"Resolved. That the Committee of Ways and Means, when appointed, be instructed to report a crully, speak of brighter prospects and evidence and such other articles as need protection against foreign competition.

We devote a vast amount of space, to-day, in the Advertiser, to the President's Message, which we publish and patriot, James Buchanan.

It sets forth all the prominent issues which will require the attention of the mends such legislation as is necessary to protect the honor of the country abroad, and secure domestic peace and tempt at mystification in this message. Each point is clearly stated, and the facts so simply and plainly narrated as to be within the comprehension of the humblest man in the Union. The whole tone and temper of the message is prudent and conciliating, while the topics belonging to the foreign relations of the Republic are treated in a spirit of wise, enlightened, patriotic and fearless states. manship, which must arrest the attencandid men of all parties.

We trust that every reader will give it a fair consideration, especially the Mexico, Central America, and to the and should remain so, will soon be prominently before the public, and as particonstitutional and patriotic views of the President.

A RESISTLESS REMEDY HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. CIRCULAR TO THE SICK.—The first hospital surgeons and medicinal publicists of Europe admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Gintiment; governments sanction its use in their naval and imilitary services; and the unasses in this country and throughout the world repase the utmost confidence in its carative properties. It penetrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the flery elements which bound and covergreat the unlary. ents which feed and exasperate the malady

Rheumatism, Scrofula, Erysipelas. These are among the most terrible and agonizing diseases of the muscles, the fleshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable they invariably disappear under a presevering application of this soothing, healing antidote to pain and inflammation. Salt Rheum, Feter Sores, Stiff Joints. In all cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lo tions, and every recipe of the pharmacope a have proved assless, the Ointment will accomplish a thorough cure Prever Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its relaxing effect upon contracted singwais ruly wonderful. Discharging Ulcers.

A most immarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcors after a few applications of this Onlineat. The surrounding redness vanishes, and granules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less fability until the orline is filled up with sound material, and the secer radically cured. A Word to Mothers.

The young are the most frequent safferers from ex-ternal injuries, and therefore every mother should have this healing preparation constantly at hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the cherusted sores which sometimes distigure the heads Significant Facts. This Othtment is universally used on board the Atlan-lic and Pacific whaling fleet as a cure for scorbutic affections, and as the best possible reinedy for wounds and bruises. Large supplies of it have recently been ordered by the Sultan of Turkey for hospital purposes.
