JAS. F. MAXWELL, At Brua's Hotel, Lebanon

The Managers of the Agricultural Fair of this county, are busily engaged in preparing the Fair Grounds. The location is, as has been stated heretofore, on the "Mifflin Estate," in North Lebanon borough.

We heard a rumor last week that 'Zion's Lutheran Cemetery is to be vacated of the dead and sold out for building-lots. If anything of the kind is in contemplation by the congregation the sooner it is done the better.

We are pleased to observe that the Democracy of the Atlantic District, New Jersey, have nominated George A. Walker, Esq., formerly of Annville, Lebanon county, as their candidate for Congress. His many friends in this section are gratified with his success.

The Eagle Hotel of this borough has been rented by Mr. HENRY SIEGRIST, to take nossession on the 1st of April next. While sorry to lose so obliging and popular a landlord as Mr. HAAK, we are glad that his successor is Mr. Sie-GRIST. Mr. S. had the same hotel several years

Our friend and neighbor, Dr. Lineaweaver, has just finished putting up excellent and substantial curbing all along his valuable property on Cumberland street. If the next step of the Dr.'s would be the putting up of a splendid brick building inside of the curbing, it would also be a visible improvement.

The Councils of the Boroughs of Lebanon and North Lebanon, bad a meeting last week, and spent a day in examining the various strenms and water sources in the neighborhood. They also employed Mr. HYNECKA, in accordance with the resolution of the late water meeting, who is now engaged in making the surveys and estimater. Immediately upon the completion of his report a meeting of the citizens will be called.

Business in Philadelphia and other commercial cities, is said to be far beyond what was generally supposed it would be, although western and southern merchants have scarcely yet began coming in. It would be still better if it were not that crosking has of late be.

Let the future be somethiog better. For that and let all stop croaking, and be up and doing. The business future is a bright and prosperous one, especially for Lebanope.

To-day (Wednesday,) there is a general celebration by England and the United states, of the laying of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable. We perceive that some arrangements are also made in this place for a celebration this evening. It is hoped that none of those participating will forget that it is commemorative of a great Scientific and Christian event, and outrage he occasion by drunkenness or disorderly con-

Our opposition friends of this county, in the resolutions of their convention last week touch very tenderly protection and the coal and iron interests of Pennsylvania. This is accounted for by the fact that they have two well-known free traders on their State Ticket. Their shoets are daily and weekly filled with talk about protection, while their candidates and resolutions entire ignore it. Principles are always secondary with the opposition party, and that of protection is very often thirdly and fourthly.

olumns it will be seen that Adam Haak, the popular landlord of the Eagle Hotel, of this borough, announces himself as an Independent candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Haak's lease of the Hotel expires in the Spring, when it will be taken by Mr. Henry Siegrist. Hence Adam would find it particularly convenient to move to jail, of him any harm particularly, but should like very much to see him in jail. He deserves being put there for at least three years. Will the people entence him to go there?

The election of Delegates to the Democratic County Convention of Berks, took place on Saturday, and resulted in the almost unanimous endorsement of Hon. J. Mr. FAWKES has been invited to make a trial of his plow at Philadelphia, during the Agricultural Fair there-he also contemplates visiting the State Fair of Illinois, to compete for a $5000 premium, which the Society offers for the best steam plow. The question with us is, ought not our Society extend to Mr. FAWKES an invitation to exhibit his Steam Plow at the Lebanon County Agricultural Fair, and to test its merits. The Steam Plow is something new in this locality, and if practicable our farmers should have the advantage of seeing and judging for themselves what progress our master American mechanics are making in the arts and sciences. THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIA-TION OF LEBANON.

