or The Pennsylvania Legislature met 'vesterday. The Democrats, hav-Tog a majority of one in the Senate, will probably organize by the election of Senator Cresswell as Speaker, and Gen. Wm. H. Miller for Clerk, the only persons who seem to be candidates. In the House matters and things are quite different. The opposition are largely in the ascendency, and hence, the mast head." the candidates for the various offices are legion. For Speaker, the prominent opposition candidates are A. K. McClure, of Chambersburg, and Col. Lawrence, of Harrisburg.

The former is favored by our neigh. bor of the Courier, and, in fact by almost the united opposition press of the State, but as the press does not happen to be the real power on the throne, Mr. McClure will most likely come out second best, and Mr. Lawrence take the Chair. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

CIRCULAR TO THE SICK.—The first hospital surgeons and medicinal publicists of Europe admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory and healing properties of this Ointment; governments sauction its use in their naval and military services; and the misses in this country and throughout the world repose the utmost confidence in its curative properties. It penetrates thoseurces of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neutralize the fiery elements which feed and exasperate the maindy.

Rheumatism, Scrofula, Errysipelas.

These are among the most terrible and agentzing diseases of the museles, the fieshy fibre and the skin; yet in their worst forms, and when seemingly incurably, they invariably disappear under a persevering application of this goothing, healing antidote to pain and Inflammation.

Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Stiff Joints:

In all cases of Salt Rheum, where medical waters, lotions, and every recepte of the phermacopea have proved useless, the Cintment will accomplish a thorough cure. Fever Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its relaxing effect upon contracted sinows is truly wonderful.

Discharging Ulcers.

A most Inmarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of muligiant ulcers after a few applications of this Cintment. The surrounding redness vanishes, and granules of healthy fieth begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly until the orifice is filled up with sound material, and the secer radically cured.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Deap Sir: Some time last Summer we were included to use some of your Hair Restorative, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty in you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's head for some time lasd been perfectly covered with soces, and some called it scald head. The heir almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings; advised us to use your Restorative, we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of our friends, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair so entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair as any other child. We can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant accorp of hair as any other child. We can therefore, and do hereby recommend your Restorative, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours respectfully.

The British Reviews, and Blackwood's Magazine. GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO SUBSCRIBE!

PREMIUMS AND REDUCTIONS. L. SCOTT & CO... NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

I.
THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conversative.) THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig.) THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church.)

THE WESTMINISTER REVIEW (Liberal.) BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britian—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their Character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained frem any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of davagice Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to the se Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
