COUNTRY AND CITY BANKS.

In our last-issue we devoted a considerable space of the Advertiser to the relative situation of the Country and City Banks, and the arbitrary and oppressive workings of the "Clearing House system," erecently established in Phila-" delphia, through the instance of its Merchants, who in order to save a paltry amount of discount on the notes of most of the country banks, have for months. past been so clamorous and importunate party matter. It comes home to every on the subject as finally to have effected person let his pursuit in life be whatsotheir object by inducing a combination of all the "City" Banks to select the Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank to undertake the return daily for 1 per cent of the notes of Banks located in the interior of the State for redemption, either Bank accommodations, and thereby Muhlenberg. We simply stated that he Our neighbor the "Genrier" has justly observed that "country merchants and others doing business in Philadelphia, long as the Banks in the country are digging his grave politically for ever .cannot now expect to receive discounts in country banks." They would not ex- culation by the clearing house system should happen to be effected, and least pect a bank to discount liberally for as would-warrant the granting discounts of all would we abuse any man outside them, if they required specie at the

Yet they might as well demand it as from the Banks the farmers will be conto take the notes to Philadelphia; for in strained to keep their grain unsold in this latter case the banks have but about their granaries. If the farmers cannot three days circulation for their notes .- | sell their grain and realize money there. They are taken to Philadelphia one day, from who can calculate the consepaid to the merchant the next, who the same evening deposits them in a city up on our railroad and demands their redemption.

"The law contemplates no such thing from what other source shall it come, to coerce the country banks into, viz: that they shall keep more than one place open for redemption of their notes; and all, and one which requires some action the combination of the Philadelphia banks looks to us very much like a conburg, Baltimore, New York, or any oth- teresis of the country, and against the en place one of its notes may chance to selfishness, and contracted policy of the get to.
