Letter from Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17, 1858.

Wm. M. Breelin, Enq .- Mr. Editor :-In the few letters upon the "Union Movement in our city, I have endeavored to show the nethis work may fail, not from any lack of readiness on God's past to hear, but from the danger summons went forth in ancient days, "Who will come up to the help of the Lord?" one city among all stood-aloof; and observe the Lord's doings towards that city. "Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the Lord, curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the Lord against the mighty." When the ark of the Lord was brought from the house of Obededom with sounds of joy and rejoicing, Michal, the daughter of Saul, looked on with indifference, and God cursed her with perpetual barrenness .-Should not we fear, in this day, when the fullness of the Gentiles is being brought in, lest by standlog still, while the pleuteous dews of Heaven are every where distilling, our souls may receive no rain! Arouse ye! men! Cry rather, "Awake, oh, North wind; and come thou South; blow apon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits." Religion is a growth from grace to grace-a constant development of the soul. There is no standing still-'onward and upward" is the tendency of a Christian's aspirations from milk to strong meat. The soul regenerated differs naturally from the carnal-its spectite is unsatisfied; until it centres in the sun of Righteousness, it knows no rest. When God manifests Himself to the believer, as He does not unto the world, then follows peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. "The carnal mind is enmity with lustrates this in the Parables of the "Unjust Judge," and "Lost piece of Money," and commended "Bartimous" for his importanity in the restoration of his sight." Said He, "The kingdom of Heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force." "Grieve not the Holy Spirit." No enterprise ever succeeded without labor .reward of ours is so transcendently glorious. Listen to the word of encouragement, "Be of good faint not! brave all things for the Master's sake,

That such perversion should be made, while the | Episcopal Church provided for such a case. cry is every where, "To the help of the Lord!"-But the day of small things is not to be despised! Our talente, however small, will be like David's "pebbles and sling" in God's way, mighty in pulling down strong holds, "and though we fight against Principalities and Powers," our victory is sure! "The diligent hand maketh rich." Be diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." Mark the connection—the service of our Master does not interfere with our occupation"word for Christ, yea a cup of cold water (what simplicity and how easily attainable!) to one of His little ones "shall not go unrewarded," The issue is before you. Importunity is victory! Let all lend themselves to the Lord in full consecration; our service will soon be ended; the reward-"crowns and palm: throughout eternity."

When the secular press, the judiciary, the physician, the mechanic, the merchant, and all classharmonize on this one issue, 'Union for Christ,' thin indeed, will be the dawning of the Millenial period, "when every one shall not only know the Lord," but be united to him in as close sympathy as the branch with the vine.

May the happy period soon come! "SIGMA." There is an association in Philadelphia composed of about thirty Germans, who aim at improving the breed of Canary birds, and last From that it appears that the bird sales of Phila. are confined to Germans, and amount to $40,000 sunually, and three-quarters of that are Canaries. The common or original Canary, is of the least value, and sell at $2 apiece; the improved birds bring from $8 to $10 apiece, and are from Central Europe. The great majority of these birds were obtained from Belgium, where they are bred by the peasants. They are what are called long and short breeds. Birds of the long breed are procured from Brussels, Antwerp and Dietz, where they sometimes obtain extravagant prices. Their sent depends upon the color and shape, the pure golden yellew being the most esteemed .-They are only used for the purpose of breeding, and semetimes sell for $30 a pair. The short breed is raised by the people of the Hartz Moun may be the more readily trusted as his story acknowledges his own defeat, was aroused one night by a heavy bumping noise on the stairs. Unable to account for it, he rose, donned his dressing gown, and with his candle in his hand proceeded to investigate the cause. Half way down stairs he perceived a large rat employed in facilitating the descent of a half-loaf by pushing it down from one step to the other. Anxious to redeem his property, the owner descended after it. The rat at first continued his exertions, but as the enemy gained upen him, he changed his tactics, and turning his front upward, began to climb toward his opponent. This was just such an intruder as might with all justice have been kicked down stairs: but so stern was his air, and so menacing his aspect, that the gentleman hesitatof indifference on the part of Christians, that ed, and besitation ended his retreat. His feet should be in the work, but are not. When the being named only with a linners, he lost heart and being armed only with slippers, he lost heart and began slowly to ascend backward; while the rat deliberately mounted after him, and thus steadily drove him back to his bedroom, the door of which he shut in the face of his foe, and terminated the adventure by retiring to bed, while the rat returned to his well-earned booty."