This Association of Young Men was organized last June. Similar Societies have been started in nearly every city and town in the Union, in England and on the Continent of Europe. So that it may be said with truth to be one of the most important Associations in the world. Its bject is to elevate the spiritual, social and inellectual condition of the Youth of the land, having no basis but the Bible, no element but fraternal love. It constitutes a beautiful type of the coming brotherhood of mankind. This Association has been formed to exert an influence for good upon the rising generation, and a higher object than that on the face of the earth you cannot occupy. While it does not conflict with the great work allotted the Church, it humbly hopes to be an handmaid of Religion and exert a saving influenced upon the Souls of Men. But it embraces a wider field than that of direct religious instruction. The true principles and purposes of the Association are not wholly spiritual By reference to our advertising and religious. The refinement of the intellect as well as the cultivation of the Soul is made an object. To occupy those brief intervals of relaxation, those evening hours during the week which are at the disposal of every young man, in the acquisition of knowledge, temporal as well as spir some 2@3000 busness, in 10ts, at 100e for interter, 120 to 125 ets for fair to good reds, and 132@ 140ets for white. Strictly prime lots of new would bring 2@4 ets & bushel more. Rye is dull, and old sells slowly at 80@83 cents. New is wanted at 70 cents. Corn.is in fair demand at former quoted at 70 cents. We do not wish generation, must rejoice to see the Young Men of ledge of things earthly, as they are to do battle in an age of enquiry and of education in behalf of a wisdom which descends from above. Certainly it is not one of the lowest aims of the Young Men's Christian Association to aid this enterprise. Not only to teach a young man what Gospel, but also what man is as a matter rather of fact than of doctrine, apart from the Gospel. Such, I take it, to be the purpose of this Association-the improvement of the mind and the Salvation of the soul. It is indeed an omen of bet er times, when the young men of the land, full of hope, energy, zeal, enthusiasm, join together on the basis of our common Bible, dur common Christianity and our common Salvation, leaping ver those barriers of Sect and party which divide and distract the Church of Christ. This feature of the Association—its unsectarian Spirt—has great charms for me. And I take it really as a token of good and a matter of great surprise, that here in Lebanon and all over the vorid, young men should be willing to unite for uch an object as that which these Christian Asociations have in view. I am not flattering the nembers of the Association here or elsewhere, but congratulating my country upon the fact of this great Association and of these remarkable reunions having the intellectual, moral and spiriual improvement of thousands for their object It is an omen for good and it surely proves that

A Thousand and One Stories

A Thousand and One Stories

OF FACT AND FANCY, WIT AND HUMOR,
Rhyme, Reason, and Romance.

DITED BY S. G. GOODRICH—(PETER PARLEY.)
One volume, large of taye, handsomely bound in red morocco, with gilt side and back; containing 750 pages and ILLUSTRATED by 360 Beautiful Engravings.

The design of this book is to bring whole libraries into a single volume—to furnish a mental meal for every day and every hour—for every taste, humor, age, caprice—a book for the grave and gay, the old and young; we have, therefore, Science and Philosophy, Rhyme and Reason, Wit and Wisdom, Fact and Fancy, which, put together as they come, produce a sort of intellectual pudding, inasmach as the whole is peppered and spiced with puns, conundrums, and drolleries, to say nothing of a garbish of three hundred engravings.

In this pages are given the essences of thought and sentiment from Outhe, Sydney Smith, Sam. Johnson, and many others; clerical anecdotes, Hibernian eccentricities, Western extravaganzas, gathered from the four winds of the Press; outlines of the Tales of Don Quixote and Gil Bläs; of the Fables of Flavian and Lafontaine; of the epic poems of Jerusalem Delivered. Telemachus, Orland Furloso, and others; of the Life and Sayings of Mirs. Partington and the Widow Beiott; of the Bunsby Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of the Life of Sam. Houston, Gerard the lion-killer. Cum-

Sayings of Mrs. Partington and the Widow Beiott; of the Bunshy Papers and the Green Mountain Girls; of the Life of Sam. Houston, Gerard the lion-killer, Cummings the elephant-destroyer, and Livingston the giraffechaser; of Stevens' Travels in Egypt & Palestine, Paul and Virginia. Alexander Dumas the Swiss Family Robinson, Mr. Gliddon and Sam. Patch; with spicy citations of prose and poetry, from the master-spirits of the day—Longfellow, Bryant, Bayard Taylor, Dr. Kane, Commodore Perry, etc. It furnishes, also, a fund of information for the serious—the Natural History of the Bible, which is is subject of exhaustless interest; striking facts in Astronomy, Chemistry, and Näthral History; remarkable Bi-graphies, interesting Travels, and Wonderful Discoveries in Act and Science.

Peter Parlett, the editor of this book, has a world-wide reputation as an author—his writings having become familiar as household words wherever the Eliglish latingues is spoken. THIS IS HIS LAST WORK, and we predict for it a popularity equal, if not superior, to that acquired by any of his former publications.

23. This work will be sold exclusively by subscription, at the low price of $3.50. Agents wanted in all parts of the odifity to obtain subscribers for it.

Specimen copies will be sent by mail, prophid, to any addrass on receipt of the price. For full particulars address.
