HOME AFFAIRS

An Exhibition of Miss Wheat's School, we learn, came off on Thursday evening

The North Lebanon Brass Band and Union Glee Club of Lebanon, gave a Concert on Monday evening at Jonastown.

James N. Rogers, still continues the Tin and Sheet-Iron Business. He attends, in a workmanlike manner, to all spouting, roofing, &c. Adv. next week.

Mr. John H. Sowers was the fortunate person to win the Buggy at the Ladies' Fair, on Monday. The Harness was won by Mr.

The Town Council of Wilkesbarre contempiate to organize three Fire Companies-have the engines put in good order, and erect suitable houses for their preservation and the use of the companies.

The letter of our Washington correspondent did not come to hand last week until Wednesday. We now give a few paragraphs from it, not anticipated from other sources.

A Destructive Tornado passed over a part of East Hanover township, Eghanon county, in Tuesday evening of last week. It passed over the premises of George Hawk, Jacob Zimmerman, Jacob Bomgardner, Jacob Albert, Geo. Gerherich, John Backenstose, Jacob Harper, and others, tearing down trees, fences, and injuring buildings.

A portion of the lots commonly known as the "Mifflin Estate," in North Lebanon Borough, are now in market at private sale. It has been the desire of many persons for a number of years past that they should be sold for improvement, in view of which we doubt not, that the opportunity being offered, they will be speedily disposed of. See ndv. in another column.

We were pained to learn on Friday that Mr. David Tice, of the firm of Shirk & the carriage, made a mis-step, fell, and fractured and MARSHALL. He is doing very well under the

We have seen many people in Lubanon, but on Monday were the most. Knowing that our county contains a population of but 30,000 we cannot say, conscientiously, that there were so many, but with reverence we would name 15,000, more or less If any hody counted them, nacossary corrections, but until then we stand by the 15.000, more less. The causes were the Balluon Ascension, Ladies' Fair, and the day being a Holiday-(Whit-Monday.)

BUBB & Bock, has just returned from the city calls the attention of families. It is portable, and Admirably adapted for washing, butchering, soup boiling. &c. Any quantity of water can be heated by this contrivance, with the smallest possible quantity of coal. He invites farmers and others to call at his store in Cumberland street, opposite Hoffman's Hotel, and look at his goods.

Locomotion under Difficulties .-An old codger, with ugly phiz, knapsack and empty bottle, his dwarfed body filled with rum up to the eyes, found his way to town on Thurslay last, in opposition to the dogs who disputed his entrance. About the middle of town his drunken bend made better progress than his drunken legs, and continued so for about an hundred yards, when the whole mass of drunken hu manity tumbled into the gutter. He was helped up, again started, and, after one or two tumbles, he found his way out of town. We note the mutter, because it being unlawful for sober hogs to run about the streets, we cannot see the propriaty of permitting drunken ones to do so.

PROF. J. H. STEINER, the daring Young American Aeronaut, made another magnificent Balloon Ascension from Lebanon on Monday. This was his second ascension from this place, and both were as successful as science and daring could make them. He did not get off at the hour advertised, an account of the high wind but at precisely four oclock, he entered his tiny our, and in a moment was sailing beautifully over our town in a south east direction. He was dressed in the American sailor "rigging," (very becomingly too,) waving his flag, the stars and stripes, as far as the eye could behold him. He landed safely, some miles beyond Shaefferstown. in Lancaster county, having sailed about 14 miles in as many minutes, and was brought back to town, by Mr. H. D. Carmany, about 7 o'clock three hours after he ascended.

There must have been 10,000 people on the ground, but we are sorry to say, that, as at his first ascension, their curiosity was gratified without rendering Mr. Steiner an equivalent. We trust our business-men, who reaped a harvest from the many people he attracted to town, will, if they have not already, do "the right thing" towards him, so that when he leaves our town, as he shortly will, he can do so rejoicing. He now goes, by invitation, to Harrisburg, York, &c., and we take pleasure in thus publicly recommending him. If he undertakes to make an ascension, he will do so, to the gratification of all. He is no humbug.

NARROW ESCAPE .- Judge Thompson of the Philadelphia Court of Quarter Sessions on Saturday last re considered the sentence of Henry Watts, who had been sentenced to five years' imprisonment, after a conviction for garroting. Watts was one of a party charged with running a western drover into an alley, and, after garroting, robbing blin. It has since been clearly proved that the drover, instead of being garrated, went voluntarily into a den with a colored Cyprien, and that the latter had plundered him-The whole story of the garroting was manufactured and Watts it has been ascertained, had nothing to do with the affair.

BITTEN BY A SNAKE. On last Saturday, as his son, a lad of about twelve yours of age, were walking through his wheat field, the boy being some distance behind his father, on a sudden screamed with terror. His father hastening back, found that a monstrous black snake had coiled around the boy's foot and leg-the boy being without shoes-and bit him in a dreadful man; ner. Mr. Brubaker having to support the boy. could not follow to kill it. After bringing the lad home, he made an application of galaratus dissolved in whisky, which effectually removed he poison.—Lan. BY OUR LOCAL REPORTER.

The Missionary Board of the United Brethren Church held their annual session in this Borough last week. A number of strange ve learn, were quite interesting.

Dangerous.-Taking a walk out outh Mulberry Street recently, we observed publicly exposed an uncovered well at the roadside. The place is no doubt much frequented, and immediate steps should be taken by the proper persons to have the already too long neglected affair repaired, which may perhaps be the means of saving the lives of unguarded individuals.