An Infernal Machine.—An infernal machine vas found recently in the warehouse of R. Kent, on the canal, in South Akron, Ohio, while removing a stock of agriculture implements, &c. The Beacon says . "Oh taking out and inspecting it, of a brass clock, so adjusted and fixed that the friction matches, connected with a train of tissue paper and fine shavings over the tube of a lamn wick. An oyster can, out and fitting with a leather top, and filled with camphene, was placed ander the clock, being the tamp to furnish blaze .-The box was enclosed in a large box, which contained combustibles. A bettle of camphene was near, and some quarts of quick friction matches. When adjusted and the lamp lighted, the clock would have run several hours, (according as it was wound up,) and gradually drawn the matches into the blaze, when the combustion would have been instantaneous.

Much excitement prevails in Mercer Co., Pa., in regard to the death of a young married woman named Kerr, formerly a Miss White, who has been residing with her father in Lackawannack township, four miles from the town of Mercer. It appears Mrs. Kerr's husband left for California upwards of five years ago, where he has remained ever since, but is shortly expected to return home. She had committed an indistretion, and died under the doctors hands. Mrs. Kerr was about twenty-five years of age, and is described as being a very beautiful woman. The extent of territory and variety of climate of the United States, may be realized in the fact that in certain parts of Texas the wheat crop is now ready for the scythe, while at the North it is just beginning to grow.

THE RABBIT TRADE IN BELGIUM .- It is almost incredible to what a degree of importance this branch of trade has attained in Flanders within the last six or seven years. There are fifty thousand skinned carcasses of these animals exported weekly to England-nore than two and a half millions a year-where they find a ready market as articles of food, while it is difficult to sell them in Flanders at twenty five cents apiece. The preparation and coloring of the skins give employment, in Ghent slone, to more than two thousand tains. BLOODY TRACEDY IN PRILADELPHINA.—The Philadeliphia papers of Friday contain the particulars of a frightful tragedy, which was enacted on Thursday morning in Franklin Square. Good on Thursday morning in Philadelphia papers of Friday contain the particulars of a frightful tragedy, which was enacted on Thursday morning in Franklin Square. Geo.

F. Goodwin, a barber, in the employ of R. Dollard, in Chestnut street, opposite the State House, who had been living for some time with a woman named Lizzie Marshall, attempted to murder the latter by shooting her with a pistol. He then turned the weapon upon himself, and discharged fatal shot through his heart. The wretched man died in the course of half an hour, but the wounds of the woman, although of a very serious character, are not likely to terminate her life. Jealousy was the cause of this terrible deed. It appears that "Lizzio," whose real name is Anna Garland, had recently taken up with a man named Samuel W. Randall, and refused to live with Goodwin any longer. This drove him to desperation, and under pretence of taking final leave of the woman, he obtained her consent to meet him in the Square, with Randall, to say a few parting words; but it turned out that the interview was sought for the express purpose of taking her life and his own. Goodwin was 23 years of age -He was raised in Boston, Mass. He has a mother, and also a wife and two children, who reside at No. 82 West Ceder street, in that city. He came to Philadelphia about two years ago, and brought with him this "Lizzie Marshall," a handsome, showy woman, now 24 years old, who he represented as his wife. It has been since ascertained that she was brought up in Lynn, Mass .the box was found to contain the running works Of their previous history, or how they came together, nothing is known, as it was not suspected. revolution of the stem would draw a bunch of until recently, that the relation existing between the parties was other than legitimate. Randall, who supplanted Goodwin in the affections of Lizzie, is the agent of a New-York Jewelry Mar ufactory.

Col. Benton, in speaking of Congressional matters, and the modern practice of pairing off to avoid the recording of a vote on an importan question, says, that he never paid off but once and that was with a pretty girl on the night h got married.

'No Such Word as Fail." HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

URCULAR TO THE SICK.—The first hospital surgeons and medicinal publicists of Europe admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sanction its use in the inaval and military services; and the masses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the fiery elements which feed and exasperate the malady.

