeting held in this place in regard to a repeal of the present License Law .-Quite a large number of the most respectable citizens of the county were in attendance, and we do not doubt that the resolutions adopted/are the almost unanimous sontiment of the people. Petitions praying for the passage of a law in accordance with the sentiments of the meeting, are now in circulation obtaining signatures. We trust they may be rapidly filled up and transmitted to Harrisburg.

So far as we can gather from our exchanges a farge number of petitions have already been presented to the Legislature, coming from various portions of the state. Mr. Donovan, the member from Philadelphia, presented one hundred, the other day, alone. We have no doubt, that some chose to remain silent upon questions, the true bill will soon be reported and acted upon by the Legislature, charging the present aw-radically changing the entire principle of licensing.

> WE are pleased to learn that the Dramatic exercises, by the scholars of the Myerstown Academy, met with universal approbation. A respectable number of our citizens were there and returned with congratulations and expressions of surprise. We would speak a word, however, in this connection, for the author of the Drama, Mr. SHIMER. The "Sie Transit" be bad designed for the banefit of his school as he stated in his preface and in "no other light (to use his own words,) would he wish to be considered by the community in which he lives or by the public generally." He was obliged to have a few out-siders, who kindly, though reluctantly, conscuted to take the more heavy and responsible characters. He no doubt must feel himself much indebted to the young ladies and the gentlemen of Myerstown, who assisted him upon those occasions with so much skill and credit, and his school will also be gratified to learn that they are reported to have performed their parts with public approbation. Upon the whole the exhibition useful lessons may have been derived upon those occasions, all reflecting upon the great subjectcause, Education,

CARPER, JOHN HARPER.

Legislature being now in session, we deem it oportune to express a sincere desire that they their wisdom will repeal the law as it now stands on the statute books, and substitute one more equal in its spirit, exacting in its execution, and more beneficial to the morals of our community, Therefore,
Resolved, That our Senator and Representative

are hereby respectfully requested to use all legit-imate means in their power to effect the repeal of the present unequal law, and enact one in its stead more liberal in its operation, and less subject in its execution to violation. Wood's Hair Rostorative.—This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been ladd for years. It is not precended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—Moline Workman.

Great Crowds .-- Low Prices. ONE morning, last, week, as a friend and myself, were leishrely walking out Market street; and on arriving near the corner of Guilford street, our attention was attracted to a large crowd of Ladles and pearly all of whom were provided with large market boskets, and shers with satchels hatging to their arms, and were evidently intent upon the same object. Upon inquiry we found that in the Mansion House, on the corner of Guilford and Market streets, is located the extensive Dry loods, Groccry, and Queensvare Store of our Polite and diable friends, FUNCK & BRO., who have just opened a large stock of Fall Goods, and that the great crowd of Ladles were their regular customers, who may be seen daily at their counters, purchasing their goods. All we saw were evidently satisfied with their purchases; twee loud in the praises of the excellent quality of their stock, and all were of the unanimous opinion that FUNCK & BRO. sell the best qualities, at lower prices, than any of their competitors. So our advice yould be to you, one and all, both great and small, to tive Funck & Buo a call, and they will surely try to please you.

GREY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL, COLOR.

THIS astonishing and unequalled preparation has never failed to produce a growth on Bald Heads, when need according to the direction, and turn built back to its original color, after having become gray and reinstate it in all its original health, lustre, softness and beauty.—Removes at once all sent fundruff built unpleasant itching, scrofula, cruptions and frontish heat from the scalp. It also prevents the hair from becoming unhealthy and falling off, and hence acts as a perfect.

HAIR INVIGURATOR AND TONIC.

To your inquiries, I would reply, that when I first commenced using Fref. Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very local and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used all the second bottle, twhich was eight weeks; my hair was entirely changed to its original color. Light brown, and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair out five or six times since the change, and have never soon anything like white hair starting from the roots; and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish to ask.