A New Badge.—Dr. Hooker, of Perseverance Sax Horn Band, a beautiful silver Sadge. It resembles a half-moon, andb ears the following inscription-"P. S. II. BAND."

"Save while you may,

No morning sun lasts a whole day.' The Collector, Mr. A. H. Embich, vill soon call upon our citizens for the State and County Tax. Those desirous of saving five per cent. (and who wouldn't these pinching times.) would do well by "squaring up" previous to the 14th day of July ensuing.

The citizens of our neighboring owns we observe, are joining the crowd who claim a right to the National Foundry. Meetings are called, resolutions adopted, and Committees appointed to urge upon the government "the superior advantages of their sites." Without any disparagement to any of the places proposed, we think there is no town in the Union that presents Montgomery's band of outlaws. Several stores tv than Lebanon, and our claims in this important matter should not be overlooked.

We have for the past few weeks levoted a good portion of our time to the Ladies' Fair, acting in the capacity of "one of the Comuittee," and consequently were unable to do full have a written pledge, under which they are justice to our column. The devising of "ways and means" being now over, we shall again persevere in gracing our column with whatever may occur. So kind friends if you only give us ratoral, we shall endeavor to prove that-"We are at | Tuckerman, the Mail Robber, in the State

The Ladies' Fair and Gift Enterprise came off with eclat on Monday. Early in the morning flags were unfurled to the breeze in and will give us the exact number, we shall make all parts of town, and our friends from the rural districts' poured in by scores. Never on any former occasion have we seen so large and gay ted from the recent heavy rains, and the city auan assemblage of people in town. There was a thorities attempted to find an outlet for it. In great rush to the Pair. Gentlemen were allowed to "spread" themselves freely before the pleasant Mr. Henry Bubb, of the firm of things to out and drink, and the scone in the refreshment locality was agreeable to the eye of a cr driven in very firmly, were forced out, and the with a new lot of Cooking Ranges, Furnaces, Ventilators, and Regulators. He also procured a new article called the Farmer's Cook, to which he new article called the Farmer's Cook, to which he go out could not, but in lieu thereof increased the water and beer. The loss is $30,000—and it is hurgry man, and to the stomach of a full one .-

The occasion was greatly enlivened with the excellent music of the Perseverance Band, which contributed much to the interest of the occasion. In front of the Hall stood a regular ticket wagon,' the 'Perseverance Engine,' from the latter a neat address having been delivered by J. L. len the river, which now runs as high as during Rightmyer, Esq., and was followed by several any previous freshet of the present soason and other speakers during the day. Visitors from were pleased to find our Bro. type, A. J. Ashenfeiter, of Norristown, and several members of the Reading Hose. In the lower Hall stood the The Buggy was drawn with ticket No. 240, by for several years past. Mr. J. H. Sowers, and the Harness by Mesers. Mr. Smith and several others not to be outdone, had splendid cakes and endy on hand. The Supper n the evening was a "feast of reason and a flow of soul," and the ladies cannot be too thankful to many of our good and kind-hearted citizens for their aid in sending in provisions. On the whole we must say this was really a grand af fair, and all gallant people appear to have been satisfied with it. Those who got rid of a little of their lunse change may well rest satisfied that it went for a good cause—something noble and worthy, and which we always like to see encouraged-the gallant firemen.

EXCITING APPAIR IN KENTUCKY .- Newport, Kentucky, was the scene, last week, of an exciting domestic scandal. The actors in the drama are a banker, an engineer and his wife. The engineer, suspecting that some unauthorized party was surveying his lot and interfering with his domestic links, pretended to leave home, and then with a friend, to watch his premises. He soon discovered that his friend the banker was drawing illegally upon his capital, and, not relishing dishon ored drafts, drew a revolver on the millionare.-The banker, so enger for gold, ran from lead. The husband pursued, but was arrested in his shoot ing expedition by the Sheriff. He has now com menced a more civil suit in the courts, and lays his damages at $24, 000

INDUSTRIOUS PRISONER. -An English paper publishes the sketch of the life of a prisoner, composed by himself in Winchester jail. The origiund is in the shape of a printed book; the letters and words all having been cut out of waste paper by the man, with his finger nails, as no knife Mr. Levi Brubaker, of Warwick township, and or scissors were allowed. After cutting out the words suitable to his purpose, he carefully pasted them in proper order to form a small book, comprising 22 pages. A piece of poetry, addressed to the prisoner's wife, is included in the singular

A rare event occurred in Saxony-the elease of a convict after not fewer than fifty years' detention. This man was condemned to imprisonment for life for having formed part of a notorious band of brigands, and was sent to the prison of Walheim. He remained there until a few days ago, when he obtained a pardon. Notwithstanding his long confinement, he is in good health, and he has returned to his native village this Borough, presented to each member of the of Leutersdorf with a sum of 200 thalers, the product of his labor in the gaol.

ATTACK BY A CHICKEN.—The Village Record states that a little daughter of Mr. Patrick Mc Coy of West Chester was severely injured on Saturday last by a game cock. The chicken came out of a yard and attacked her, driving his spur into the neck of the child, just, below the ear, about half an inch deep, and, inflicting a wound on the forehead, which was cut to the skull, and several other wounds about the face.

The New-Haven Register announces the arrival of Tockerman at the State Institution in very truly remarks that he is getting still deeper | Whetherfield, safe and sound. He takes the afin the mire, and excuses his weakness by adding fair coolly and philosophically, and is evidently that "he ought to pour the shot harder."