**Phenometries** Servicial Exercises** Rheumatism, Scrofula, Erysipelas.

These are among the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the fleshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable, they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this soothing, healing autidote to pain and inflammation. Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Stiff Joints. Salt Kneum, rever Sorts, Seep volume.

In all cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lotions, and every recipe of the pharmacopæa have proved useless, the Ontment will accomplish a thorough cure. Fever Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its relaxing offect upon contracted sinews is truly wonderful.

Discharging Ulcers. A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcers after a few applications of this Ointment. The surrounding redness vanishes, and grauules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly until the orifice is filled up with sound material, and the ulcer radically cured.

A Word to Mothers.

The young are the most frequent sufferers from expenses.

The young are the most frequent sufferers from ex-ternal injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly at hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes disfigure the heads and faces of children.

Significant Facts. This Ointment is universally used on board the Atlantic and Pacific whaling fleet as a cure for scorbutic affections, and as the best possible remedy for wounds and bruises. Large supplies of it have recently been ordered by the Sultan of Turkey for hospital purposes.

32. Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:
Bunions, Morcurial Eruptions, Swelled Glands, Burns, Piles. Sore Legs.

TOUGHS, CHRONIC RHEUMATISM, DEBILITY, and all diseases arising from a Scrofulous or Impoverished state of the Blood. 1994. HEGEMAN, CLARK & CC.'s Genuine Cod Liver Oil, Has stood the test of over ten year's experience, and is recommended by all the most eminent physicians as the most valuable remedy in use. Dr. Williams, the celebrated Physician of the London Consumption Hospital, took notes of its effects in about 500 cases, and found it more efficacious than all remedies yet discovered. This remedy, so valuable, when pure, becomes worthless or injurious when adulterated. See that the label has the exples and mortar, and the signature over the cork of each bottle, as thousands have been cured by the use of the genuine article who had used others without success.—Said by all Druggists.

What the Farmers say:

A late writer says that "the various species of vermin are multiplying at a fearful rate throughout the land.—
Their ravages have become a matter of serious dread."—
A Postmaster in Illinois, writing to "Costar's" Depot, says, "The country is literally overrun with them, (rats, mice, &c.") Another from the same State, says, "The rats positively gnaw the halters off my horses while in the stable." An Ohic correspondent remarks, "They (the rats) are everywhere—in the house, the barn, and under every stump in the field." In the South it is still worse. A late order from the Navy Yard at Mobile was for thirty pounds of the Rat Exterminator alone.

What the People say:

New Yors, April 12, '56.

Dear Sir—Hawing a great many rats around my stable and shop, I thought I would try your Rat Exterminator, and bought one of your boxes, and fixed it according to your directions. The next morning I found over one hundred and fifty dead rats. I take pleasure in saying that it will do more than you say it will. I have also tried it on steamboats, and satisfied them that it is the greatest thing of the age.

Sir—* * All this summer I have be en troubled with roaches and Mice. I was actually a hamed of the house, for the Roaches were everywhere, and I don't knew what I should have done by this time. DR. HARDMAN TREATS CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, Laryngitis, Asthma, and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, by

The great point in the treatment of all human maladies is to get at the disease in a direct manner. Min medicines are estimated by their action upon the organ requiring relief. This is the important fact upon which Inhalation is based. If the Stomach is diseased, we take medicine directly into the Stomach is diseased, we take medicine directly into the Stomach is diseased, we take medicine directly into the Stomach is diseased, we take medicine directly into the Stomach is diseased, we take medicine directly into the Stomach is diseased, we take medicine directly into the Stomach is diseased, breathe or inhale medicated vapors directly into them. The reason why Consumption and Diseases of the Lungs have heretofore resisted all treatment has been because they were not approached in a direct manner by medicines. They were intended to be local, and yet they were so administered that they could not act constitutionally, expending their immediate action upon the Stomach, whilst the foul ulcers within the Lungs were unmolested. INHALATION brings the medicine into direct contact with the disease, without the disadvantages of violent action. Its application is so simple that it may be employed by the youngest infant or feeblest invalid. It does not derange the Stomach, or interfore in the least with the strength, comfort or business of the patient. *** No charge for consultation.
