Terrible Accident and Death.-We are pained to announce that Cornwall township lost one of its best citizens last week by a sudden and terrible accident. Mr. Christain Bomberger was engaged in quarrying stone on his farm. In endeavoring to set off a blast, the fuse exploded, and Mr. B. had gone forward to examine the charge, when, as he was leaning forward peering into the hole to learn its condition, the charge was blown out into his face. His eyes the store as a specimen. were knocked out, and nose, cheek and jaw bones broken, in short the whole face was dreadfully mutilated. He lingered in an insensible condition until Saturday when he died. Mr. B. was highly regarded by all who knew him. He was an intelligent, upright, and conscientious citizen. Being thus suddenly carried off in the prime of life, his loss will be severely felt. He leaves a family consisting of wife and eight children to mourn kind husband and father.

The Messis Swartz & Bro. have just received a large and manificent stock of Winter Goods from the East. Their stock embraces a variety of every article kept in Dry Goods, Grocery and Queensware stores. The attention of the public is solicited to their new goods.

The cry was "Still it comes!" while others shouted "Hold, enough!" We allude to last week's rain. From Monday morn to Saturday eve, and perhaps "a day longer" it was "rain, rain, rain, and nothing but rain." The result of Republican victories. We will have no more of them.

The Cornwall Teachers' Association met at School house, No. 6, Nov. 6, 1858, according to adjournment. Weather very unpleasant; consequently Messrs. There were three applicants for the position, viz :- Daniel Light, (pressent Steward,) E. G. Lantz, Union, and Edward Kreider, Union. Behm voted for Light; Kreider for Kreider; and Leutz for Lantz. A Lebanonian abroad.-The new rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association of Philadelphia, on Chestnut street, above Tenth, were formally opened by dedicatory services on Wednesday afternoon. Among others, in attendance, who made addresses, was Simon J. Stine, of Lebanon. The association intends building a house, and towards that object $12,000 were sub-'scribed in less than twenty-four hours. The Philadelphia association is in a very flourishing condition, and its recent meeting is very encouraging to others of a similar character.

A sale took place in this vicinity last week which strongly reminded us of the late attempted sale of the Pennsylvania bank property, in Philadelphia, with this difference that in the former case the bidler "got" the property, in the latter the bid was not accepted. The property sold was a frame dwelling-house, belonging to Garfous Blust, Esq., built on ground rent, at the Plank-road near Lebanon. Great competition was manifested among bidders, and at last it was struck down to Geo. Brooks for 13,000-mills .-He loaded his property on a Wheel-barrow and removed it to another location; and thus ended Garfous' opperations in real estate.

The services of Fred. Shultz, Esq., as County Commissioner, ended on Monday, of last week, and Mr. David Hollinger, of Jackson, took his place. So far as we can learn Mr. Shultz's performance of the duties of the office for the past three years gave general satisfaction. He was attentive and impartial, and always sought with the assistance of his intelligent colleagues, to administer for the best interests of the public. FIRE ENGINE FOR PITTSBURG .- A few days since a beautiful fire ongine passed through our town en route for the West. It was built by W. M. Ives & Son, of Baltimore, and intended for the Neptune-fire company of Pittsburg. The running gears are made of polished wood, the box is printed a deep blue, the levers are all polished iron, the arms are polished hickory, the gallerry is a very dushy affair most elegantly painted, and heavy gilt moulding. The badges are four in number, one on each side, one before and one behind. Around the top of the gallery in front and behind is the name and number of the company.
