Lebanon Adbertiser.

LEBANON, PA., FEB. 24, 1858.

For the Lebanon CHARADE.

In a country the star of the Keystone you'll find My whole the largest and best of its kind, It towers toward heaven, 'tis sank in the earth, And it's ends as far distant may be as its birth.

In Fall when all pature seems gloomy and old, When the weather is changing from warm to cold, Then my first you will find in it's glory and pride In the fields of the farmer on every side.

'Tis a diet most healthful for man and for beast, To the rich a good dish; to the poor a rare feast; "Tis fine to the eye, 'tis good to the taste, And before it is ripe it is plucked with much hast

My second you'll find at most every place, And to shut themselves in 'tis used by a race; 'Tis made both of stones, of brick and of ground, And of sizes that vary may slways be found.

In my fourth or my whole my third you will find, From which things are made most of every kind: Now transpose it and then a word you will see-The name of a beast always ready to flee.

My fourth and my last a pronoun may be, And one which means the same as "to me:" "Tis also a place where things can be found Of value, hidden under the ground.

Now, reader, I hope my whole you can guess, For 'tis by this time entire plainness. LEBANON, Feb. 17, 1858.-Ans. next week.

The Big Meeting. MR. Enmon :- One of our veterans of the anid Democracy of the true school-a jolly retired be made unless some of it is dISTRIBUTED among farmer, of complete Tentonic blood and notions, and who will either crack a good joke or none at all-made a remark to me the other day that suggested a number of ideas. I was reading to him from the Philadelphia "Press" the Editor's vaunting account of the great "Anti-Lecompton Meeting got up in that City, and headed by his selfconceited and self-important self, in order to scare most triumphant air of the immense assemblage of "Freemen," all whom he represents as Democrats united under the banner of Forney & Co., to save the country from impending ruin-and in elevated strain tries to make the "rest of mankind" believe that such was the patriotic object of this host of sterling and "tried Democrats." When I had finished reading these prompous nothings, my friend, above mentioned, remarked, vory tartly and to the point, that if the "tried Democrats" of Philadelphia were called upon to hang Colonel Forney, the number either of tried Democrate, as he calls them, or rowdies of all or no parties, or of the very sort that met on that occasion, would not be a whit less. And so I think, Mr. Editor. Of course neither my friend nor myself thinks that the Editor of the "Press" deserves to be suspended in that fashion, yet we do believe that a crowd of equal importance in number and character to the one in question could be scared up within an heur's notice to perform the hempen deed. It is very true, and it is to be deeply regretted, that many Democrtas have been misled and gulled by the hypocritical appeals to the sacred principle of "Popular Sovereignty,"-for the name sounds very Democratic,-yet one thing I think is certain, that the great body of the Democracy of Pennsylvania have not been carried away by the more echoes of Democratic maxims, sounded forth by demagogues and traitors. If we know nothing more, we know this, that in our own County, at least, the great Party is faithful and true, as it has ever been; and in spite of the prodigious efforts of disappointed politicians to hold up the administration of Mr. Buchanan to the ridicule and contempt of the world; without much progress, though a literary succemp; in spiss of Forney's great indignation meeting, and when they grow weary their steps are often

These works were three stories high, occupying two-thirds of a half a thrown out of employment. The High school, a three story frame tobacco warehouse, belonging to John S. Gable, and the extensive livery stables of David Reese, were in imminent danger, but through the persevering efforts of our noble fireman the fire was confined to the Iron Works .--Had the warehouse caught, which was well stocked with leaf tobacco, the loss of property would have been immense; and as it is, Mr. Kieffor loses heavily, being insured for but $13,000. The patterns destroyed, (said to he one of the largest collections in the state,) will amount to the sum of $30,000. The entire cost of the buildings and their contents, is estimated at $75,000, of which nothing remains but the ruined machinery and the tottering wall. The safe and books, togethor with a few other articles, is all that was saved. "DON'T STRIKE SENATOR WILSON."-A Boston paper, noticing some irritating remarks of Senator Wilson, of Mass., in the United States Senate, in regard to the slavery question, implores Souththe friends of the Administration. He speaks with | ern Congessmen not for all the world to strike that gentleman, as it will certainly insure his re-election. Should they not strike him, or inflict any other indignity, the same journal looks upon his re-election as hopeless. Senatorial qualifications in Massachusetts must be at a very low

DREADFUL ACCIDENT .- The Harrisburg Telegraph records a dreadful accident at "Union Deposit Furnaces," South Hanover, Pa. One of the furnaces not working satisfactorily, in order to ascertain what was wrong, the workmen engaged in the work of cleaning the lower part of the furnace out ; but whilst they were so engaged, the hot metal came running out in torrents, so unexpectedly, that five persons were literally showered over with the liquid fire, immediately setting their elothing on fire and burning them in a dreadful and shocking manner. Some of the unfortunate men jumped into the canal, and others into the water tub; but this proved unavailing-they were so dreadfully burned that no human help could save them. John Baler, David Landis, W. Murray, and a man called Dutch John, have since died from their wounds, and were buried yesterday, whilst Moses Wolf, another of the injured, can hardly survive his injuries.

BULL'S RECTO MISTURA,

FOR PILES, TETTER, RINGWORM ND for any Eruption or Exceriation of the Skin whether on the head, face, arms or other parts o the body. Old ulcers or sores, and pimples on the face may be speedilly cured by the use of the Recto Mistura To those especially that are suffering from the Files, we offer a sure remedy.

From Rev. Mr. Enterline. Paster German Church, Cor. Conway and Sharp streets: For the benefit of the affilted, I feel it a duty to state what a blessing a medicine, known by the name of "Bull's Recto Mistima." has been to me. I have been affilted with the Files for eight years, during which time I tried my own remedica, as a practitioner, and many others, but without success. Having heard of Mr. Bull's File Remedy, I tried it; and though I used but one half-bot-tle, I can say that I am perfectly curved. I also used it in a violent case of Tetter, which extended over the whole body, and in less than two weeks it disappeared, and the skin became clean and smooth. I strictly adhered to the directions. a meeting be called at this very time to sustain the Administration, I have not the least doubt numerical strength of the party. The firm ground heartily responded to from all quarters of the County where there is a Democrat to be found. The pure spirit of immortal Jefferson forbid, that Col. Forney or any other man should be denounced, or read out of the Party, merely for difother question ! So long as he did nothing more harmful than to express his at least apparently honest dissent, and to defend his own position through the columns of his paper, no one had a right to charge him with traitorous designs. But now, when, with the audacity of a Cataline. in defiance of the unanswerable position of the President, as expressed in his recent message to Congress, in regard to the one only and final mode by which the Kansas trouble can be forever set at rest-now, I say, when he throws the gauntlet into the the face of the Administration by heading an opposition mob, it is high time to beware of the traitor, and in the bour of danger to fly to the standard of our esteemed and righteous Presi-

For the Lebanon Advertiser. John McKee, Esq., of Butler Co. Mr. EDITOR :- The 4th of March Convention is now near at hand, and the Democracy are looking about for suitable candidates for the State of. fices next fall. In connexion with that of Canal Commissioner permit me to mention the name of sold. A gentleman of Glasgow last summer of-JOHN MCKEE, Esq., of Butler county. He was late Sheriff of that county, has been a contractor on various public works, and is a thorough-going Democrat. He would bring experience into the Canal Board, and in my humble opinion the Convention might go further and fare worse in the selection of a candidate. R,

For the Lebanon Advertiser. The Forney Swindle!

"The Lecompton swindle" is quite a favorite and standing caption to almost every article published in Forney's Press. Has it never occurred to the redoubtable Col. that the greatest swindle perpetrated in a long time, is the one by which he obtained subscriptions to his Press? Money has sometimes been obtained under false pretences; Col. Forney obtained the subscription price of his paper in a way very similar in very many instances in Lebauon county.

In his prospectus he promised to publish a th oreaghly democratic paper, and scarcely two son, when party treason attempted to break down months elapsed before he tumbled body and his administration, so will they stand by James breeches into the open arms of the Black Repub. Buchanan, if he is compelled to pass through the lioans -- the same party who but a short time ago same ordeal: And hence, he who looks for a rupknew him too well to allow his election to the U. | ture of the great Democratic party, will look now S. Senate. Truly the Democracy of the whole country owe a lasting debt of gratitude to Wagonseller, Menear and Lebo, for saving them the take charge of the Clinton Democrat, at Lock Hahumilisting spectacle of seeing two such rene- ven, lately edited by Mr. Dieffenbach, Deputy gades as Douglas and Formey in that august body.

His last swindle purports chase a letter written the position. to him by a Democrat from Lebanon! Here, it is well known that no domocrat ever wrote the. letter, that if written at all, its euthor is a foulmouthed Black Republican.

Dr. Henry W. Stoy, an old physician of Western Virginia, died recently. He was born in Lebanon, and studied medicine with Free Bak. er of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. From that place. he came to Brownsville in 1807. He resided short time in Westmoreland county, Pa., in the year 1849. He, however, returned to Virginia, defendant. when he had his residence for some years past.
